2013 HOUSTON TEXANS MEDIA GUIDE

The print version of the 2013 Houston Texans Media Guide is a supplement to the digital version of the 2013 Houston Texans Media Guide, which can be found online at http://media.houstontexans.com. Elements that remain relatively unchanged and are not included in the Houston Texans Weekly Game Release during the season, such as executive bios, coaching staff bios, football operations staff bios, the 2012 Texans Season-In-Review and the Texans Team History, are included in this publication.

Player bios, rosters, transactions and the Houston Texans record books are updated weekly during the season and are electronically distributed to media, as well as made available online at the Houston Texans media website.

HOUSTON TEXANS MEDIA POLICY

MEDIA CREDENTIALS

Media credentials will be granted based on the following guidelines:

1. Houston-area media agencies which cover the Houston Texans on a daily basis will receive top priority.
2. Media agencies which cover the opposing team as requested by the opposing team's public relations staff.
3. National media agencies which cover the National Football League regularly (includes online properties such as ESPN.com, Yahoo! Sports, CBSSports.com, etc.).
4. Daily or weekly newspapers with a circulation of at least 100,000.
5. Television stations with a nightly news show and a nightly sports segment.
6. Radio stations with a 24-hour sports format and are affiliated with a national radio network (i.e. ESPN, SportingNews, Westwood One, etc.).
7. Daily or weekly newspapers with a circulation of at least 50,000.
8. Other requests not falling under one of the above categories will be considered on the basis of space availability in the Reliant Stadium press box.
9. No freelance credentials will be granted.

Season-long credentials are issued in August; game-by-game credentials must be requested before 5 p.m. on the Tuesday prior to each home game. All credential requests must be submitted online at http://media.houstontexans.com.

CREDENTIAL REQUESTS (ROAD GAMES)

If you are a regular member of the Houston media who wishes to cover the Texans on the road, submit your request for game credentials and parking passes through Kevin Cooper at kevin.cooper@houstontexans.com. All requests must be submitted no later than one game previous to a road contest. Credentials will be distributed on either Wednesday or Thursday during open locker room.

GAME DAY PARKING

Parking for Texans games must be applied for online at http://media.houstontexans.com. The appropriate parking pass will be required for access to media parking lots on game day.

ENTRY ON GAME DAY

The media entrance at Reliant Stadium is on the west side of the stadium on the corner of Kirby and Murworth. Enter the media entrance which is located just right of the Verizon VIP gate.

WILL CALL

Media will call is located on the west side of the stadium at the corner of Kirby and Murworth. The media will call gate is located just right of the Verizon VIP gate. The appropriate game credential must be presented at the media entrance for admission into the stadium. Game credentials not picked up in advance will be available on game day at the credential will-call window. Please remember to bring valid identification. The window will open three hours prior to kickoff and bags will be checked upon entrance to the stadium.

PHONES AND INTERNET

To request a phone on game day, contact Jeff Schmitz of the Houston Texans IT department at (832-667-2130) the week prior to the game. The Texans press box offers complimentary wireless Internet. If you have any questions on game day, see Schmitz at his post in the press box, located on the third level behind Evan Koch and Kevin Cooper.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS AND LOCKER ROOM ACCESS

Members of the media needing to conduct post game interviews will be given access to the Texans' and visiting interview rooms after the game, as well as the home and visiting locker rooms. NO STILL PHOTOGRAPHERS OR AUTOGRAPHS ARE ALLOWED IN THE TEXANS LOCKER ROOM. With six minutes remaining in the game, take the media elevator to the field level. Videographers without field access will be in the team auditorium for the duration of the game. Gary Kubiak's postgame interview session with the media will begin approximately 10 minutes following the conclusion of the game and will be held in the Texans Team Auditorium (white arrow). Electronic media covering the press conference are asked to use the mult-box to ease congestion at the podium. Both team locker rooms will be open to press bearing the proper credentials following the NFL-mandated 10-minute cooling-off period. The visiting head coach will be available in the visitor's interview room across from the visiting locker room.

To reach either locker room from the press box, simply take the elevator to the service level and follow proper direction arrows on the ground:

Blue - Texans locker room
Red - Visitors locker room
White - Texans post game press conference

PRESS BOX

The press box phone numbers are (832) 667-2831 (home PR) and (832) 667-2814 (visiting PR).

PHOTOGRAPHERS

Photographers who are credentialed on a season-long basis for sideline access will be required to wear a photo vest. Sideline access for NFL games is limited to photographers on assignment for recognized or sports publications. No one except network television personnel and authorized game personnel will be admitted to the field without a camera. All field photographers must remain outside the bench areas and outside the yellow border surrounding the playing field.

MEDIA WORKROOM

The media workroom is located on the service level at Reliant Stadium across from the Texans' locker room. The room is available to working media throughout the week. Phones, Texans information, NFL news releases and other information are available. Wireless service will be available in the media workroom.

INTERVIEW REQUESTS

All interview requests for Houston Texans executives, coaches, and players should go through the Texans communications department.

Please give at least 48 hours for your request. For Texans players, assistant coaches and executives, please send your request to Evan Koch at evan.koch@houstontexans.com or call him at (832) 667-2050; or Charles Hampton at charles.hampton@houstontexans.com or call him at (832) 667-2282.

Requests for owner Bob McNair, general manager Rick Smith and head coach Gary Kubiak should be sent to the attention of Senior Director of Communications Kevin Cooper. His e-mail address is kevin.cooper@houstontexans.com and he can be reached on his office phone (832) 667-2035.

Kubiak's Monday news conference is held in the Texans' team auditorium at 3:30 p.m. He speaks with the media after practice on Wednesday and Thursday at approximately 1 p.m. and on Friday at 12:15 p.m. in the Texans' media workroom (times are subject to change). Kubiak conducts his weekly conference calls on Wednesday morning for the opposing media.

OPEN LOCKER ROOM PERIODS

The Texans open locker room period is after post-practice meetings on Wednesday and Thursday from 2-2:45 p.m. (time subject to change) on the service level of Reliant Stadium. Friday's open locker room period begins at 12:15 p.m. Please be advised that sit-down interviews will take place after practice at approximately 4:30 p.m. on Wednesday and 3:30 p.m. on Thursday.

Special requests can be fulfilled on Monday or Tuesday, but it should be cleared with a member of the Texans communications department. You should give at least a week's notice for special arrangements on Monday and Tuesday. Everyone in the locker room must dress professionally and have a job function. The Texans communications department can remove any member of the media from the locker room for improper dress or unprofessional behavior.

CONFERENCE CALLS

The Texans Communications Staff will record and transcribe all visiting team conference calls. Conference calls take place on Wednesday in the media workroom or the Methodist Training Center conference room. Weekly updates of conference call participants and times will appear on http://media.houstontexans.com.

PRACTICE REGULATIONS

Texans locker room and practices will be open to the media during the week as specified. We will provide a specific time during practice for shooting video. Texans head coach Gary Kubiak will speak after Wednesday and Thursday practices at approximately 1 p.m. and on Friday at 12:15 p.m. in the Texans' media workroom (times are subject to change).

PRESS RELEASES

The Texans' weekly press releases, as well as other news and information on the club, can be accessed on the team's official website at http://www.houstontexans.com or in the media section at http://media.houstontexans.com. Members of the media also can access league information from the NFL's media site at http://www.nflmedia.com. The NFL's official web site address is http://www.NFL.com.

PARKING DURING THE WEEK

Parking for covering Texans weekly press conferences, open locker room or for access to the media workroom, use the Day Lot, located on the southeast corner of Kirby and Westridge. While covering practice, park in the Teal Lot on the northeast corner of Kirby and Murworth.

LIVE SHOTS

Monday-Friday

Live shots on Reliant Park property must be set up through the Texans Communications Department in conjunction with SMG. Please contact Evan Koch at evan.koch@houstontexans.com or 281-605-9666 before setting up a live shot. Locations will be set up through the communications department. Please give the Texans 12 hours to ensure proper set up.

Gameday

NFL network television partners and Texans media partners will be given priority for live shots at Reliant Stadium. Television stations are allowed to shoot live at Reliant Stadium until one hour before kickoff. Please get permission from Texans communications 48 hours before the game in order to shoot live.

NFL network television partners and Texans media partners are the only broadcast entities permitted to shoot live from inside Reliant Stadium in the hour following the conclusion of the game. All other entities are not permitted to shoot live, transmit taped interviews for live broadcast or transmit live programming from inside Reliant Stadium until one hour after the conclusion of the game.

Live shots and live streaming for transmission are NOT PERMITTED from the Texans post-game locker room for any entity.

HOUSTON TEXANS MEDIA WEBSITE

To access the Houston Texans media website, go to http://media.houstontexans.com. The section contains all Texans press materials, historical information, updated team statistics, media guide and credential information. Applications are being accepted for training camp, season or individual game credentials.

To apply for game credentials, please submit your request on the website the Tuesday before a Texans home game by 5 p.m. CT.

Fans can access coverage on http://www.HoustonTexans.com throughout the season on Texans TV. The Texans broadcast live streaming video of press conferences, as well as game highlights, interviews, in-depth team features, community recaps, NFL Network footage and much more.

HOUSTON TEXANS MEDIA GUIDE

The complete 2013 Houston Texans Media Guide is available online at http://media.houstontexans.com and is updated after every game and team transaction.

Player bios and the Houston Texans record books are updated weekly during the season and are electronically distributed to media, as well as made available online at the Houston Texans media website.

The online version has been improved and is available in PDF format, allowing media to print, copy and paste information in a much easier fashion. Player bios will be updated following each game, as will the roster, history and records sections. PDF versions of the media guide are available via email request. Printed versions of the media guide are available on a case-by-case basis.

EXECUTIVE MANAGEMENT

ROBERT C. McNAIR

FOUNDER, CHAIRMAN AND CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

Robert C. McNair, a leading businessman, sportsman and philanthropist in the city of Houston for more than 50 years, is the founder, chairman and chief executive officer of the Houston Texans. McNair is perhaps best known in the business community as the founder of Cogen Technologies, which was sold in 1999. Cogen was the largest privately-owned cogeneration company in the world, with aggregate capacity of 1,400 megawatts.

McNair serves as chairman of The McNair Group, headquartered in Houston, Texas, where he oversees an investment portfolio that includes interests in two cogeneration plants in the eastern United States. McNair owns Palmetto Partners, Ltd. and RCM Financial Services, L.P., private investment entities that manage the McNairs' private and public equity investments, and is a member of the Texas Business Hall of Fame.

Committed to bringing a National Football League team to Houston, McNair formed Houston NFL Holdings in 1998. On Oct. 6, 1999, the NFL announced that the 32nd NFL franchise had been awarded to McNair, returning professional football to the city of Houston in 2002. McNair's efforts and influence have also played an integral role in bringing two Super Bowls to Reliant Stadium: Super Bowl XXXVIII in 2004 and Super Bowl LI, to be played in February of 2017. His Texans won their first AFC South title in 2011 and gave the city its first NFL playoff game in nearly 18 years, a 31-10 win against Cincinnati in the Wild Card round on Jan. 7, 2012. The Texans claimed their second consecutive AFC South title in 2012 and finished the regular season 12-4, matching the most regular-season wins in the city of Houston's NFL history.

McNair is actively involved in NFL affairs serving as chairman of the Finance Committee, and is a member of the Audit, Stadium and Expansion committees.

As Founder and Chairman Emeritus of the Texas Bowl, McNair revived Houston's collegiate bowl game on Dec. 28, 2006. The game now features teams from the Big 12 and Big Ten conferences and on average draws 62,000 fans each year to Reliant Stadium. In 2012, the game between Texas A&M and Northwestern drew 68,395 fans, making it the third largest non-BCS bowl game in the country. McNair selected DePelchin Children's Center as the charity beneficiary of the bowl in 2006. DePelchin has been awarded nearly $600,000 and received more than $11,000,000 in promotional value.

Stonerside Stable, a major thoroughbred horse farm in Kentucky, is also among McNair's successes. A 1,947-acre thoroughbred horse farm and racing stable, Stonerside was home to more than 275 racehorses, broodmares, yearlings and weanlings. From its inception in 1994, Stonerside won 72 Graded Stakes races including Grade I wins in the Belmont, Breeders' Cup Mile, the Travers, the Haskell, the Hollywood Gold Cup, the Cigar Mile, the Carter, the Swaps, the Wood Memorial, the Matriarch and the Oak Leaf Stakes. Stonerside also has finished second and third in the Kentucky Derby and was the co-breeder of Fusaichi Pegasus, winner of the Derby in 2000. Stonerside has bred the winners of over $50-million, including the 2008 Breeders' Cup Classic winner Raven's Pass and 2008 Champion American Juvenile colt Midshipman, the winner of the Breeders' Cup Juvenile. Stonerside was named breeder of the year in 2007 and 2008 by Kentucky horsemen. McNair served on the boards of the Breeders' Cup and Thoroughbred Owners and Breeders Association. He was awarded the Allan Bogan Memorial award for outstanding services to the Texas Thoroughbred Association. McNair is a member of the prestigious Jockey Club which governs the sport of thoroughbred racing. In October 2008 McNair sold Stonerside Farm and Racing Stable.

McNair is Chairman of The Robert and Janice McNair Foundation, The Robert and Janice McNair Educational Foundation in Forest City, N.C., and the Houston Texans Foundation. The McNair Foundation was honored as the 2003 Outstanding Philanthropic Foundation by the Association of Fundraising Professionals, and in November 2004, the Foundation was honored by the Houston Independent School District with a Hall of Fame Award. Young Audiences of Houston awarded the Foundation its Houston Community Arts Partner Leadership Award in 2008. The McNair Foundation was honored by the Neuhaus Education Center in March 2012 for their loyal support over the past 15 years. The Foundation was one of several honored at the Mayor's Literacy Leadership Breakfast in May 2012 for their support of literacy training for adults. In March 2013, the Foundation was honored by Hermann Park Conservancy for support of its Centennial Gardens.

The McNairs have given generously to a wide array of charitable, scientific, literary, educational and religious organizations through the Robert and Janice McNair Foundation. Major support has been given to scholarship programs at Baylor College of Medicine's MD/PhD Program, the University of South Carolina, Columbia College, Austin College, Virginia Tech and Houston Community College. Educational initiatives supported include the HISD Fine Arts Program, Project GRAD, Teach for America, Neuhaus Education Center and local charter schools. Contributions to the community include the McNair Asian Elephant Habitat at the Houston Zoo, the jogging trail at Discovery Green, Equestrian Center for the San Jacinto Girl Scouts, McNair Cub Scout Adventure World, the Computer Training Center Room for the United Way, McNair Hall at Houston Baptist University's Cultural Art Center, and sponsorship of community outreach programs for the Houston Symphony and Houston Grand Opera. The McNairs endowed the Janice and Robert McNair Chair in Public Policy at the James A. Baker III Institute for Public Policy at Rice University, which currently is held by the founding director, The Honorable Edward P. Djerejian. The McNairs turned their philanthropic focus to medical research in 2007 and gave a transformational gift to establish the McNair Medical Institute at Baylor College of Medicine to fund the McNair Scholars Program which recruits top physicians/scientists in the fields of juvenile diabetes, breast and pancreatic cancer and the neurosciences. Additional McNair Scholars Programs were established at M.D. Anderson, Menninger Clinic, Texas Children's Hospital and Texas Heart Institute. One of the McNairs' more interesting projects supported in 2012 was the adoption of two horses for the Houston Police Department's Mounted Patrol by contributing annually for their upkeep. The McNairs renamed the horses Texan Star and Cushing 56. In 2013, they adopted another horse that was renamed Sergeant Swatt 99.

McNair is the recipient of many awards, including the Anti-Defamation League's Torch of Liberty Award, the Northwood University Outstanding Business Leader Award, the Association for Private Enterprise Education's Herman W. Lay Memorial Award, the Distinguished American Award from the Houston Chapter of the National Football Foundation, the Distinguished Citizen Award from the Rotary Club of Houston, The South Main Center Association City Builder Award, the Houston Advertising Federation Annual Trailblazer Award recognizing him for significantly enhancing the overall image of Houston both locally and globally, the Distinguished Citizen Award from the Sam Houston Area Council of the Boy Scouts of America, The Denton A. Cooley Leadership Award from the Texas Heart Institute, the Freedoms Foundation at Valley Forge National Award for Outstanding Patriotism, Responsible Citizenship and Community Involvement and the Fellowship of Christian Athletes President and Mrs. George H. W. Bush Community Impact Award. In June 2005, Rice University announced that the newest building on the campus, the 167,000-square-foot home of the Jesse H. Jones Graduate School of Management, had been officially named Janice and Robert McNair Hall by the Rice Board of Trustees. In January 2006, the McNairs were the recipients of the Texas Association of Partners in Education Award for the Texas Outstanding Sports Partnership. In October 2007, the Baylor College of Medicine bestowed their first Pink Ribbon Hero Award for Ambassadorship on the McNairs for their support of past Pink Ribbon Houses and for their commitment to the fight against cancer. In April 2009 the McNairs were honored at the annual KIPP Academy dinner as devoted supporters of education for inner city and underprivileged youth. In May 2009, McNair was named Entrepreneur of the Decade by the Houston Technology Center. In November 2009, McNair was awarded the James A. Baker III Prize for Excellence in Leadership which recognizes nationally and internationally renowned leaders for their excellence in public service and civic life. In December 2009, McNair received the inaugural Rotary Lombardi Humanitarian Award. In February 2010, Janice and Bob McNair received the Encore for Excellence Award from the High School for the Visual and Performing Arts for their support of the fine arts in the Houston Independent School District. In April 2010, the McNairs received the Kezia DePelchin Award for their support of the DePelchin Children's Center and long history of philanthropic efforts in the Houston area. In May 2010, McNair was inducted into the South Carolina Athletic Hall of Fame. McNair also is a founder of the Cotswold project, a revitalization project focused on downtown Houston. The Association of Fundraising Professionals honored the McNairs at their National Philanthropy Day Luncheon on Nov. 3, 2010 with their Maurice Hirsch Award for Philanthropy, the highest recognition given to honor an individual or family for their exceptional generosity and outstanding civic and charitable responsibility. The McNairs were selected to be featured as Houston Treasures in The Social Book – 2011, a Houston publication. McNair was honored by the Junior Achievement of Southeast Texas as a member of the Class of 2011 Laureates, JA Hall of Achievement in April 2011. Texas Children's Cancer Center honored the McNairs as the 2011 Community Champions in September 2011. The McNairs were honored to serve as headliners of the Escape Family Resource Center's annual Celebrity Serve Benefit in April 2012. In October 2012, the McNairs were honored at the 10th Anniversary of McNair Hall at Rice University. McNair was one of the Men of Distinction honored at the May 2013 luncheon benefitting medical research and treatment for children in the Texas Medical Center. Bob and Janice McNair were Honorary Co-Chairs of the Impact a Hero Gala in May 2013 and the Honorary Campaign Chairs for raising money for the American Cancer Society's Hope Lodge Houston. They will be the Community Partners Honorees along with the Houston Texans at the Houston Symphony's Centennial Opening Night in September 2013. In November 2013, they will be the Honorary Event Chairs for the DePelchin Children's Center Gala.

McNair is a current or past member of the Boards of Trustees of a number of institutions, including Rice University; Baylor College of Medicine; the Texas Heart Institute; Houston Grand Opera; the Museum of Fine Arts, Houston; the Greater Houston Partnership; the Greater Houston Convention and Visitors Bureau; the Free Enterprise Institute; the Sigma Chi Foundation and the Federal Reserve Banks of Dallas and Houston, and the World Presidents' Organization.

Born in Tampa, Fla., McNair and his wife, Janice Suber McNair, have been residents of Houston since 1960. Mr. McNair graduated from the University of South Carolina in Columbia in 1958 with a bachelor of science degree, and Mrs. McNair is a 1959 graduate of Columbia College in Columbia, S.C. In 1999, Mr. McNair received an honorary doctor of humane letters degree from the University of South Carolina. In May 2010, he was presented with an honorary doctor of humanities in Medicine from Baylor College of Medicine.

D. CAL McNAIR

VICE CHAIRMAN AND CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER

D. Cal McNair was named vice chairman of the Houston Texans in January 2008 and assumed the additional role of chief operating officer in April 2012. He has been a limited partner of the Texans since 2001. McNair also serves as the vice chairman of Palmetto Partners, Ltd., the private equity investing arm of The McNair Group.

McNair has been actively involved with the football operations of the Texans franchise since its inception and attends NFL meetings as part of team management. He also serves on the NFL Investment Committee. McNair was part of the Texans' search committee in the process of hiring head coach Gary Kubiak and general manager Rick Smith during the 2006 offseason.

Prior to 2001, McNair worked at Cogen Technologies for 11 years. In 1987, he was hired as one of the company's first employees. After beginning his tenure with Cogen, McNair helped oversee the construction of several major power plants in the eastern United States, managing those assets in the areas of financial analysis and project management.

McNair is a member of the board of trustees of The Robert and Janice McNair Foundation, as well as the Robert and Janice McNair Educational Foundation. He is a director and vice president of the Houston Texans Foundation, a member of the United Way's prestigious Alexis de Tocqueville Society and a current or past member of the Amegy Bank Advisory Board, Houston Zoo Board, the Fort Worth Zoo Board and the All Saints Episcopal School Board in Fort Worth.

McNair attended the University of Texas at Austin, where he was a four-year member of the Longhorn football team. He earned a Master of Business Administration degree from the Rice University Jesse H. Jones Graduate School of Management.

Born in Houston, McNair attended Cypress-Fairbanks High School. McNair has five children. He resides in Houston with his wife, Hannah.

RICK SMITH

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT OF FOOTBALL OPERATIONS AND GENERAL MANAGER

Rick Smith, a visionary and the primary architect of one of the most talented rosters in the National Football League, is entering his eighth season as General Manager and third as Executive Vice President of Football Operations for the Houston Texans.

Named general manager by owner Bob McNair on June 5, 2006; Smith's appointment made him the youngest general manager in the NFL at 36 and reunited him with former Denver Broncos colleague and first-year Head Coach, Gary Kubiak. Smith is responsible for overseeing all football-related operations and the Texans player acquisition process, including scouting, signing, drafting and trading for top-tier players while managing the salary cap.

Smith adheres to several principles that have shaped his tenure and laid the team's foundation of talent and depth: Trust your evaluation of talent and character. Place value ahead of need. Believe in the process. Stay true to your board. Give players and coaches the tools they need to succeed. Build through the draft and supplement through free agency and trades.

From day one, Smith and his staff rolled up their sleeves and scoured the free agent, draft and trade markets for players who would thrive with the Texans; solely focused on transforming their 2-14 team into a perennial contender. The results have been impressive.

The Texans won their second consecutive AFC South division crown in 2012 and advanced to the Divisional round of the playoffs in 2011 and 2012, compiling a 22-10 regular season record that tied for the second-best mark in the AFC. Houston set a franchise mark with a 12-4 record in 2012; a 10-win improvement under Smith's leadership. Smith's tenure in Houston began with a 6-10 record, followed by a pair of 8-8 records in 2007 and 2008. In 2009, the Texans posted the first winning season in franchise history, narrowly missing the playoffs at 9-7. Houston bounced back from a 6-10 mark in 2010, going 10-6 in 2011, winning the AFC South and securing a playoff berth, both franchise firsts.

Collectively, the Texans' current roster, all acquired by Smith, with the exception of two players, has earned 38 Pro Bowl selections, 26 first- or second-team Associated Press All-Pro distinctions, two Defensive Player of the Year awards and one Defensive Rookie of the Year award. Nine Texans were selected to the Pro Bowl following the 2012 season, tied for the most in the NFL with Super Bowl runner-up San Francisco.

Smith's six first-round picks, between 2007-12, have combined to start 263 of the 282 games they have played. Three of the six have earned All-Pro honors: left tackle Duane Brown, linebacker Brian Cushing and defensive end J.J. Watt. Watt, the 11th overall pick in 2011, was named the 2012 Defensive Player of the Year following one of the best defensive performances in NFL history and a league-leading 20.5 sacks. Cushing was selected 15th overall in 2009 and went on to be named the AP Defensive Rookie of the Year and earn second-team All-Pro honors twice. Brown is widely considered one of the best left tackles in the NFL and is the first lineman in franchise history to earn All-Pro recognition, doing so in 2011 and 2012.

Unrestricted free agents have also thrived in Houston on Smith's watch. Defensive end Antonio Smith signed with Houston in 2009 and has set career highs in sacks each of the last two seasons, earning a trip to the Pro Bowl following the 2011 season. Left guard Wade Smith signed with the Texans in 2010 from Kansas City and made the first Pro Bowl of his career in 2012, his 10th season. Cornerback Johnathan Joseph, who helped turn the Texans' defense around after signing from Cincinnati in 2011, has been to the league's all-star game each of the last two seasons.

Smith also orchestrated the trades that brought quarterback Matt Schaub from Atlanta in 2007 and center Chris Myers from Denver in 2008. Both have signed contract extensions and earned multiple Pro Bowl berths since, with Schaub throwing for more than 4,000 yards in three of the last four seasons.

Smith places a premium on college free agents. The most well-known college free agent success story in Texans history is running back Arian Foster. Undrafted out of Tennessee in 2009, Foster signed with Houston and spent most of his rookie season on the practice squad. Foster started 2010 with a 231-yard effort against Indianapolis and went on to have the best season ever by an undrafted running back, winning the 2010 rushing title, All-Pro honors and the first of three consecutive Pro Bowl nods. He has led the NFL in touchdowns in two of the last three seasons and has risen from practice squad player to one of the most complete backs in the NFL.

Smith has found a way to consistently strengthen Houston's roster and is continuing to build upon a foundation of talent and depth with the cornerstones of scrupulous evaluation, opportunistic free agency signings, smart trades and a methodical draft strategy.

2011 tested these principles unlike any other year. The Texans faced a drastically shortened 2011 offseason, a complete defensive scheme change, and a glut of injured starters, including season-ending injuries to starting and backup quarterbacks, Schaub and Matt Leinart, and Pro Bowler Mario Williams. In addition, All-Pro wide receiver Andre Johnson missed more than half the season due injury.

Smith's principles and commitment to the Texans' player acquisition strategy withstood the storm. Most notably was the play of rookie fifth-round draft pick T.J. Yates. Yates was pressed into action following the losses of Schaub and Leinart and became the first rookie quarterback to orchestrate comeback wins in his first two starts since 1968, including Houston's playoff-clinching victory at Cincinnati in Week 13.

The Texans finished 2011 with the NFL's second-ranked defense, a dramatic improvement over the unit that ranked 30th in the NFL in 2010. Houston's 91.2-yard improvement was the third-greatest leap for a defense from one year to the next since 1970. On offense, Houston set a franchise rushing record for the second straight season and ranked second in the NFL with 153.0 rushing yards per game.

The 2013-14 season is poised to be continuation of individual player honors and team success following the signings of nine-time Pro Bowl safety Ed Reed (Baltimore) and seven-time Pro Bowl punter Shane Lechler (Oakland) in the 2013 offseason.

Smith's leadership, vision and success has not gone unnoticed by the league. NFL Commissioner Roger Goodell appointed Smith to the NFL's prestigious Competition Committee on December 5, 2008. He has earned the recognition from his peers who honored him with the Tank Younger Award in 2008, presented annually by the Fritz Pollard Alliance for outstanding work in an NFL front office. He was an original member of the General Managers Advisory Committee, which provides advice and other feedback to the NFL Football Operations department on the integrity of the game, expansion of technology and other ways to improve the game.

In his former role with the Broncos, Smith was responsible for evaluating players from around the NFL as well as those in NFL Europe, the Canadian Football League, the Arena Football League and other professional leagues. He also played a central role in the club's preparation for the college draft and was one of the Broncos' primary negotiators for player contracts.

With Smith heading the pro personnel department, the Broncos posted the league's fifth-best regular-season record from 2000-05, going 61-35 (.635). The 61 wins were the most of any AFC West team during that span, 10 more than the next closest team, Kansas City. Denver was one of only four teams in the NFL to reach the playoffs each season from 2003-05.

Before moving into the front office, Smith spent four years as the Broncos' assistant defensive backs coach and earned two Super Bowl rings while helping guide a unit that consistently ranked as one of the league's best. The team won more games from 1996-98 (46) than any club during that three-year period.

Smith joined the Broncos on April 3, 1996, following a two-year stint as defensive backs coach at his alma mater, Purdue University. He spent a short time at TCU prior to joining the Broncos.

A 1992 graduate of Purdue, Smith began his coaching career as a graduate assistant with the Boilermakers, serving as the school's assistant strength and conditioning coordinator. After serving as the team's graduate assistant tight ends coach for one season, Smith was hired as the secondary coach, becoming the youngest full-time position coach in the Big Ten Conference at the time at the age of 24.

Smith started at strong safety and was a defensive captain for Purdue as a senior in 1991. A native of Petersburg, Va., he attended Meadowdale High School in Dayton, Ohio. Smith is also a member of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes.

Smith and his wife, Tiffany, live in Houston with sons, Robert LaMar and Christian LaMar, and daughter, Avery Jordan.

JAMEY ROOTES
PRESIDENT

Jamey Rootes serves as president of the Houston Texans and is responsible for all business functions of the club.

Since joining the Texans, Rootes has overseen the team's efforts to secure stadium naming rights and sponsorship, coordinated radio and TV broadcasting relationships, engineered the club's successful ticket and suite sales campaigns, led the creation and launch of the team's identity, developed the team's highly-acclaimed customer service strategy.

Under Rootes' leadership, the Texans have earned many distinctions, including numerous "Crystal Awards" for marketing excellence. J.D. Power & Associates recognized the team for providing the best fan experience in the NFL and even featured the Texans as a service success story in their book entitled "Satisfaction." The Texans were also recognized with Sports Business Journal's PRISM Award, which is given annually to the top major professional sports team based on business excellence criteria. After securing back-to-back AFC South Championships, the Texans have extended their sell-out streak to 112 consecutive home games, a Houston NFL record and a testament to the quality of service and entertainment provided by the organization on game day. As a result, the Texans have consistently been recognized as one of the most valuable professional sports franchises both in the NFL and globally, as measured by a variety of business publications. In 2012, the Houston Texans were recognized as one of Houston's "Best Places to Work" by the Houston Business Journal.

Rootes was selected twice by SportsBusiness Journal as a member of its distinguished "Forty Under 40" list of leading sports executives. Rootes maintains an active role in the community and serves on a number of boards, including the Greater Houston Partnership, the United Way of Greater Houston, the Houston Food Bank, the Presbyterian School and the Greater Houston Convention and Visitors Bureau. He also oversees the activities of the Houston Texans Foundation, which generated more than $1 million in 2012 to benefit youth and families in the Houston area. Since inception, the Texans have helped raise more than $20 million through annual fundraising events, disaster response programs, the United Way and partnerships with non-profit organizations on game day.

Prior to joining the Texans, Rootes helped to launch Major League Soccer as president and general manager of the Columbus Crew. During his tenure, the Crew was consistently among the league's strongest teams both on and off the field, and Rootes was recognized as Executive of the Year in 1996 and Marketing Executive of the Year in 1999. Rootes helped lead the construction of Crew Stadium in 1999, which was the first stadium of its type in the United States. This facility earned distinction as America's Foremost Sports Facility of the Year and led to the development of numerous soccer-specific stadiums across the United States over the past decade, including BBVA Compass Stadium in Houston.

A native of Stone Mountain, Ga., Rootes attended Clemson University and was a member of the Tigers' soccer team that captured two NCAA titles. He also served as Student Body President. While earning a master's of business administration at Indiana University, he served as an assistant soccer coach for the Hoosiers. Rootes previously held positions at IBM and Procter & Gamble before entering sports. He lives in West University with his wife, Melissa, and their children, Christopher and Caroline.

SCOTT SCHWINGER

McNAIR GROUP PRESIDENT AND CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER, TEXANS CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

Scott Schwinger serves as President and CEO of the McNair Group and as Chief Financial Officer for the Texans.

For the past 19 years, Schwinger has held positions with various companies owned, directly or indirectly, by Robert C. McNair including President of Palmetto Partners Ltd., RCM Financial Services, L.P., and Vice President of Cogen Technologies. In April 2010, he was named the CEO of The McNair Group. In his role, he oversees the investment and management activities for The McNair Group of companies which include portfolios of public and private equities and certain operating companies. Schwinger also serves as managing director of EMC Holdings, L.L.C., a private energy investment fund.

Schwinger oversees a staff of more than 30 and is responsible for the financial reporting, budgeting, cash management, risk management, management information systems and all debt and equity financings of the Texans and the other McNair Group companies. He provided the financial analysis support beginning in 1998 to bring professional football back to Houston. Schwinger also served on the Houston Super Bowl XXXVIII Host Committee, Inc. In addition, he provides strategic and investment management oversight, venture capital due diligence, and negotiates deal structuring for all McNair Group companies.

Since the award of the team in 1999, Schwinger has successfully coordinated and structured debt financings totaling $675 million, one of the largest and most successful series of financings to date for a professional sports team.

Schwinger earned a Bachelor of Arts in mathematics from Vanderbilt University and a Master's of Business Administration from the University of Texas at Austin. In the community, he serves on the boards of the YES Prep Public Schools, The Make-A-Wish Foundation and The Endowment Fund. He is also a member of the Young Presidents Organization. He and his wife, Becca, both native Houstonians, are the parents of sons, Corbin and Charley, and daughter, Cara.

SUZIE THOMAS

EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT, GENERAL COUNSEL AND CHIEF ADMINISTRATIVE OFFICER

Suzie Thomas joined the Houston Texans and The McNair Group in March 2000. She oversees the legal, human resources and business administration functions for both groups and holds positions with various other entities in The McNair Group.

Thomas previously served as general counsel and vice president of human resources of Corporate Brand Foods America, Inc., a meat processing business that was subsequently purchased by Tyson Foods. Prior to CBFA, Thomas spent 16 years at Weatherford International, Inc., an international energy service and manufacturing company, the last 12 years as senior vice president and general counsel. She started her legal career as an associate attorney at Baker Botts L.L.P. in Houston.

Thomas earned her law degree from the University of Houston's Bates College of Law and her undergraduate degree in Spanish from the University of Texas. Thomas is a member of the State Bar of Texas. Thomas received the 2004 University of Houston Law Center's Corporate Sector Award and the 2005 Houston Business Journal Award for Best General Counsel with a staff of two to ten. Thomas also serves on the Board of Directors of Child Advocates, Inc.

Thomas resides in Houston.

JOHN SCHRIEVER
SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT, TICKETING AND EVENT MANAGEMENT

John Schriever is in his 14th year with the Texans and his 29th in the professional sports industry. Schriever has been part of the sales and service of more than 38 million tickets to sporting events during his career. He started with the Texans in July 2000 as Director of Ticket Operations and was promoted to Vice President, Ticketing and Event Management in July 2003, and Senior Vice President, Ticketing and Event Management in June 2011. Schriever oversees all aspects of ticketing and event services for the Texans and Lone Star Sports and Entertainment.

Schriever began his sports business career with the Texas Rangers Baseball Club in 1984 as a season ticket sales intern. He became a full-time staff member in the spring of 1985 and was promoted to director of ticket operations prior to the 1989 season. The Rangers underwent a variety of changes during Schriever's 12-year tenure with the franchise: the team was purchased by an ownership group headed by George W. Bush, acquired pitcher Nolan Ryan, closed Arlington Stadium, opened The Ballpark in Arlington and hosted the 1995 Major League Baseball All-Star Game.

During the summer of 1996, Schriever worked with the Atlanta Committee for the Olympic Games at the Summer Olympics. He worked in ticketing as a customer service manager at Fulton County Stadium and Olympic Stadium.

Following the Olympic Games, Schriever joined the Texas Motor Speedway in Ft. Worth as director of tickets. He was part of the management staff that opened the Speedway in the spring of 1997 to a debut crowd of more than 200,000 for its inaugural Winston Cup race.

Schriever is a graduate of Stephen F. Austin State University, where he earned a degree in business management. He and his wife, Dana, who holds a degree in teaching from the University of Texas, have two children, Nicholas and Sarah.

GREG GRISSOM
VICE PRESIDENT, CORPORATE DEVELOPMENT

Greg Grissom was named Houston Texans Vice President, Corporate Development in April 2012 but has been a part of the team's business operations staff since the inaugural 2002 season. He first joined the Texans as a corporate sales manager before being promoted to director of corporate development in 2006, and senior director of corporate development in May 2011.

Grissom oversees the Texans' corporate partnerships, sales of all related properties, contract negotiations and account services of the team's partners. He has nearly two decades of experience in sports sponsorship sales, planning, execution and event marketing.

Before joining the Texans, Grissom worked for Enron Corp. as a sports marketing specialist and spent more than four years with the Houston Astros as an account services manager and later as the club's promotions coordinator.

Grissom represents the Texans on the Board of Directors of the Gulf Coast Chapter of the Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation. A native of Austin, he attended Baylor University. He lives in Houston with his wife, Jamie, and their daughter, Campbell, and son, Sam.

MARILAN LOGAN
VICE PRESIDENT AND CHIEF ACCOUNTING OFFICER

Marilan Logan is in her 14th year with the Houston Texans and serves as the franchise's Vice President and Chief Accounting Officer, managing all aspects of financial matters for the Texans and Lone Star Sports & Entertainment organizations. Logan joined the Texans as the team's controller in February 2000 and was promoted to vice president and controller in April 2007 before assuming her current position in September 2011.

Logan came to the Texans after serving as controller/treasurer for the Houston Aeros Hockey Club, Aerodromes Ice Rinks, and the Houston Aeros Foundation for two seasons.

Prior to joining the Houston Aeros, Logan was the controller for the Houston Oilers (now Tennessee Titans) from 1978-97. Her responsibilities included accounting for player contracts, maintaining the club's financial records and aiding club management with special projects. Prior to the Oilers, she was a cost accounting specialist for Reed Tool Company.

Marilan and her husband, Rick, have a daughter, Sandy; two sons, Jeff and Roy; and two grandsons, Kyle and Todd. The couple resides in Humble.

CHRIS OLSEN
VICE PRESIDENT, FOOTBALL ADMINISTRATION

Chris Olsen is in his seventh season with the Texans and fourth as the team's vice president of football administration. Olsen's primary responsibility with the Texans is to work closely with General Manager and Executive Vice President Rick Smith on negotiating player contracts and managing the salary cap.

Prior to joining the Texans' staff, Olsen spent 13 years working at the National Football League office in New York. Olsen served as the manager of labor operations with the NFL Management Council from 1999-2006. He was responsible for reviewing and analyzing player contracts to ensure teams were in compliance with the Collective Bargaining Agreement (CBA) and salary cap, and also provided assistance to club executives pertaining to player-related areas of the CBA. He also served as a League liaison to the NFL Players Association regarding player contract matters, served as a national game representative, as well as an instant replay communicator.

Olsen began his tenure with the NFL in 1994 as an analyst in the player personnel department. He was promoted to coordinator in 1998 and became responsible for all facets of the player petition process on special eligibility for the NFL Draft (underclassman prospects), including coordinating player evaluations for the College Advisory Committee. He produced annual reports for the Competition Committee and reviewed player contracts to ensure their compliance with the NFL's Constitution and By-Laws.

Olsen began working in professional sports during his senior year in college with the Springfield Indians Hockey Club of the AHL in 1989-90, where he served as a public relations/marketing intern. After spending a brief time working for Ark-Asset Management Company, a financial services firm in New York City, he continued his sports career in 1992 while in graduate school by serving as a public relations/marketing intern for the Hartford Whalers of the NHL. Prior to joining the NFL, he worked for the New Jersey State Golf Association.

Olsen is a native of Little Silver, N.J. He earned his degree in business administration from Western New England College in 1990 and earned a master's degree in sports management from Springfield College in 1997. Olsen and his wife, Kim, reside in Houston.

JEFF SCHMITZ
VICE PRESIDENT, INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY

Jeff Schmitz is entering his 12th season with the Texans but has been an employee of The McNair Group since March, 1997. Schmitz was elevated to vice president of information technology in 2013 after serving as senior director and director of information technology from 2008-12.

Schmitz is and is responsible for leading the overall IT functions for the Houston Texans and The McNair Group. He was named director of information technology in January, 2008 and was promoted to senior director of information technology in 2012.

Since joining the Houston Texans and McNair Group, Schmitz held various positions in the finance and accounting departments before moving in the IT department as manager of information technology. His experience in accounting systems, applications, network design, security and project management bring the Texans a unique set of talents to support and grow existing IT systems.

Schmitz earned a BBA in accounting from Pittsburg State University in Kansas. He lives in Missouri City with his wife, Leslie, and their daughters, Courtney and Hannah.

GREG WATSON
VICE PRESIDENT, FINANCE

Greg Watson joined The McNair Group and the Houston Texans in November 1999 after working as an international finance associate in the energy industry. In his current position as vice president of finance, Watson is involved in all aspects of the team's debt and equity financing activities, long-range financial forecasting and special project analyses.

His other responsibilities include deal sourcing, due diligence and deal structuring for The McNair Group private equity investments.

Watson earned his bachelor of arts in political science from Vanderbilt University and his MBA with a focus on finance and entrepreneurship from the University of Texas. He and his wife, Cathy, both native Houstonians, live in Houston with their children, Claire, William and Gardner.

H-E-B SACKS FOR HUNGER

Throughout the 2012 season, the Texans defense teamed up with Texas grocery chain H-E-B and the Houston Food Bank to help feed Houston's families with the H-E-B Sacks For Hunger program.

H-E-B donated $1,000 to the Food Bank's hunger relief efforts for every sack the Texans defense recorded during the season. According to the Food Bank, every dollar donated can provide three full meals.

Through their play on the field in 2012, the "Bulls on Parade" helped provide 141,000 meals for hungry Houstonians.

H-E-B SACKS FOR HUNGER, YEAR BY YEAR

HCC FIELD OF OPPORTUNITY SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM

Through a landmark partnership, Houston Community College will provide a minimum of $50,000 in scholarships annually to members of the Boys and Girls Club. The HCC Field of Opportunity Program, which is supported through HCC's partnership with the Houston Texans, builds on HCC's Opportunity 14 scholarships administered by the Houston Community College Foundation.

With this program, each time the Texans scored 14 points, an Opportunity 14 scholarship was awarded. And, in addition, when the Texans held an opponent below 14 points, an Opportunity 14 Scholarship was also be awarded. The scholarships will be presented in both wins and losses, recognizing that with education there is always a winner.

GARY KUBIAK

HEAD COACH

EIGHTH SEASON WITH TEXANS/20TH NFL SEASON

Gary Kubiak has transformed the Houston Texans from a two-win club into back-to-back AFC South division champions and one of the most well-rounded teams in the NFL since taking the reins as head coach in 2006. Kubiak's offensive system has consistently ranked among the NFL's best and he has used a talented roster and coaching staff to key the ascension of Houston's defense.

Kubiak was named the AFC Coach of the Year by Kansas City-based NFL 101 after leading the Texans to a 10-6 regular season record and the franchise's first AFC South division crown, playoff berth and playoff win in 2011. The Houston native followed up that landmark campaign in 2012 with a 12-4 record, another AFC South crown and a second consecutive trip to the Divisional round of the playoffs. He has a franchise-record 61 wins (including the playoffs) since being named the second head coach of the Houston Texans on Jan. 26, 2006.

The Texans have had the five best seasons in franchise history under Kubiak's guidance, going 8-8 in 2007 and 2008 before producing the first winning season in team history in 2009 at 9-7, and the 2011 and 2012 playoff seasons. Kubiak's tenure has been marked by offensive proficiency, producing the top six scoring, total offense and passing season marks in franchise history from 2007-12. Houston and Denver are the only two teams in the NFL to produce at least one top-five total offense, rushing offense and passing offense performance since 2008. The top three rushing seasons in franchise history have come on Kubiak's watch as well, including a franchise-record 153.0 yards per game in 2011, which ranked second in the NFL.

Four of the Texans' top five defensive seasons have come under Kubiak, including the third-largest defensive turnaround in NFL history from 2010 to 2011. The 2011 Texans gave up 285.7 yards per game to rank second in the League after giving up 376.9 yards per game and ranking 30th in 2010.

Strong team performances on offense and defense have been sparked by some outstanding individual efforts under Kubiak. Twenty-six of the 30 Pro Bowl elections in team history have come during Kubiak's tenure and the Texans are the only team in the NFL to have produced a rushing, receiving, passing and sack leader since Kubiak became head coach.

One of Kubiak's primary goals upon arriving in Houston was to create a home field advantage at Reliant Stadium, and he has made significant strides in that direction. The Texans have posted a 37-21 (.638) home record since 2006, including a 2-0 record in the playoffs, and have had at least a .500 record at home in each of Kubiak's seven seasons. The team was 10-22 (.315) at home prior to Kubiak's arrival.

Kubiak's squad produced a number of team and individual franchise milestones in 2012. The Texans set franchise records with a 12-4 record, 26.0 points per game and an AFC-best nine Pro Bowl selections. Second-year defensive end J.J. Watt led the NFL with 20.5 sacks and became the first player in franchise history be voted Associated Press Defensive Player of the Year. Wide receiver Andre Johnson had a resurgent season and led the AFC with 1,598 yards receiving. Left tackle Duane Brown, left guard Wade Smith and center Chris Myers were selected to the Pro Bowl from the offensive line. Brown and Watt were both AP First Team All-Pro selections.

Houston was one of two teams to rank in the top 10 in the NFL in both offense and defense (seventh in both) in the regular season. It also marked the first time in the 52-year history of professional football in the city of Houston that a franchise won home playoff games in back-to-back seasons.

In 2011, Houston's offense battled through a glut of maladies to reach the playoffs for the first time, including season-ending injuries to quarterbacks Matt Schaub and Matt Leinart. Despite the injuries, Houston posted a franchise-record seven-game winning streak, ranked second in the NFL in rushing and became the first team since 2003 to win three consecutive games with three different starting quarterbacks. Rookie quarterback T.J. Yates led a stretch run to the playoffs, while cornerback Johnathan Joseph, Myers and defensive end Antonio Smith earned their first trips to the Pro Bowl, and running back Arian Foster earned his second consecutive selection. The Texans defeated Cincinnati 31-10 in the franchise's first playoff game on Jan. 7, 2012 at Reliant Stadium.

The Texans experienced key injuries on defense and a number of last-minute losses to finish the 2010 season at 6-10. While the 2010 season fell short of expectations, the Texans set a team record for total offense for the fourth consecutive season and ranked third in the NFL, averaging 386.6 yards per game. Houston was the only AFC team to rank in the top 10 in both rushing (seventh with 127.6 yards per game) and passing (fourth with 259.0 yards per game).

The offense produced three Pro Bowl selections in 2010, with the backfield combination of Foster and fullback Vonta Leach making their first trips to Hawaii, while Johnson fought through injury to make his fifth Pro Bowl. Foster re-wrote the team single-game and season rushing records on the way to becoming the Texans' first-ever NFL rushing champion. The former practice squad player set an NFL record for an undrafted back with 1,616 yards rushing and also led the League with 2,220 yards from scrimmage and 18 total touchdowns.

Foster's breakout year was complemented by Schaub becoming the 12th player in NFL history to throw for 4,000-plus yards in back-to-back seasons; and the duo became just the second pair of teammates in NFL history to lead the League in passing yards one year and rushing yards the next.

Kubiak guided the Texans to a 9-7 record in 2009, highlighted by a season-ending four-game win streak to capture the franchise's first winning season. Houston narrowly missed its first-ever playoff berth, losing a tie-breaker for the final spot on the last day of the season. The 2009 Texans set franchise records for total offense, scoring offense, total defense and scoring defense. A then-franchise-record five players earned trips to the Pro Bowl, led by Pro Bowl MVP Schaub.

The 2008 Texans matched their record from the year before, going 8-8 despite starting the season 0-4 in the aftermath of Hurricane Ike, which devastated much of Houston and southeast Texas. Houston became just the 10th team in NFL history to finish at .500 or better after losing four games to start a season. The offense enjoyed its most productive season, ranking third in the NFL and setting a franchise record with 6,113 total yards.

In Kubiak's second season, the team achieved the best record in franchise history to that point, finishing 8-8. The Texans won three of their last four and five of their last seven to finish the season at .500. Kubiak's team also set a franchise mark with a 6-2 record at Reliant Stadium after going 4-4 at home in 2006, which was the best home mark at the time.

In his rookie season, Kubiak tripled the team's win total of the previous year, guiding the club to a 6-10 record. The six victories included wins in three of the last five and the franchise's first win against Indianapolis. All six wins came against AFC opponents, giving the Texans their most wins against conference foes in team annals to that point.

Kubiak came to Houston with the reputation of being an offensive mastermind and has lived up to that billing. In 112 regular-season games under Kubiak, Houston has averaged 358.4 yards per game, which ranks second in the AFC and sixth in the NFL, compared to an average of 266.5 yards per game from 2002-05, which was last in the AFC and 31st in the NFL. Houston has averaged 23.1 points per game under Kubiak to rank fourth in the AFC and is 6.9 points per game better than before his arrival.

The Houston Texans have the NFL's third-ranked offense since 2008 with an average of 379.1 yards per game.

The most dramatic improvement has been made by the offensive line. After giving up a League-worst 68 sacks in 2005, the line has allowed an average of 30.7 per season under Kubiak. This has allowed the passing game to flourish, averaging 240.4 yards per game to rank third in the AFC since 2006. The line also allowed the Texans rushing attack to average 117.9 yards per game during the last six years and has produced an NFL-best 26 100-yard rushing performances by players since 2010.

Kubiak has made a habit of surrounding himself with great coaches throughout his tenure in Houston. One of his first hires in 2006 was former Green Bay head coach Mike Sherman, who served as the assistant head coach/offense and then offensive coordinator in Kubiak's first two seasons. In 2008, Kubiak bolstered his staff with two of the brightest minds in football, hiring offensive line guru Alex Gibbs as the assistant head coach/offense and 1995 NFL Coach of the Year Ray Rhodes as the assistant defensive backs coach. In 2010, he hired former Denver Broncos teammate and colleague, Rick Dennison, as offensive coordinator. The Texans set a franchise record for total yards in 2010 and have posted the top three rushing seasons in franchise history since Dennison's arrival.

In 2011, Kubiak added one of the most respected defensive minds in the game, Wade Phillips, as defensive coordinator. Phillips implemented his 3-4 defensive scheme that has now led teams to the playoffs in his first year coaching at each of his last eight stops, including the 2011 Texans.

As head coach, Kubiak has also been responsible for the performance of the defense, which is stocked full of talent, including five starters with Pro Bowl experience. The 2009 AP Defensive Rookie of the Year, Brian Cushing, led the team in tackles in three of his first four seasons. Watt had one of the best defensive seasons in NFL history in 2012 with 20.5 sacks, 16 passes defensed, 39 tackles for loss and 42 quarterback hits on the way to earning nearly every major award. Veteran cornerback Johnathan Joseph has made the Pro Bowl each of the last two seasons.

Now former Texans, outside linebacker Mario Williams and inside linebacker DeMeco Ryans, the 2006 AP Defensive Rookie of the Year, were the first two draft picks of the Kubiak era, and they set the tone for an excellent track record on draft day. Following the lead of Ryans and Williams, tight end Owen Daniels gave the Texans a League-best three Pro Bowlers from the 2006 draft class. Former right tackle Eric Winston also emerged as a starter from that class. Kubiak's first draft class started a total of 352 combined games for the Texans from 2006-11.

The Texans' 2007 draft class was led by former defensive tackle Amobi Okoye, the youngest first-round draft pick in NFL history. Okoye held the franchise rookie sack record with 5.5 until the 2011 season and was the most productive player at that position from that draft class. In 2008, first-round pick Brown started all 16 games at left tackle, while running back Steve Slaton won the rookie rushing title with a franchise-record 1,282 yards. The 2009 class was highlighted by Cushing, cornerback-turned-safety Glover Quin, a fourth-round pick who went on to start 12 games as a rookie, and college free agent Foster. Cornerback Kareem Jackson, the Texans' first-round pick in 2010, started all 16 games as a rookie and has grown into one of the top-performing cornerbacks in the AFC.

The 2011 draft class, highlighted by the play of Watt, linebacker Brooks Reed and Yates, had the biggest collective impact as rookies in franchise history. Outside linebacker Whitney Mercilus, the 2012 first-round pick out of Illinois, set a franchise rookie record with 6.5 sacks.

Kubiak spent 20 of the previous 23 years in the Denver area, where he earned a reputation as a brilliant offensive strategist. He played in 119 games and tossed 14 touchdowns for the Broncos from 1983-91 as the backup for Hall of Fame quarterback John Elway. During his time as a player in the Mile High City, Kubiak was a part of three teams that reached the Super Bowl.

Kubiak began his coaching career in 1992 as the running backs coach at his alma mater, Texas A&M. Under Kubiak's watchful eye, running back Greg Hill was named second team All-America his junior year. Hill was selected by the Kansas City Chiefs in the first round of the 1994 draft.

Kubiak started his NFL coaching career as the quarterbacks coach of the San Francisco 49ers in 1994 and guided Hall of Famer Steve Young to his best season as a pro. Young was named the NFL MVP for the second time in his career.

Under Kubiak's tutelage, Young had a career-high 70.3 completion percentage, threw for 35 touchdowns and 3,969 yards, and set an NFL record with a 112.8 passer rating, a mark that stood for 10 seasons. Young captured Super Bowl XXIX MVP honors by tossing a record six touchdowns in San Francisco's 49-26 win against the San Diego Chargers.

In the spring of 1995, Kubiak returned to the Broncos as offensive coordinator, where he steered Denver to the organization's best numbers in team history and helped lead the team to seven postseason trips and two Super Bowl titles in 11 seasons.

Kubiak began his tenure in Denver as the offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach to his former teammate, Elway. Kubiak made an immediate impact as Elway threw for 3,970 yards, the second-best mark of his Hall of Fame career. Elway increased his touchdown passes from 16 in 1994 to 26 in 1995. During the final four years of his career (1995-98), Elway tossed 101 touchdown passes, second only to Brett Favre in that span.

Kubiak's offense featured one of the best tight ends in NFL history. Shannon Sharpe, who ranks second all-time among tight ends in receptions, receiving yards, and touchdowns, spent seven years under Kubiak. Sharpe, a 2011 Pro Football Hall of Fame inductee, averaged 61 receptions per season in that time and had a career-high 1,107 yards receiving in 1997.

Kubiak's offenses have always been based on balance. The Broncos' running game was focused around a strong system instead of an individual. A Broncos runner eclipsed the 1,000-yard rushing mark in 10 of Kubiak's 11 seasons. Denver saw five different runners rush for more than 1,000 yards, more than any team in the NFL, in that span.

Kubiak turned to Terrell Davis to tote the ball as the Broncos won back-to-back Super Bowls in the late '90s. In 1997, Davis became only the fourth running back in NFL history to rush for more than 2,000 yards in a season. During the 1997-98 seasons, he rushed for 3,758 yards, most of any running back in back-to-back campaigns between 1995-2005. Davis' 2,008 rushing yards in 1997 are the fifth-most in NFL history. He won AP Offensive Player of the Year honors in 1996 and 1998.

Following Elway's retirement, Kubiak turned his offense over to second-year quarterback Brian Griese, who threw for 3,032 yards in his first season as the Broncos' starter. In the 2000 season, Griese was named to the Pro Bowl and guided the Broncos' offense to rank second in the NFL in points scored and total offense.

That same season, Mike Anderson rushed for 1,487 yards, at the time a franchise rookie record. Anderson set the NFL single-game rookie rushing record with 251 yards against the New Orleans Saints. That year, Kubiak's receivers, Ed McCaffrey (101) and Rod Smith (100), became just the second pair of teammates in NFL history to grab at least 100 receptions.

In 2002, the Broncos drafted running back Clinton Portis in the second round. In his rookie season, Portis rushed for 1,508 yards, breaking Anderson's rookie mark, and was named the AP Offensive Rookie of the Year. The Broncos' rushing attack averaged 141.6 yards per game, which ranked second in the AFC. The offense totaled 380.6 yards per game, which was third in the NFL.

Kubiak relinquished his quarterbacks coach title in 2003, turning the duties over to Pat McPherson. That offseason, Denver signed quarterback Jake Plummer from the Arizona Cardinals and Plummer was immediately transformed. Despite missing five games his first season in Denver, Plummer threw for more touchdowns (15) than interceptions (seven) for the second time in his career. The 2004 season saw Plummer throw for 4,089 yards, most in Broncos history. He also tossed 27 touchdown passes, tying Elway's 1997 club record.

Plummer stayed on his feet in Kubiak's offense. After being sacked an average of 36 times per season in Arizona, Plummer was sacked an average of 17 times per year in Denver. Every season in Kubiak's system, Plummer threw more touchdowns than interceptions and led the Broncos to the playoffs from 2003-05.

In 2005, Kubiak's offense ranked fifth in the NFL with 5,766 total yards and his rushing attack was second in the League, averaging 158.7 yards per game. The Broncos were led by Anderson's 1,014 yards on the ground and Tatum Bell's 921 yards. Denver finished 2005 with a 13-3 record, winning their division for the first time since 1998, the last time they appeared in the Super Bowl.

In his 11 years as offensive coordinator, Kubiak's Broncos amassed 66,501 total yards and 465 touchdowns, most in the NFL in that span. He coached 14 different Broncos who made the Pro Bowl and Denver's rushing attack totaled 25,022 yards, most in the NFL, during his tenure.

OFFENSIVE PROWESS UNDER KUBIAK

The Houston Texans have put up some impressive offensive numbers under head coach Gary Kubiak since 2006. Houston is one of only two teams to have had its total offense, passing offense and rushing offense each rank in the top five at least once since 2008. The Denver Broncos have also accomplished the feat.

KUBIAK OFF THE FIELD

Kubiak has been active in his support of U.S. military services for a number of years. For the past eight years, Kubiak has served as the celebrity spokesperson for Impact A Hero, a non-profit organization that provides a means to provide emotional and financial support for severely wounded and disabled War on Terror veterans and their families. He participated in the Eighth Annual Impact A Hero 5k Run, Walk and Wheel on June 2, 2012. In June 2011, he embarked on his first USO Tour to the Middle East.

In addition to his individual efforts, Kubiak has also supported U.S. military services with the Texans. For the last three years, the Texans and Kubiak have hosted more than 150 guests from all five branches of the military at practice during Salute to Service Week, among other events. Salute to Service Week has culminated with hundreds of servicemen and women attending a Texans game at which they are recognized. In 2010, the Texans defeated Kansas City, 35-31; and Houston topped Cleveland in 2012, 30-12. The Texans remained undefeated on Salute to Service Week with a 21-9 win against Buffalo on Nov. 4, 2012.

GARY KUBIAK

Kubiak returned to his roots when he took the reins as head coach of the Texans. He starred at Houston's St. Pius High School, where he was an all-state selection, passing for 6,190 yards during his high school career. He was inducted into the Texas High School Hall of Fame in 1999.

Kubiak attended Texas A&M, where he was selected All-Southwest Conference in 1982. He led the conference in attempts (324), completions (181), percentage (55.9) yardage (1,948), touchdowns (19), and total offense (1,885) as a senior. He set the SWC passing touchdown record with six against Rice during his junior season. He earned his degree in physical education before being drafted by the Broncos in the eighth round (197th overall) in the 1983 draft.

Kubiak, born in Houston, is married to Rhonda. The couple has three sons and two daughters in law: Klint and his wife, Tessa, Klay and his wife, Marissa, and Klein. Klint, a former safety at Colorado State, is in his first season as an offensive quality control coach with the Minnesota Vikings. Klay played quarterback at Colorado State and is now teaching and coaching at Strake Jesuit in Houston. Klein is a senior wide receiver at Rice.

BILL KOLLAR

ASSISTANT HEAD COACH/DEFENSIVE LINE
FIFTH SEASON WITH TEXANS/25TH NFL SEASON

Bill Kollar is in his fifth year as the Texans assistant head coach/defensive line. Kollar, who played eight seasons in the NFL as a defensive lineman, has 25 years of experience coaching in the NFL, including the last 24 as a defensive line coach. Prior to Houston, he spent the previous three years coaching the defensive line in Buffalo.

Kollar's unit has thrived after switching to a 3-4 scheme in 2011, fronting a defense that ranks third in yards allowed (304.5) and rushing yards allowed (96.8), and is fourth in points allowed (19.0) in the last two seasons. The Texans have also posted back-to-back seasons with a franchise-record 44 sacks, ranking fifth in the NFL.

Several defensive linemen posted career numbers in 2012, including the Associated Press Defensive Player of the Year, J.J. Watt, who led the NFL with 20.5 sacks and became the first player in history with at least 14 sacks and 14 passes defensed in the same season. Defensive end Antonio Smith set a career high with 7.0 sacks and third-year nose tackle Earl Mitchell posted a career-best 51 tackles.

Kollar helped the Texans transition from a 4-3 to a 3-4 scheme with great success in 2011 and received huge contributions from the defensive line. Houston saw the third-largest defensive improvement in NFL history since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger. The Texans ranked second in the NFL in total defense with 285.7 yards per game in 2011 after giving up 376.9 yards per game and ranking 30th in 2010. The defensive line played its part in helping the Texans set team records for rushing yards allowed (96.0 per game) and sacks (44). Smith earned his first career Pro Bowl berth with a career-high 6.5 sacks. Watt earned team Rookie of the Year honors and was named to the PFW/PFWA All-Rookie team after recording 5.5 sacks and 56 tackles in the regular season.

Kollar directed Houston's first line of defense to the two best run-stopping seasons in franchise history in his first two years with the team. In addition, the Texans defense recorded at least 30 sacks in three consecutive seasons for the first time in franchise history from 2009-11 under Kollar's tutelage. Houston's 2010 rush defense held three opponents to less than 50 yards and set a franchise record by limiting Washington to 18 yards rushing in an overtime win.

Several individuals posted personal bests on Kollar's defensive line in 2010. Veteran defensive tackle Shaun Cody started all 16 games for the first time in his career and registered a career-high 38 tackles, while defensive tackle Amobi Okoye also set a career high with 44 tackles. Defensive end Mario Williams fought through injury the entire season to lead the team with 8.5 sacks despite spending the final three games of the season on injured reserve.

In his first season with the Texans, Kollar helped the defensive line improve throughout the season. Williams led the team with 9.0 sacks and earned his second consecutive Pro Bowl trip. Rookie defensive end Connor Barwin and free agent Smith were second on the team with 4.5 sacks apiece. The unit was a key on the defense's overall improvement, helping hold opponents to 84.3 yards per game on the ground in the last 13 contests.

Prior to his stint with Buffalo, Kollar coached the defensive line in St. Louis from 2001-05. Kollar helped defensive end Leonard Little emerge as a premier sack artist, with 57 sacks in that time. The Rams earned a trip to the Super Bowl in 2001, Kollar's first season with the team.

From 1990-2000, Kollar worked as the Atlanta Falcons defensive line coach. In 1998, the Falcons' defensive line tied for the NFL lead by giving up only six rushing touchdowns and set a team record by allowing an average of 75.2 rushing yards as Atlanta won the NFC Championship and earned a trip to Super Bowl XXXIII.

Kollar, 60, began his coaching career as a defensive assistant/special teams for Tampa Bay in 1984. He spent a year as a graduate assistant at Illinois in 1985 following his year in Tampa Bay. He was promoted to defensive line/special teams coach for the Illini in 1986 and spent two years in that position. Kollar assumed the same role at Purdue from 1988-89 before returning to the NFL.

Kollar was an All-America defensive lineman at Montana State and earned the Most Valuable Player award at the 1974 Senior Bowl. He was selected in the first round (23rd overall) of the 1974 NFL Draft by the Cincinnati Bengals and played eight seasons for Cincinnati and Tampa Bay.

Kollar and his wife, Jan, have two sons, Chad and Clint.

RICK DENNISON

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

FOURTH SEASON WITH TEXANS/19TH NFL SEASON

Rick Dennison is in his fourth season as the Houston Texans' offensive coordinator. Dennison enters his 19th season in the NFL as a coach and his 28th year in the League overall. Prior to joining Gary Kubiak's staff in 2010, Dennison had spent his entire NFL tenure with the Denver Broncos, first as a player from 1982-90 and then as a coach from 1995-2009.

The Texans' offense has become synonymous with success in the run game since Dennison joined the staff in January 2010. Houston has an NFL-best 26 individual 100-yard rushing performances, ranks third in the NFL with 137.8 rushing yards per game, is second in the NFL with 62 combined rushing touchdowns and has produced the three best rushing seasons in franchise history. Eight different Texans offensive players have earned Pro Bowl invitations in that time.

The Texans offense helped set a franchise record with 26.0 points per game and ranked seventh in the NFL with 372.1 yards per game in 2012. Seven offensive players earned a trip to the Pro Bowl, including wide receiver Andre Johnson, who had a resurgent season with 1,598 yards and four touchdowns. Running back Arian Foster led the NFL in touchdowns for the second time in three seasons with 17 and ranked second in the AFC with 1,424 yards rushing. Quarterback Matt Schaub eclipsed the 4,000-yard mark for the third time in his career and second time under Dennison behind a line that featured three Pro Bowlers: left tackle Duane Brown, left guard Wade Smith and center Chris Myers. Brown was also named Associated Press first team All-Pro.

Dennison's offense persevered through several injuries to key players in 2011. Houston set franchise records with 2,448 rushing yards (153.0 per game) and 546 rushing attempts to rank second in the NFL and excelled in the postseason, averaging 159.5 rushing yards per game in helping the Texans reach the Divisional round. Houston led the NFL in time of possession (32:41) and set a franchise record for fewest interceptions thrown with nine, despite having three different starting quarterbacks. Schaub and backup Matt Leinart went down with season-ending injuries in consecutive weeks late in the regular season, leaving rookie fifth-round draft pick T.J. Yates to lead the offense throughout the six remaining regular season games and postseason.

The 2011 Texans had two running backs rush for more than 900 yards in a season for the first time in franchise history, with Foster finishing fifth in the NFL with 1,224 yards and Ben Tate rushing for 942 yards. Foster and Tate both rushed for more than 100 yards in the same game twice during the season, making Houston just the sixth team since 1985 to accomplish the feat. Myers was selected to the Pro Bowl, a first for a Texans lineman, and Brown earned second team AP All-Pro and PFW/PFWA All-AFC honors.

Houston's offense experienced record-setting success with a renewed emphasis on the running game under Dennison in 2010. The Texans offense ranked third in the NFL with the league's seventh-ranked rushing offense and fourth-ranked passing attack. Houston set franchise records with 390 points, 6,186 total yards of offense (386.6 per game) and 2,042 yards rushing (127.6 yards per game). Dennison's offense helped Foster become the franchise's first NFL rushing and scoring leader with a franchise-record 1,616 yards rushing and 18 touchdowns.

Dennison's first stint as an offensive coordinator in the NFL came in Denver from 2006-08 after his predecessor, Kubiak, left the Broncos to become head coach of the Texans. Dennison coached the Broncos offensive line from 2001-05 and again in 2009. He also coached Denver's special teams from 1997-2000 and was an offensive assistant from 1995-96.

With Dennison at the helm, Denver's offense averaged 350.5 yards per game from 2006-08 and rushed for 124.4 yards per game, averaging 4.6 yards per carry. Despite starting a rookie at left tackle and a second-year player at right tackle in 2008, the Broncos gained 6,333 yards to rank second in the NFL and the offensive line allowed a franchise-record-low 12 sacks.

In 2007, Denver was fourth in the NFL in yards per play (5.7) and fifth in yards per rush (4.6). In 2006, Dennison's first season at the helm of the offense, Denver ranked fifth in the NFL with an average of 360.4 yards per game.

With Dennison in charge of either the offensive line or the entire offense from 2001-09, the Broncos ranked second in the NFL with an average of 135.1 rushing yards per game. Denver's 4.5-yard rushing average in that time period was the third-highest in the League. The Broncos line also excelled in pass blocking, surrendering just 226 sacks in nine years, which was the fourth-fewest in the League in that time.

Dennison coached Denver's special teams from 1997-2000 and helped the Broncos win back-to-back World Championships in 1997 and 1998. Under his tutelage, punt returner Darrien Gordon and kicker Jason Elam both earned trips to the Pro Bowl and punter Tom Rouen was one of the most consistent punters in the League. Dennison began his coaching career as an offensive assistant in Denver from 1995-96 after coaching for three years at the high school level for Suffield Academy in Suffield, Conn.

Dennison played linebacker for the Broncos from 1982-90, appearing in 128 games with 52 starts and three Super Bowls (XXI in 1986, XXII in '87 and XXIV in '89). In 1989, he received the Ed Block Memorial Courage Award. Dennison ranked second on the Broncos in tackles with 133 during the 1988 campaign while posting a team-high three fumble recoveries.

Dennison joined the Broncos as a college free agent in 1982 after a fine collegiate career at Colorado State, where he earned three varsity letters and was a second-team Academic All-American as a senior. In 1979, Dennison earned a bachelor's degree in civil engineering from CSU followed by a master's degree in the same field from CSU in 1982.

Born in Kalispell, Mont., Dennison attended Rocky Mountain High School in Fort Collins, Colo., where he lettered in football, basketball and baseball. His father, George, was president of the University of Montana before retiring in July 2010. Rick and his wife, Shannon, have five children: sons Joseph, Steven and Trey, and twin daughters, Abrynn and Allie.

Joseph graduated from Yale, where he played football, and now works in Seattle. He was married to his wife, Hayley, in February 2011. Steven, a left-handed pitcher, was drafted in the 34th round of the 2010 Major League Baseball Draft by the Florida Marlins out of Wheaton (Ill.) College and signed a free agent contract with the Houston Astros in June 2011.

JOE MARCIANO

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR
12TH SEASON WITH TEXANS/28TH NFL SEASON

Joe Marciano is in his 12th season as special teams coordinator for the Houston Texans and his 28th season coaching special teams in the NFL. Marciano and running backs coach Chick Harris are the only coaches who have been with the Texans since the team's inception in 2002.

Marciano directed three first-year Texans to franchise records on special teams in 2012. Rookie wide receiver Keshawn Martin ranked fifth in the NFL with a franchise-record 12.14 average on punt returns and was one of 12 players to produce more than 1,000 return yards on special teams in 2012. Martin totaled 267 yards on 22 punt returns and 741 yards on 31 kickoff returns for 1,008 combined return yards. Punter Donnie Jones set club marks with a 47.2 punting average and a 40.5 net punting average. Kicker Shayne Graham ranked fifth among NFL kickers with a franchise-record 138 points.

Newcomers weren't the only Texans to set special teams records in 2012. Outside linebacker Bryan Braman became the first player in franchise history to block two punts in a season, both of which were recovered or returned for touchdowns. In addition, safety Danieal Manning set the AFC Divisional round record with 216 yards on four kickoff returns (54.0 average).

In 2011, the Texans set a franchise record with 529 punt return yards, besting the franchise standard of 512 set in 2010. Former wide receiver Jacoby Jones had a career-high 518 yards on punt returns and set a franchise record with the third punt return touchdown of his career. Kicker Neil Rackers set franchise records with 135 points and 32 field goals made. Rookie Brett Hartmann and veteran Matt Turk combined for a franchise-record 44.0-yard punting average, and Hartmann and Rackers set a team mark with 38 combined touchbacks on kickoffs. Marciano's kickoff coverage unit ranked seventh and held opponents to a franchise-low 22.4-yard kickoff return average.

The Texans' kicking game excelled in 2010, with Rackers setting a franchise record by converting 90 percent of his field goal attempts (27-of-30) and all 43 point-after attempts. Rackers scored 124 points and converted 70-of-73 combined kick attempts (95.9 percent).

Marciano's coverage units held opponents to a 4.3-yard punt return average and 22.5 yards per kickoff return in 2009. Jacoby Jones averaged 10.9 yards per punt return and 26.6 yards per kick return, including a 95-yard kick return for touchdown against Oakland. Kicker Kris Brown surpassed the 1,000 points for his career and eclipsed the 100-point mark for the third straight season with 106 points to go along with a pair of game-winning field goals. Turk set the team single-season punting record for the third straight year, averaging 42.8 yards per punt.

The 2008 special teams unit was one of the most consistent and explosive in the NFL. Brown turned in the best season of his career, setting franchise records with 124 points, 29 field goals and an .879 field goal percentage. Jones returned two punts for touchdowns and finished third in the AFC with a 12.1-yard punt return average. Turk broke his own franchise mark with a 42.3-yard average on a record-low 53 attempts.

The Texans tied three NFL special teams records in 2007. Houston became the fourth team in NFL history with four kickoff returns for touchdowns. Wide receiver André Davis tied another League record when he became the seventh player in history to return two kickoffs for a touchdown in one game, doing so against Jacksonville in the season finale. Brown, who led the team with 115 points, became just the third kicker in League history to make three field goals of 50 yards or longer in one game, doing so against Miami. Turk also set team records for gross and net punting average in his first season as a Texan, and the coverage unit held opponents to a record-low 151 punt return yards.

In 2006, the Texans ranked sixth in the League in punt return average, at 10.5 yards per return; and the kick coverage team held opponents to the sixth-worst starting field position in the League.

Marciano's tenure as special teams coordinator was highlighted during the 2005 season. Pro Bowl selection and AP first-team All-Pro kick returner Jerome Mathis was also honored by the NFL Alumni as the Special Teams Player of the Year and the Texans Rookie of the Year. He ranked second in the NFL with 54 kickoffs for 1,542 yards and two touchdowns. He was the only player in the NFL to return two kicks for scores that season.

Marciano helped Brown finish the 2005 season with 102 points, including 26 field goals. Stanley also had a stellar 2005 season, finishing with 29 punts inside the 20-yard line, the fourth most in the NFL. His 6.6 yard-per-return average ranked sixth in the NFL.

In 2004, Brown nailed a career-high nine touchbacks. Second-year linebacker Antwan Peek had a breakout year with 18 special teams tackles and a blocked punt. Meanwhile, the Texans ranked seventh in the AFC in opponent average starting field position.

In 2003, Stanley led the NFL with 36 punts inside the 20 and his 36.7-yard net average ranked sixth in the League. Brown nailed 18-of-22 field goals, missing just one inside 50 yards. J.J. Moses ranked fifth in the AFC with a 23.4-yard kickoff return average.

In 2002, Brown connected on 13 field goals from 40-plus yards. Stanley ranked second in the AFC in net average (36.8) and led the conference with 36 punts inside the 20. The Texans also scored two touchdowns on special teams (punt return, punt block), recovered three fumbles, and yielded just 5.7 yards per punt return, leading the AFC.

Marciano arrived in Houston after spending the previous six seasons in the same capacity with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. Under Marciano, the Bucs boasted one of the NFC's most consistent special teams units. Tampa Bay blocked 20 kicks, registered nine of the 10 longest punt and kickoff returns in club annals, and recorded 10 NFC Special Teams Player of the Week awards during his six seasons.

Kicker Martin Gramatica posted remarkable numbers during his first three NFL seasons. Gramatica nailed 84-of-101 field goal attempts (counting playoffs) and earned a Pro Bowl berth in 2000, breaking his own club single-season records in points (126), field goals (28), consecutive field goals (16), 50-plus-yard field goals (five), and extra points (42). Tampa Bay also set a team mark and tied an NFL mark by blocking seven kicks (four field goals, three punts), returning two for touchdowns in 2000.

In 1999, linebacker Shelton Quarles broke a 10-year Bucs single-season record with 31 special teams tackles. Tampa Bay opponents averaged just 17.6 yards per kickoff return, which set a club record. In 1998, Marciano's charges set single-season club marks in both kickoff return average (23.7) and punt-return average (13.7). In 1997, the Bucs finished first in the NFL in opponent net punting and opponent field-goal percentage.

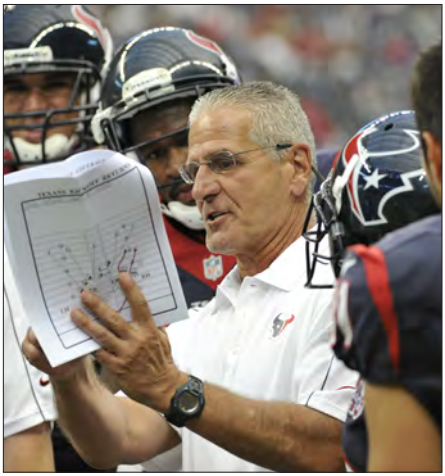
Marciano joined the Bucs after spending the previous 10 years as the special teams coach for the New Orleans Saints. For the first nine of those campaigns, he also coached the team's tight ends. During Marciano's New Orleans tenure, he coached three special teams players who were selected for the Pro Bowl (Morten Andersen, Tyrone Hughes, Bennie Thompson).

Marciano's first professional football job came as the special teams/tight ends coach for the Philadelphia/Baltimore Stars of the USFL, helping the club win two league championships. Marciano joined the Stars after spending 1982 as the tight ends/special teams coach at Temple.

In 1981, Marciano tutored the tight ends for Joe Paterno at Penn State. Marciano also coached wide receivers at Villanova (1980) and Rhode Island (1978-79). He began his college coaching career overseeing the tight ends at East Stroudsburg University in 1977. Marciano coached at Wyoming Area High School in West Pittston, Pa., in 1976.

A native of Dunmore, Pa., Marciano was a quarterback at Temple, where he earned his bachelor's degree in health and physical education. He serves as a spokesperson for Autism Speaks and is very active in the organization's annual fundraising walk held each fall in Houston.

Marciano is an avid fisherman who has conducted various fishing tournaments and has appeared on numerous ESPN fishing shows. In 1993, Marciano was inducted into the Northeast Chapter of the Pennsylvania Sports Hall of Fame. He is single and resides in Missouri City with his son, Joseph.



Joe Marciano (above) and Running Backs Coach Chick Harris are the only two Texans coaches who have been on staff since the inaugural 2002 season.

WADE PHILLIPS

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

THIRD SEASON WITH TEXANS/37TH NFL SEASON

Wade Phillips is in his third season as the Houston Texans defensive coordinator. Phillips has 37 years of coaching experience, including the last 31 as a defensive coordinator or head coach. Phillips was named Texans defensive coordinator on Jan. 5, 2011.

Phillips has helped orchestrate 14 top-10 defensive performances and has helped lead teams to 13 playoff appearances, all of which have come since 1988, as a head coach or defensive coordinator.

He has reached the playoffs in his first season with each of the last eight teams he has taken over as head coach or defensive coordinator, including the Houston Texans in 2011. Phillips' defense helped the Texans win a franchise-record 12 games in 2012 and make their second consecutive trip to the playoffs.

The 2012 Texans defense, led by Associated Press Defensive Player of the Year J.J. Watt, ranked in the League's top 10 in total defense, rushing defense, scoring defense, sacks and third-down defense. The second-year defensive end put together what Phillips called simply the "best season ever," leading the NFL with 20.5 sacks, batting down 16 passes, forcing four fumbles and recovering two en route to becoming the franchise's first-ever player of the year award winner.

Phillips earned recognition as the PFW/PFWA Assistant Coach of the Year in 2011 after the Texans' defense finished second in the NFL with 285.7 yards allowed per game. Phillips installed a 3-4 scheme that yielded the third-largest single-year improvement since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger, flipping a unit that gave up 379.6 yards per game and ranked 31st in the NFL in 2010.

Phillips' current post with the Texans marks the second time he and head coach Gary Kubiak have been on the same sideline. Kubiak and Phillips' tenures overlapped with the Denver Broncos from 1989-91. Kubiak played for the club from 1983-91 and Phillips served as defensive coordinator from 1989-92 before taking over as the franchise's head coach from 1993-94.

Phillips, 66, served as head coach of the Dallas Cowboys from 2007 until midway through the 2010 season, compiling a 34-22 record (.607 winning pct.). Under Phillips, the Cowboys' defense gave up an average of 329.9 yards per game to rank 10th in the NFL during his tenure and played a key role in producing three straight winning seasons from 2007-09, including two playoff appearances and the franchise's first playoff win in 12 seasons in 2009. He owns a career coaching record of 83-66, including the postseason.

Prior to his tenure in Dallas, Phillips served as defensive coordinator for the San Diego Chargers from 2004-06. The Chargers gave up fewer than 20 points per game all three years Phillips was at the helm of the defense, posted three straight winning seasons and qualified for the playoffs in 2004 and 2006.

He served as interim head coach of the Atlanta Falcons for the final three games of 2003 after joining the franchise as defensive coordinator in 2002. From 1998-2000, Phillips was the head coach of the Buffalo Bills, compiling a 29-19 record and leading the team to two playoff appearances and the top overall defense in that time. Buffalo led the NFL in total defense in 1999, allowing only 266.2 yards and 14.3 points per game. Before taking the reins in Buffalo, he was the team's defensive coordinator from 1995-97.

Phillips' first coordinator position came with the New Orleans Saints from 1981-85. He then moved on to serve as defensive coordinator and linebackers coach for the Philadelphia Eagles from 1986-88. His NFL coaching career began in Houston, with the Oilers in 1976, serving on the staff of his father, legendary coach Bum Phillips, until 1980.

The Texans' defensive coordinator has strong ties to the city of Houston and the state of Texas, coaching at the high school, collegiate and professional levels in the Lone Star State. He was born in Orange, Texas and played his prep career at Port Neches-Grove High School in Port Neches. Phillips played linebacker at the University of Houston from 1966-68 and coached for the Cougars in 1969.

Phillips returned to his roots from 1970-72, serving as the defensive coordinator at Orange (Texas) High School. In 1973, he joined the Oklahoma State University staff, coaching linebackers for two seasons. Phillips was then hired to coach the defensive line at Kansas in 1975, his last season coaching in the college ranks.

Phillips and wife Laurie have one son, Wesley, who is the tight ends coach with the Dallas Cowboys, and a daughter, Tracy, who is a professional actress, dancer and choreographer in Hollywood, Calif. He resides in Houston and is the only member of the Texans' coaching staff on Twitter (@sonofbum).

HISTORICAL IMPROVEMENT

Houston's second-ranked defense was far and away the NFL's most improved unit in 2011, giving up 285.7 yards per game compared to 376.9 yards per game in 2010. The Texans defense was just as impressive in a historical context. Houston's 91.2-yard-average improvement was the third-best since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger.

JOHN BENTON

OFFENSIVE LINE

John Benton is in his eighth season as the offensive line coach for the Houston Texans. Benton's offensive lines have provided protection and paved the way for some of the top individual and team offensive performances in the NFL in that time and have helped turn the Texans offense into one of the most productive in the League.

Houston set franchise records for total offense each year from 2008-10 and has registered the top three rushing seasons in franchise history from 2010-12, including franchise rushing records in 2010 and 2011. The Texans lead the NFL with 26 individual 100-yard rushing games since 2010 and have led the League in time of possession each of the last two seasons.

Benton's line anchored Houston's third consecutive 2,000-yard rushing performance in 2012 and cleared the way for Arian Foster to lead the NFL with 17 total touchdowns and 15 rushing touchdowns. Foster ran for more than 1,000 yards for the third consecutive year, accumulating 1,424 rushing yards behind the Pro Bowl play of left tackle Duane Brown, left guard Wade Smith and center Chris Myers. Brown became the first offensive lineman in Texans history to earn Associated Press All-Pro First Team recognition.

The Texans ranked fourth in the AFC with 28 sacks allowed and set a franchise record with a League-best 32:53 time of possession in 2012. Overall, Houston's offense averaged 372.1 yards per game to rank seventh in the NFL, its fourth top-10 performance during Benton's seven-year tenure.

Houston's offensive line led the charge in 2011 as the Texans set franchise records with 2,448 rushing yards (153.0 per game) and 546 rushing attempts, and ranked second in the NFL. The run game excelled in the playoffs, averaging 159.5 yards per game in helping the Texans reach the Divisional round. The dominant rushing game also helped set a franchise-record 32:41 average time of possession to the lead the NFL.

The 2011 Texans had two players rush for more than 900 yards in a season for the first time in franchise history, with Foster finishing fifth in the NFL with 1,224 yards and Ben Tate rushing for 942 yards. Foster and Tate both rushed for more than 100 yards in the same game twice during the season, making Houston just the sixth team since 1985 to accomplish the feat. Myers was selected to the Pro Bowl, a first for a Texans lineman, and Brown earned second-team AP All-Pro and PFW/PFWA All-AFC honors.

Benton's unit paved the way for another record-setting season for Houston's offense in 2010. The Texans ranked third in the NFL in 2010 with a franchise-record 6,186 yards of offense (386.6 yards per game) and seventh with a franchise rushing record 127.6 yards per game. The team set a franchise record with 390 points (24.4 points per game) scored and helped Foster lead the NFL in rushing and touchdowns scored. Foster set franchise records with 1,616 yards rushing, the most yards ever in a season for an undrafted player, and 18 total touchdowns. It was the third straight season Houston ranked among the NFL's top-five offenses.

In 2009, the line provided protection for the NFL's leading passer, quarterback Matt Schaub, who threw for 4,770 yards and 29 touchdowns. Overall, the offense ranked fourth in the League, averaging 383.1 yards per game. The passing attack netted a League-best 290.9 yards per game and gave up the fifth-fewest sacks in the League with 25.

In 2008, Benton's line featured the same starting lineup for all 16 games, a first in team history. The line paved the way for rookie running back Steve Slaton to set a then-franchise record with 1,282 rushing yards, while the 32 sacks allowed were the third-fewest in team history. The 2008 offense ranked third in the NFL, gaining 6,113 total yards.

Stellar pass protection has been a hallmark of Benton's lines in Houston. Despite using eight different starting lineups in 2006, Benton's first season, the Texans surrendered 25 fewer sacks than in 2005. On the ground, the line improved throughout the year and helped the team average 123.4 rushing yards per game in the second half of the season.

BENTON'S LINE LEADING THE WAY

Houston's offensive line has blocked for 26 100-yard rushing performances since the start of the 2010 season, the most in the NFL in that time. The Texans' line blocked for eight 100-yard performances in 2010, 11 in 2011 and seven in 2012.

The line was even better in 2007, cutting the sack total in half from 2006, allowing 22 on the year, which set a team record. The record-low sack total came while the team attempted a then-record-high 529 passes. The team also rushed for 1,586 yards and 12 touchdowns behind the line.

Benton spent two years working with the St. Louis Rams offensive line prior to joining the Texans' staff. As the Rams' assistant offensive line coach in 2004, Benton helped St. Louis reach the playoffs as a Wild Card team and advanced to the Divisional round with an offensive line led by Pro Bowl left tackle Orlando Pace. The Rams' offensive line helped St. Louis finish fourth in the NFL with 252.3 passing yards per game and produce 1,496 yards on the ground.

In 2005, Benton was promoted to offensive line coach and his unit blocked for running back Stephen Jackson's first career 1,000-yard season. Rams running backs averaged 1,579 rushing yards during Benton's two years as the line coach.

Benton lettered at Colorado State from 1983-86 and earned honorable mention All-WAC accolades during his junior and senior seasons. He was a graduate assistant at Colorado State from 1987-90 before moving on to California University (Pa.), where he coached the offensive line and also served as the recruiting coordinator until 1994.

Benton returned to his alma mater in 1996, where he served as offensive line coach until 2000 and added responsibilities as the co-offensive coordinator from 2000-03, sharing duties with current Texans offensive assistant Dan Hammerschmidt from 2001-03.

A Durango, Colo. native, he and his wife Nicole, have two daughters, Gabrielle and Paige. The family resides in Sugar Land.

PERRY CARTER

ASSISTANT DEFENSIVE BACKS
EIGHTH SEASON WITH TEXANS/EIGHTH NFL SEASON

Perry Carter is in his eighth season as a coach with the Texans and his fourth as assistant defensive backs coach.

Carter has worked closely with defensive backs coach Vance Joseph to help develop Houston's secondary. Since 2011, Houston ranks third in the NFL in pass defense (207.7 yards per game) and leads the NFL in completion percentage (52.5).

In 2011, Houston ranked third in pass defense, giving up 189.7 yards per game, after finishing 30th in 2010 with 267.5 yards per game. The Texans had the NFL's lowest pass completion percentage allowed (51.9), ranked second with 6.17 yards per attempt allowed and had the second-lowest opponent passer rating at 69.0.

Carter also worked with the defensive backs in his five previous seasons with the Texans, including his four seasons as a defensive assistant. He originally joined the Texans staff through the NFL's Minority Coaching Fellowship program during the 2006 training camp.

Carter's coaching career began in 2004 as the secondary coach at Texas A&M-Commerce. He worked in private business in 2005, then returned to coaching with NFL Europa's Hamburg Sea Devils as a defensive backs/defensive assistant in the summer of 2006. Carter also worked with the special teams in Hamburg.

The 41-year-old Carter, a native of McComb, Miss., earned four letters playing cornerback at Southern Mississippi from 1990-94. Carter was drafted by the Arizona Cardinals in the fourth round (107th pick overall) of the 1994 NFL Draft, and played for the Kansas City Chiefs in 1995 and the Oakland Raiders from 1996-98. Carter also played five seasons in the Canadian Football League with the Edmonton Eskimos (2000-01), Montreal Alouettes (2002) and British Columbia Lions (2003-04).

Carter and his wife, Nicole, live in Houston with their daughter, Bría, and son, Perry Jr.

KARL DORRELL

QUARTERBACKS

SECOND SEASON WITH TEXANS/NINTH NFL SEASON

Karl Dorrell is in his second season as the Houston Texans quarterbacks coach after joining the coaching staff on Feb. 10, 2012. Dorrell has 25 years of collegiate and professional coaching experience, including four seasons with the Miami Dolphins before joining the Texans.

Dorrell coached quarterback Matt Schaub to his second career Pro Bowl and first playoff appearance in 2012. Schaub threw for 4,008 yards on 350-of-544 passing for 22 touchdowns and a 90.7 passer rating with 12 interceptions and posted his highest completion percentage since 2009 at 64.3 percent. Houston's signal-caller also had one of the best games in NFL history, throwing for 527 yards and five touchdowns on 43-of-55 attempts in an overtime win against Jacksonville.

In 2011, Dorrell oversaw a career season for Dolphins quarterback Matt Moore, who took over as the team's starter in Week 5. Moore set career highs with 210 completions on 347 attempts for 2,497 yards and 16 touchdowns. He ranked fourth among AFC passers with an 88.7 passer rating after taking over as the starter and tied or set single-game career highs for passer rating, touchdown passes and longest touchdown pass.

From 2008-10, Dorrell served as the Dolphins' wide receivers coach. In 2010, Dolphins wide receivers Brandon Marshall and Davone Bess combined for 165 receptions, the fourth-highest total by a duo in the NFL. Bess totaled 209 receptions from 2008-10 under Dorrell's guidance, the most by any Dolphins player in his first three years with the team.

Dorrell joined the Dolphins following a five-year stint as head coach at UCLA, where he compiled a 35-27 record and led the Bruins to a bowl appearance each year from 2003-07. In 2005, Dorrell was named the Pac-10 Conference co-Coach of the Year after leading UCLA to a 10-2 record, a No. 13 national ranking in the USA Today Coaches' Poll and a Sun Bowl victory against Northwestern.

Prior to coaching at UCLA, Dorrell was wide receivers coach with the Denver Broncos from 2000-02, serving with current Texans head coach Gary Kubiak, offensive coordinator Rick Dennison and tight ends coach Brian Pariani. Wide receiver Rod Smith posted a pair of 100-reception seasons, earned his first two Pro Bowl selections and eclipsed the 1,000-yard mark three times under Dorrell. In 2000, wide receiver Ed McCaffrey posted 101 receptions for 1,317 yards and combined with Smith for 201 receptions, 2,919 receiving yards and 17 touchdowns. Dorrell also worked with the Broncos' staff during training camp in 1993 and 1999 as part of the NFL's Minority Coaching Fellowship program.

In 17 seasons as a head coach or assistant coach at the collegiate level, Dorrell was part of 10 winning records and 12 bowl appearances. Dorrell served as a collegiate assistant for 12 seasons, including seven years as an offensive coordinator. He began his coaching career at UCLA as a graduate assistant in 1988 before moving on to Central Florida (wide receivers, 1989), Northern Arizona (offensive coordinator/wide receivers, 1990-91), Colorado (wide receivers, 1992-93) and Arizona State (wide receivers, 1994). Dorrell returned to Colorado from 1995-98 (offensive coordinator/wide receivers) before coaching at Washington (offensive coordinator/wide receivers, 1999).

Dorrell played wide receiver at UCLA from 1982-86, where he helped the Bruins win three Rose Bowls. He was an honorable mention All-America receiver at Helix High School in San Diego, where he was a classmate and teammate of Texans offensive assistant Dan Hammerschmidt.

Dorrell and his wife, Kim, have two children, Chandler and Lauren.

DAN HAMMERSCHMIDT

OFFENSIVE ASSISTANT

SECOND SEASON WITH TEXANS/SECOND NFL SEASON

Dan Hammerschmidt is in his second season as a Houston Texans offensive assistant. Hammerschmidt joined the Texans coaching staff in February of 2012, after coaching 26 years in the collegiate ranks.

The Texans set a franchise record with 26.0 points per game and ranked seventh in the NFL with 372.1 yards per game in Hammerschmidt's first season with the club. A franchise-record seven offensive players earned a trip to the Pro Bowl, including wide receiver Andre Johnson, who had 1,598 yards receiving and four touchdowns. Running back Arian Foster led the NFL with 17 touchdowns and ranked second in the AFC with 1,424 yards rushing. Pro Bowl quarterback Matt Schaub eclipsed the 4,000-yard mark behind a line that featured three Pro Bowlers: left tackle Duane Brown, left guard Wade Smith and center Chris Myers. Brown was also named Associated Press first team All-Pro.

Hammerschmidt has coached in 11 bowl games and spent 19 of his previous 26 seasons coaching at Colorado State, spanning three different tenures. He also coached in Houston as wide receivers coach at Rice in 2008, mentoring former Texans fullback James Casey and former Jacksonville wide receiver Jarett Dillard in their final collegiate seasons.

A graduate of CSU, Hammerschmidt began his coaching career at his alma mater as a student assistant in 1986, followed by stints at TCU (1987), Duke (1988-94) and Virginia Military Institute (1995). He returned to CSU in 1996 as wide receivers coach and took over as the Rams' co-offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach from 2001-07. Hammerschmidt shared coordinator duties with Texans offensive line coach John Benton from 2001-03 and also served on the CSU staff with Texans assistant wide receivers coach Marc Lubick from 2001-02.

Following the 2008 season at Rice, Hammerschmidt served as the assistant head coach/wide receivers and tight ends coach at Wyoming in 2009 before returning for a third tenure at CSU in 2010 as wide receivers coach and passing game coordinator.

A standout athlete at San Diego's Helix High School, where he was a classmate and teammate of Texans quarterbacks coach Karl Dorrell, Hammerschmidt went on to be a four-year starter at safety at CSU from 1982-85. He led the team in interceptions as a senior.

Hammerschmidt graduated from CSU in 1987 with a degree in business economics. He has two children, Holly and Michael. His brother, Jeff, was Texans linebacker Brooks Reed's position coach at the University of Arizona and now serves as the special teams coordinator and running backs coach at CSU.

CHICK HARRIS

RUNNING BACKS

12TH SEASON WITH TEXANS/33RD NFL SEASON

Chick Harris is in his 12th season as running backs coach for the Houston Texans. Harris and special teams coordinator Joe Marciano are the only coaches who have been with the team since its inception in 2002. He has 32 years of NFL coaching experience and has mentored eight running backs who have eclipsed the 1,000-yard mark in a season a collective 15 times.

Three of those 1,000-yard seasons have come from three-time Pro Bowler Arian Foster, who led the NFL with 17 total touchdowns and ranked second in the AFC with 1,424 yards rushing in 2012. Foster, who went undrafted in 2009, is Houston's all-time leading rusher under Harris' guidance with 4,521 yards.

Harris' running back trio of Foster, Ben Tate and Justin Forsett combined for 2,077 yards on the ground and 18 touchdowns in 2012. That group also helped Houston lead the NFL in time of possession for the second consecutive season and only lost three fumbles in a combined 533 offensive touches.

In 2011, Foster and Tate became the first backfield duo in franchise history to rush for more than 900 yards apiece in a season. Foster earned his second consecutive Pro Bowl selection, finished fifth in the NFL with 1,224 yards rushing and was third with 1,841 yards from scrimmage despite missing three and a half games. Tate was second on the team with 942 yards on the ground in his first full NFL season. The duo rushed for more than 100 yards in the same game twice, making Houston just the sixth team since 1985 to accomplish the feat.

Harris has turned in impressive coaching performances seemingly every year, no matter who is carrying the ball, but 2010 was one of his finest as both fullback Vonta Leach and Foster earned AP First Team All-Pro and Pro Bowl honors. Foster led the NFL with franchise records of 1,616 yards rushing, 2,220 total yards from scrimmage and 18 touchdowns. He also set a franchise single-game record with 231 yards in the 2010 season opener against Indianapolis. Veteran Derrick Ward helped Houston rush for 2,042 yards, a franchise record at the time, contributing 315 yards on 50 carries (6.3 average).

In 2009, the Texans had four backs each rush for at least 250 yards, led by Steve Slaton, who finished with 437 yards in an injury-shortened season. Veteran Ryan Moats rushed for a career-high 390 yards, while Foster, then a rookie, rushed for 216 of his 257 yards in the last two games.

In 2008, Slaton, then a rookie third-round draft pick, started the final 15 games and won the rookie rushing title with a franchise-record 1,282 yards. Slaton led all AFC players with 1,659 total yards from scrimmage, and his five 100-yard rushing days were also a team single-season record.

Harris leaned on 2006 leading rusher Ron Dayne, who produced a team- and career-high 773 yards and six touchdowns in 2007. Rookie undrafted free agent Darius Walker came on late in the year and ran for 264 yards in the last four games.

Dayne led a committee of running backs with 612 yards and five touchdowns. Houston was one of three teams to have three different players rush for at least 90 yards in a game, and the Texans were the only team that had a pair of rookies both top the 90-yard mark in a game.

Harris helped Domanick Williams earn the 2003 Diet Pepsi Rookie of the Year award and develop into a two-time 1,000-yard rusher.

During Harris' seven-year tenure with the Panthers, injuries forced the club to suit up a bevy of running backs, which included Tshimanga Biakabutuka, Richard Huntley, Brad Hoover, Fred Lane, Anthony Johnson and Derrick Moore. Harris helped Carolina set an expansion record with seven wins in 1995 and also helped the Panthers reach the NFC Championship Game the following season.

Harris launched his NFL coaching career with the Buffalo Bills in 1981, coaching two seasons and helping Joe Cribbs eclipse the 1,000-yard mark his first year coaching with the team. He then moved on to serve as the backfield coach for the Seattle Seahawks from 1983-91. In Harris' first year with the Seahawks, rookie Curt Warner produced the first of four 1,000-yard seasons during his time under Harris, rushing for 1,449 yards and helping the team reach the AFC Championship Game.

Harris joined the Los Angeles Rams in 1992 as running backs coach before taking over as offensive coordinator for one season in 1994. The highlight of Harris' tenure with the Rams was Jerome Bettis' Rookie of the Year campaign in 1993. Bettis began his stellar career with 1,429 rushing yards and seven touchdowns as a rookie under Harris.

Harris entered the coaching profession at Colorado State in 1970, coaching three seasons before heading to Long Beach State. After one season at Long Beach, Harris joined the Detroit Wheels of the World Football League in 1974. He then moved on to the University of Washington, where he spent six seasons, helping the Huskies to two bowl wins, including a Rose Bowl victory against Michigan.

Harris lettered in football and track at Northern Arizona, where he is a member of the Lumberjacks' athletic hall of fame.

Born in Durham, N.C., Harris attended Long Beach (Calif.) Poly High School. He has a son, Tyler, and a daughter, Tarana. Harris and his wife, Karen, have a daughter, Kara. The family lives in Sugar Land.

REGGIE HERRING

LINEBACKERS

FIFTH SEASON WITH TEXANS/EIGHTH NFL SEASON

Reggie Herring is in his fifth season overall with the Texans and the third year of his second tenure as Houston's linebackers coach. Herring re-joined the Texans as linebackers coach with the hiring of defensive coordinator Wade Phillips in 2011.

Despite numerous injuries that affected depth throughout the linebacker corps in 2012, Herring's unit remained an integral part of the NFL's seventh-ranked defense. Inside linebacker Brian Cushing was leading the team with 43 tackles and had one interception when he went down with a season-ending ACL injury in Week 5. Inside backer Bradie James led the unit with 105 tackles in Cushing's absence, while veterans Tim Dobbins, Darryl Sharpton and Barrett Ruud helped shore up the middle of the defense. On the outside, rookie Whitney Mercilus tied Brooks Reed's rookie sack record with 6.0 in spot duty from the weak side. Reed totaled 42 tackles and 2.5 sacks from the strong side, despite missing four games with a groin injury. He tied for the team lead in the postseason with 1.5 sacks.

Herring's linebackers played a pivotal role in the third-largest defensive improvement in NFL history since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger in 2011. The Texans ranked second in the NFL in total defense, allowing 285.7 yards per game, after giving up 376.9 yards per game and ranking 30th in 2010. Houston's linebackers accounted for 27 of a franchise-record 44 sacks, which ranked sixth in the NFL.

In 2011, Cushing earned second team AP All-Pro recognition and led the team with 114 tackles. Connor Barwin made the transition to outside linebacker from defensive end and tied for third in the AFC with a team-high 11.5 sacks. Barwin also set a franchise single-game record with 4.0 sacks at Jacksonville on Nov. 27. Reed set a Texans rookie record with 6.0 sacks on the season.

Herring also made the defensive calls in Weeks 15 and 16 of the regular season while Phillips recovered from surgery.

From 2002-03, Herring served as the Texans linebackers coach and helped former Texans linebacker Jamie Sharper lead the NFL with 166 tackles in 2003. Sharper's tackle total from 2003 still stands as the Texans single-season standard. Linebacker Jay Foreman joined Sharper in posting back-to-back seasons with more than 130 tackles during Herring's first two years with the team.

Prior to re-joining the Texans staff, Herring was the Dallas Cowboys linebackers coach from 2008-10, while Phillips was head coach. Dallas linebacker DeMarcus Ware led the NFL with a combined 46.5 sacks in that time, including the second-most sacks ever by a linebacker in a season and League-best 20.0 in 2008. James led the team with 202 tackles in 2008, making him the second player in Cowboys history to surpass the 200-tackle mark in a season. The Cowboys top-three tacklers were from Herring's linebacker corps all three seasons he was in Dallas.

Herring was named defensive coordinator at Texas A&M on former Texans offensive coordinator Mike Sherman's staff early in 2008, but left a month later to take his position with the Cowboys.

In addition to his successes as an NFL coach, Herring spent 25 years in the collegiate ranks coaching some of the country's best defenses, and coached in 18 bowl games overall. From 2005-07, Herring was the defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at the University of Arkansas and served as the interim head coach for the Razorbacks in the 2008 AT&T Cotton Bowl Classic. Herring's defense helped Arkansas win the 2006 Southeastern Conference Western Division and earn two postseason bowl berths. In 2006, Herring was a finalist for the Broyles Award, given annually to the nation's top assistant coach.

Before going to Arkansas, Herring served as the defensive coordinator at North Carolina State in 2004, where the Wolfpack led the country in total defense (221.4 yards per game), pass efficiency defense, and was second in total pass defense. Herring helped coach former Texan Mario Williams to an All-America performance.

Herring coached linebackers at Clemson from 1994-2001, and added the title of defensive coordinator in 1997. Seven of Herring's linebackers were drafted during his tenure at Clemson, including Anthony Simmons, who was taken 15th overall by Seattle in 1998. In 2000, he coached Butkus Award finalist Keith Adams, who also led the NCAA in tackles.

Herring's first coordinator experience came at TCU from 1992-93. He coached linebackers at Auburn from 1986-91, winning three SEC championships. His coaching career began in 1981 as a graduate assistant on Jimmy Johnson's staff at Oklahoma State, where he was the linebackers coach from 1982-85.

A Florida State Hall of Fame selection in 1989, Herring was a three-year starting linebacker for head coach Bobby Bowden from 1978-80. He led the Seminoles in tackles all three years and is still the third-leading tackler in FSU history. He was a team captain as a senior and played in the Tangerine Bowl and the Orange Bowl twice.

The 54-year-old Myrtle Beach, S.C. native, is married to the former Lisa Ward of Griffin, Ga. The couple has a daughter, Caroline, 27, and a son, Adam, 24.

VANCE JOSEPH

DEFENSIVE BACKS

THIRD SEASON WITH TEXANS/NINTH NFL SEASON

Vance Joseph is in his third season as the Houston Texans defensive backs coach. Joseph joined the coaching staff in 2011 after spending the previous six seasons with the San Francisco 49ers, including the final five as the secondary coach.

In Joseph's first two seasons leading the secondary, Houston ranked third in the NFL in passing yards allowed per game (207.7) and held opponents to an NFL-low 52.5 completion percentage. Cornerback Johnathan Joseph made the first two Pro Bowls of his career, and Kareem Jackson has evolved into one of the top-performing cornerbacks in the AFC.

In 2012, Houston led the NFL with 118 passes defensed and set a franchise record with three interception returns for touchdowns. Johnathan Joseph was elected to his second consecutive Pro Bowl and the Texans had 333 interception return yards, marking the highest total for the franchise since 2004. The secondary helped hold opponents to a league-low 53.0 completion percentage and an 80.0 passer rating, which ranked 10th in the NFL.

Joseph's first year with the Texans yielded dramatic returns in pass defense. The 2011 Texans were third in the NFL in overall pass defense, allowing 189.7 yards per game compared to 267.5 in 2010, which ranked last in the NFL. Houston led the NFL with a 51.9 opponent completion percentage and held opposing quarterbacks to a 69.0 passer rating. Johnathan Joseph tied for the team lead with four interceptions and earned his first career Pro Bowl berth under Vance Joseph's direction.

In 2010, Joseph's defensive backs in San Francisco keyed the NFL's top third-and-long defense, stopping opposing offenses nearly 80 percent of the time. The year prior, Joseph's secondary recorded 21 of the 49ers' 33 takeaways, contributing to the NFL's largest turnover ratio improvement from 2008 to 2009 (plus-26). Free safety Dashon Goldson had a breakout year with three interceptions and a career-high 114 tackles.

In 2008, the 49ers gave up the second-fewest pass plays of 20-plus yards in the NFL and allowed the third-fewest passing yards in the NFL over the last five games of the season, giving up just 887 yards through the air in that span.

Prior to his stint with the 49ers, Joseph spent six years coaching in the college ranks. He served as defensive backs coach at Wyoming (2002), Colorado (2002-03) and Bowling Green (2004) before moving on to join Mike Nolan's staff in San Francisco as the secondary assistant.

Joseph began his coaching career at his alma mater, Colorado, serving as a graduate assistant from 1999-2001.

Joseph made the transition from college quarterback at Colorado from 1990-94 to NFL cornerback. He signed and played with the New York Jets as an undrafted free agent in 1995 and played for the Indianapolis Colts in 1996, compiling two interceptions in 17 career games.

Born and raised in Marrero, La., Joseph earned his bachelor's degree in marketing from Colorado in 1994. Joseph and his wife, Holly, have a son, Stone, and a daughter, Nataly.

BOBBY KING

ASSISTANT LINEBACKERS

THIRD SEASON WITH TEXANS/FOURTH NFL SEASON

Bobby King is in his third season with the Houston Texans and second as the team's assistant linebackers coach. King joined the Texans as a defensive assistant in 2011 and was promoted to his current position in March 2012. He has spent his entire collegiate and pro coaching career in the state of Texas.

Despite numerous injuries that affected depth throughout 2012, the Texans' linebackers remained an integral part of the NFL's seventh-ranked defense. Inside linebacker Brian Cushing was leading the team with 43 tackles and had one interception when he went down with a season-ending ACL injury in Week 5. Inside backer Bradie James led the unit with 105 tackles in Cushing's absence, while veterans Tim Dobbins, Darryl Sharpton and Barrett Ruud helped shore up the middle of the defense. On the outside, rookie Whitney Mercilus tied Brooks Reed's rookie sack record with 6.0 in spot duty from the weak side. Reed totaled 42 tackles and 2.5 sacks from the strong side, despite missing four games with a groin injury. He tied for the team lead in the postseason with 1.5 sacks.

In 2011, King's efforts helped produce the third-largest defensive improvement in NFL history since the 1970 AFL-NFL merger. The Texans ranked second in the NFL in total defense with 285.7 yards per game after giving up 376.9 yards per game and ranking 30th in 2010.

King came to the Texans after serving as the defensive quality control/assistant linebackers coach for the Dallas Cowboys in 2010 where he worked directly under Texans linebackers coach Reggie Herring and defensive coordinator Wade Phillips. Prior to his tenure in Dallas, King was the defensive line coach at West Texas A&M University in 2008-09, and helped the 2009 team reach its first bowl game since 1967.

From 2006-07, King worked with the defensive line as a graduate assistant at Baylor. In 2005, King ended his first stint at WTAMU by helping the team win the Lone Star Conference championship and make the school's first NCAA Division II Playoff appearance.

King began his coaching career as a student assistant at his alma mater, Texas-El Paso, working with the defensive line from 2002-03. He was a three-year letter winner and two-year starter at UTEP on the defensive line from 1998-2000.

King and his wife, Elizabeth, have a son, Jack Robert, who was born in March 2012.

DEFENSE CONTROLLING THE CLOCK

Houston led the NFL in time of possession at 32:53 per game. The statistic is often equated with a team's proficiency in sustaining drives. In the Texans' case, it was also a measure of how the defense kept the opposition off the field.

The Texans only allowed 13 drives of five minutes or longer in 200 possessions in 2012.

LARRY KIRKSEY

WIDE RECEIVERS

SEVENTH SEASON WITH TEXANS/17TH NFL SEASON

Larry Kirksey is in his seventh season as the wide receivers coach for the Houston Texans and his 17th year coaching NFL wide receivers. Kirksey has coached some of the best wide receivers in NFL history, including five who have more than 800 career receptions: Jerry Rice (1,549), Terrell Owens (1,078), Derrick Mason (943), Jimmy Smith (862) and Andre Johnson (818).

In six seasons under Kirksey's tutelage, Johnson has averaged an NFL-best 94.8 yards per game, led the League in receiving yards in 2008 and 2009, and led the NFL in receptions in 2008. Johnson joined Rice as the only receivers in NFL history to lead the League in receiving yards in consecutive seasons and joined Marvin Harrison as the only receivers to surpass 1,500 yards in back-to-back years.

Johnson earned his sixth Pro Bowl trip and recorded the best season of his career in 2012, catching 112 passes and leading the AFC with a career-high 1,598 yards. It marked the second time in NFL history a player recorded more than 100 receptions and 1,500 yards in his 10th season or later. Kirksey had a hand in the other instance, serving as Rice's position coach when the Hall of Famer caught 122 passes for 1,848 yards in 1995.

Though Kirksey had Johnson and former Texan veteran Kevin Walter leading his stable of receivers in 2012, he also had the challenge of ushering in three players who had never played a regular season game. Rookies Keshawn Martin and DeVier Posey and second-year receiver Lestar Jean combined for 22 receptions for 323 yards and two scores. Walter added 518 yards and two touchdowns on 41 receptions.

The emergence of Houston's run game and injuries to its quarterbacks and receiving corps saw the receiving numbers decline from recent years in 2011, but the Texans receivers were not without success. Despite missing nine games to injury, Johnson caught 33 passes for 492 yards for an average of 14.9 yards. Once healthy in the playoffs, Johnson totaled 13 receptions for 201 yards. Walter led Texans receivers with 39 receptions for 474 yards and three touchdowns, including the game-winning grab in a playoff-clinching win at Cincinnati in December. Jacoby Jones caught 31 passes for 512 yards (16.5 average) and two scores.

Houston's receivers put up big numbers for the NFL's third-ranked offense in 2010. Despite injury, Johnson led the team and ranked sixth in the NFL with 86 receptions for 1,216 yards and eight touchdowns to earn another Pro Bowl selection. Walter had his fourth-straight 50-catch, 600-yard season under Kirksey, with 51 receptions for 621 yards. Jones set career highs with 51 receptions for 562 yards.

The receiving corps was a team strength in 2009 as the Texans led the NFL in passing at 290.9 yards per game. In addition to Johnson, Walter caught 53 passes for 611 yards while Jones emerged as a big-play threat, averaging a touchdown every 4.5 receptions. David Anderson turned in a career year with 38 receptions for 370 yards.

In 2008, Johnson led the NFL with career-highs of 115 receptions and 1,575 yards. The franchise's all-time leading receiver earned Associated Press first-team All-Pro honors and started for the AFC in the Pro Bowl. Johnson teamed with Walter for the most prolific receiving tandem in the League, combining for 2,474 receiving yards. Walter's 899 yards were a career high, and he shared the team lead with Johnson with eight touchdown receptions.

In his first year with the Texans, Kirksey oversaw a group that had three players top 700 receiving yards, making Houston one of just four teams to achieve that feat. Johnson missed seven games due to injury, but Walter and André Davis stepped up to fill the void. Walter set career highs with 65 receptions, 800 yards and four touchdowns. He led the team in receptions and was second in receiving yards. Davis emerged as one of the best deep threats in the NFL, averaging nearly 18 yards per catch. Despite playing in just nine games, Johnson once again led the team with 851 receiving yards and eight touchdowns.

Prior to joining the Texans, Kirksey helped lead Middle Tennessee State to the 2006 Sun Belt Conference title and a Motor City Bowl berth as the assistant head coach and running backs coach for the Blue Raiders in 2005. He was a volunteer coach for the Denver Broncos in 2004.

Kirksey spent 2003 as the wide receivers coach with the Jacksonville Jaguars, where Smith led the team with 54 receptions despite missing four games. From 2001-02, Kirksey coached wide receivers for the Detroit Lions. In 2001, Johnnie Morton finished 12th in the NFL with 1,154 receiving yards and the Lions finished sixth in the league with 224.8 passing yards per game.

A Kentucky native, Kirksey served as assistant head coach and was in charge of the wide receivers at Texas A&M in 2000. That year, he helped lead the Aggies to a berth in the Independence Bowl while injecting hints of the West Coast offense.

In 1994, Kirksey began his NFL career coaching the NFL's all-time reception and receiving yards leader, Rice. Under Kirksey, Rice set an NFL record with 1,848 receiving yards and had a career-high 122 receptions in 1995. From 1994-99, Rice caught 606 passes for 6,666 yards. Kirksey's receivers helped set a Super Bowl record in Super Bowl XXIX with six touchdown catches, including three by Rice.

From 1990-93, Kirksey coached running backs for Alabama, where he helped lead the Crimson Tide to a national championship in 1992. Kirksey's running backs led the SEC with 252 rushing yards per game. He coached running backs at the University of Florida under Charlie Pell and Galen Hall from 1984-88. During his tenure at Florida, he coached star running backs Lorenzo Hampton, Neal Anderson, John L. Williams and Emmitt Smith. After leaving Florida, Kirksey spent one year as running backs coach at Pittsburgh. Prior to joining the Gators, Kirksey gained valuable experience by taking over head coaching duties at Kentucky State in 1983.

Kirksey got his start in coaching as the wide receivers/tight ends coach at Miami (Ohio) in 1974, and remained there for three seasons before joining the staff at Kentucky. He also coached wide receivers and tight ends for the Wildcats from 1977-81, then spent the 1982 campaign coaching the same positions at Kansas.

Kirksey earned a bachelor's degree from Eastern Kentucky in 1974, where he was a four-year letterman and three-year starter at wide receiver. As a senior, he earned all-conference honors. He was out of coaching in 2005 while serving as deputy executive director of the Kentucky Sports Authority.

He and wife Anita have two children, Jessica and Jared.

BOB LIGASHESKY

ASSISTANT SPECIAL TEAMS
FIRST SEASON WITH TEXANS/10TH NFL SEASON

Bob Ligashesky joined the Texans coaching staff as special teams assistant in March of 2013. He is in his 10th NFL season and has an additional 19 years coaching experience in the collegiate ranks.

Ligashesky served as the special teams coordinator for Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2012. The Buccaneers led the NFL with four blocked punts under Ligashesky's guidance.

Prior to his tenure in Tampa Bay, Ligashesky coached the Denver Broncos tight ends in 2010 before moving on to Oakland as a special teams assistant. From 2007-09, Ligashesky served as the Pittsburgh Steelers special teams coach.

Ligashesky's units led the NFL in kickoff return average allowed and ranked fourth in the league in punt return average allowed on the way to helping Pittsburgh win the Super Bowl in 2008. In 2009, Pittsburgh ranked eighth in the NFL in kickoff return average.

Ligashesky has also had marked success with his kickers at every stop he has made in the professional ranks. In Oakland, Sebastian Janikowski ranked fifth in the NFL by converting 88.6 percent of his field goal attempts for a total of 31, the sixth-highest total in the league. During Ligashesky's three-year tenure in Pittsburgh, Steelers kicker Jeff Reed converted 88.5 percent (77-87) of his field goal attempts, which led the NFL over that span. In Reed's six other NFL seasons, he converted 79.1 percent (136-172) of his attempts.

He began his NFL career as Jacksonville's assistant special teams coach in 2004 before moving on to serve as special teams coach in St. Louis from 2005-06. In

BOB LIGASHESKY

St. Louis, Ligashesky tutored Jeff Wilkins, who made 59 field goals in two seasons for the second-highest total in the NFL during that span.

In 2004, Ligashesky helped rookie kicker Josh Scobee make 24 field goals, which ranked eighth in the NFL that season. Scobee also finished seventh in the league with 11 touchbacks. That year, the Jaguars ranked 10th in punt return average and punt average, and eighth in punts inside the 20-yard line.

Ligashesky, a Pittsburgh native, graduated from Indiana University of Pennsylvania, where he was a defensive back. He also served as a graduate assistant at Wake Forest (1985) and Arizona State (1986-88) and coached at Kent State (1989-90), Bowling Green (1991-99) and Pittsburgh (2000-03) before entering the NFL.

MARC LUBICK

ASSISTANT WIDE RECEIVERS
FOURTH SEASON WITH TEXANS/SIXTH NFL SEASON

Marc Lubick is in his fourth season with the Houston Texans and second as assistant wide receivers coach. Lubick joined the Texans as an offensive assistant on Feb. 11, 2010 and was promoted to his current position on Feb. 14, 2012.

Houston's wide receivers group featured a mix of young and old in Lubick's first season working with the unit. Tenth-year veterans Andre Johnson and Kevin Walter were joined by rookies Keshawn Martin and DeVier Posey, and Lestar Jean, all of whom had zero regular season experience amongst them when the season started.

Johnson recorded the best season of his career, earning his sixth Pro Bowl trip and Associated Press second-team All-Pro honors after catching 112 passes and leading the AFC with 1,598 yards receiving to go along with four touchdowns. It marked the second time in NFL history a player recorded more than 100 receptions and 1,500 yards in his 10th season or later. Walter added 518 yards and two touchdowns on 41 receptions. The Texans' young receivers improved as the season went on and combined for 22 receptions for 323 yards and two scores.

The Texans offense set a franchise record for total offense in 2010, as well as franchise rushing records in 2010 and 2011 in Lubick's first two years on staff. The 2011 Texans set franchise records with 2,448 rushing yards (153.0 per game) and 546 rushing attempts to rank second in the NFL; and excelled in the postseason, averaging 159.5 rushing yards per game in helping the Texans reach the Divisional round of the playoffs. In 2010, Houston set franchise records with 390 points scored, 6,186 total yards of offense (386.6 per game) and 2,042 yards rushing (127.6 yards per game).

Lubick, 35, has 12 seasons of coaching experience, including eight seasons at Colorado State, where he served as the tight ends coach and recruiting coordinator from 2008-09 prior to joining the Texans. He was named to Rams head coach Steve Fairchild's staff on Dec. 12, 2007 after coaching CSU's wide receivers from 2005-07. During that time, he coached former Texans wide receiver David Anderson, a seventh-round draft pick in 2006, along with 2007 NFL free agent signee Dustin Osborn.

A former college safety, Lubick launched his coaching career in 2000 as a defensive student assistant at CSU. During the 2002 season, Lubick was an academic graduate assistant coach at CSU, working with the team's wide receivers.

Lubick then worked in the NFL with Fairchild on Mike Martz's St. Louis Rams staff as a scouting assistant for two seasons (2003-04) before returning to CSU in the spring of 2005.

A defensive back at Montana State from 1996-99, Lubick earned academic all-conference honors three times.

Lubick's father, Sonny, is considered the most successful head football coach in CSU history, and in addition to working at Miami (Fla.), also served as an assistant at Stanford, Colorado State and Montana State. He was also the head coach at Montana State from 1978-81. Marc's brother, Matt, is the wide receivers coach and recruiting coordinator/pass game coordinator at Oregon.

In 2006, Marc began a difficult but successful yearlong battle with a rare form of cancer, fighting through months of chemotherapy and inspiring his family, players and fellow coaches.

A 2001 graduate of Colorado State, he has a bachelor's degree in health and exercise science.

BRIAN PARIANI

TIGHT ENDS

EIGHTH SEASON WITH TEXANS/23RD NFL SEASON

Brian Pariani is in his eighth season with the Houston Texans as the tight ends coach. Pariani is responsible for one of the more utilized units in the Texans' offensive scheme. Under Pariani's guidance, Owen Daniels has established himself as one of the best tight ends in the NFL, earning trips to two Pro Bowls.

Pariani's group, which included former H-back James Casey, combined to catch 124 passes for 1,309 yards and 12 touchdowns, more than half the touchdown receptions for the team. It also marked the most receptions ever by a Texans tight ends unit. Daniels led the Texans with a career-high six touchdown receptions and ranked second on the team with 62 receptions with 716 yards on the way to being named to the Pro Bowl for the first time since 2008. Graham set career highs with 28 receptions for 263 and three scores. Casey also set career highs with 34 receptions for 330 yards and three touchdowns. The trio also helped the Texans eclipse 2,000 yards rushing for the third consecutive season and lead the NFL in time of possession for the second year in a row.

The Texans relied on their tight ends in 2011 more than any other year in franchise history. Pariani's unit, which included Daniels, Joel Dreessen, Graham and Casey, caught a combined 101 passes for 1,314 yards and 10 touchdowns. The group also blocked for the NFL's second-ranked run game and set a franchise record 153.0 rushing yards per game. Daniels stepped up to lead the team with 54 receptions for 677 yards and three touchdowns. Dreessen caught 28 passes for 353 yards and a team-best and career-high six touchdowns. Casey set career highs with 18 receptions for 260 yards and a touchdown.

Houston's tight end trio of Daniels, Dreessen and Casey combined to make 82 receptions for 1,087 yards and six touchdowns in 2010, marking the most yards in a season by Texans tight ends in franchise history at the time.

In addition to pass-receiving production, Houston's tight ends also blocked for NFL rushing champion Arian Foster's 1,616 yards on the ground in 2010. It marked the second time during Pariani's tenure the Texans have had a 1,000-yard rusher. Dreessen set career highs with 36 receptions for 518 yards, a 14.4 average per catch and had four touchdown receptions. Daniels, who fought through a residual hamstring injury suffered during rehabilitation from his 2009 knee injury, posted 38 receptions for 471 yards and two touchdowns. Casey had eight receptions for 98 yards.

Daniels earned his first Pro Bowl trip in 2008 while under Pariani's watch and was on pace for a second all-star nod in 2009 before his season was cut short by injury. Daniels caught 40 passes for 519 yards and five touchdowns before going down with a season-ending knee injury in the eighth game of the year.

Despite the loss of Daniels, the tight end position remained a vital cog in the League's top-ranked passing attack. Dreessen put together a career year, catching 26 passes for 320 yards and a touchdown.

BRIAN PARIANI

In 2008, Daniels caught 70 passes for 862 yards, both career highs, and two touchdowns. He ranked among the top five AFC tight ends in receptions, receiving yards, first downs (46), yards per catch (12.3) and yards per game (53.9). In addition to Daniels' stellar year, Dreessen caught 11 passes for 77 yards on the season.

In 2007, Pariani's tight ends had what was then the third-most productive year in team history, combining to catch 73 passes for 859 yards and six touchdowns. They were led by Daniels, who was sixth among NFL tight ends with 63 receptions for 768 yards and three touchdowns. Nearly 70 percent of Daniels' receptions (44-of-63) went for first downs, which ranked fourth in the League among tight ends. Dreessen caught four passes for 55 yards and the first two touchdowns of his career.

In his first season with Houston, Pariani developed Daniels, a fourth-round draft choice, into the most productive rookie tight end in the NFL and a first-team PFWA/PFW all-rookie selection. Daniels set the Texans rookie record with five receiving touchdowns, which matched wide receiver Andre Johnson for the team lead. Daniels finished his first year with 34 catches for 352 yards and five touchdowns, all of which were first among rookie tight ends.

The move to Houston returned Pariani to the pro coaching ranks after spending the 2005 season as the offensive coordinator at Syracuse University. He spent 1995-04 coaching tight ends with the Denver Broncos alongside Texans head coach Gary Kubiak. Before his time with the Broncos, Pariani coached with the San Francisco 49ers from 1991-94. Pariani teamed with Kubiak to bring the 49ers a Super Bowl championship in 1994.

Having coached with the Broncos in Super Bowl XXXII and XXXIII and with the San Francisco 49ers in Super Bowl XXIX, Pariani is one of only eight coaches in the NFL to have won World Championships with teams from both conferences.

While with the Broncos, Pariani coached Shannon Sharpe, the second-leading receiving tight end in NFL history and 2011 Pro Football Hall of Fame inductee. Sharpe led the NFL in receptions by a tight end from 1996-98 averaging 73 catches over the three-year span. Sharpe totaled 425 receptions for 5,373 yards and 38 touchdowns with Pariani. Sharpe retired in 2004, finishing his career with eight Pro Bowl selections. He retired as the NFL career record holder among tight ends with 815 receptions, 10,060 yards and 62 touchdowns. On Oct. 20, 2002, Sharpe set an NFL record with 214 receiving yards by a tight end in a 37-34 overtime win at Kansas City.

From 1995-2004, Pariani's tight ends combined for 859 receptions and 9,948 receiving yards, the most in the NFL during that 10-year period. In 2001, Pariani's unit combined to catch 100 passes, sending tight end Dwayne Carswell to his first Pro Bowl.

On the ground, Pariani's group helped lead the way for Denver runners to rush for 22,483 yards, most in the NFL from 1995-04. Denver running backs topped the 1,000-yard mark nine times during Pariani's tenure in the Mile High City.

In 1990, Pariani served as a scouting assistant with the San Francisco 49ers before being promoted to offensive coaches assistant in 1991. The 49ers' offense led the NFL in total yards in 1992 and '93, and scored a team-record 505 points and 62 touchdowns in 1994 en route to a Super Bowl title. After earning his bachelor's degree in political science from UCLA in 1989, Pariani began his career as a graduate assistant at his alma mater under Terry Donahue.

Pariani was born in San Francisco and was a three-sport athlete at Marin Catholic High School in Kentfield, Calif. Pariani and his wife, Stephanie, have two daughters, Jessica and Gianna. The family resides in Houston.

JIM RYAN

ASSISTANT OFFENSIVE LINE
THIRD SEASON WITH TEXANS/EIGHTH NFL SEASON

Jim Ryan is in his third year with the Houston Texans and second as the assistant offensive line coach. He was promoted to his current position in March 2012 after joining the Texans as an offensive assistant prior to the 2011 season.

Ryan has assisted with an offensive line that has helped the Texans lead the NFL in time of possession in both of the last two seasons and produced four Pro Bowl appearances. The offensive line also has led the way for consecutive 2,000-yard rushing performances and a pair of AFC South crowns for the Texans since Ryan assumed his current position.

Houston ranked fourth in the AFC with 28 sacks allowed and set a franchise record with a League-best 32:53 time of possession in 2012. Overall, Houston's offense averaged 372.1 yards per game to rank seventh in the NFL. Running back Arian Foster led the NFL with 17 total touchdowns and 15 rushing touchdowns and churned out 1,424 rushing yards behind the Pro Bowl play of left tackle Duane Brown, left guard Wade Smith and center Chris Myers. Brown became the first offensive lineman in Texans history to earn Associated Press All-Pro First Team recognition.

The Texans set franchise records with 2,448 rushing yards (153.0 per game) and 546 rushing attempts to rank second in the NFL in 2011. The run game excelled in the postseason, averaging 159.5 rushing yards per game in helping the Texans reach the Divisional round in Ryan's first year on staff. Houston also led the NFL in time of possession (32:41) and set a franchise record for fewest interceptions thrown with nine.

Ryan played 10 seasons and coached for six more in the professional ranks prior to joining the Texans. He spent the 2010 season as the special teams coordinator with the Omaha Nighthawks of the UFL and also worked with the team's linebackers. He began his NFL coaching career in November 2004 when he joined the Denver Broncos staff as a volunteer defensive assistant. He was hired as a full-time defensive assistant in 2005.

After three years assisting with the Broncos defense, Ryan worked as an offensive assistant in 2007 alongside current Texans offensive coordinator Rick Dennison. He returned to the defensive side of the ball as the linebackers coach in 2008.

Ryan began his coaching career as a volunteer coach in 2001 at Regis Jesuit High School in Colorado. He was head coach at Regis from 2002-04, leading the team to the 5A state playoffs each year.

Ryan enjoyed a 10-year playing career with the Broncos, joining the team as an undrafted free agent out of William & Mary in 1979. From 1979-88, Ryan started 91 games at linebacker in the Broncos' 3-4 system and played in 150 games overall, including Super Bowls XXI and XXII.

Following his playing career, Ryan entered the broadcasting arena and called all University of Colorado football and basketball games for six years as the "Voice of the Buffs." He also served as the president of the Denver Broncos Youth Foundation from 1992-95.

A native of Bellmawr, N.J., Ryan is a member of the Bishop Eustace High School (N.J.) Hall of Fame and the William & Mary Hall of Fame. He earned a bachelor's degree in business management from William & Mary and an MBA in real estate and construction management from the University of Denver while playing for the Broncos.

Ryan and his wife, Sara, have three sons and a daughter-in-law: Ben, an Air Force captain, and his wife, Becca, a lawyer; Jonathan, a project manager; and Sam, a freelance cinematographer and editor.

MATT SCHIOTZ

ASSISTANT STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING
FIFTH SEASON WITH TEXANS/14TH NFL SEASON

Matt Schiotz is in his fifth season as the Texans' assistant strength and conditioning coach and 14th season as a strength and conditioning coach in the NFL.

Schiotz served as the Miami Dolphins head strength and conditioning coach in 2007 prior to joining the Texans staff. He joined the Dolphins after spending the previous five seasons (2002-06) as the assistant strength and conditioning coach with the San Diego Chargers. He also served in that capacity with the Washington Redskins in 2001.

Schiotz got his start in the coaching profession when he served as an intern in the strength room of the Kansas City Chiefs in 1994. From 1995-96, he was a graduate assistant at the University of Kansas. He then spent the 1997 season assisting with the Chiefs' strength program before being named the head strength and conditioning coach at the University of Southern California in 1998, a role in which he served the next three years (1998-00).

A native of Menomonie, Wisc., Schiotz earned his degree in exercise science from the University of Wisconsin-La Crosse in 1994 and his master's degree in exercise physiology and nutrition from the University of Kansas in 1997. Schiotz is a certified strength and conditioning specialist (CSCS) by the national Strength and Conditioning Association (NSCA). He is also certified in the Functional Movement Screen (FMS).

CEDRIC SMITH

HEAD STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COACH
FOURTH SEASON WITH TEXANS/13TH NFL SEASON

Cedric Smith is in his fourth season as the Texans head strength and conditioning coach and his 13th season overall as an NFL coach. The former NFL fullback has implemented a vigorous off-season program that not only puts an emphasis on strength training and cardiovascular endurance, but also focuses on enhancing speed and flexibility. Smith also supervises the club's personalized in-season training regimen.

Smith's strength and conditioning program has helped produce the first two playoff appearances in franchise history in 2011 and 2012. Following the 2012 season, Smith was named the NFL Strength and Conditioning Coach of the Year by the NFL Strength and Conditioning Coaches.

Smith was hired as the Texans head strength and conditioning coach following a three-year stint as Kansas City's strength and conditioning coach. He also spent six years as an assistant strength coach with the Denver Broncos (2001-06).

Prior to joining the Broncos, Smith was a fitness manager and consultant with Gold's Gym in Phoenix for two years (1999-00) after concluding a successful seven-year NFL playing career. During his professional playing tenure, Smith enjoyed stints with Arizona (1996-98), Washington (1994-95), New Orleans (1991) and Minnesota (1990). He finished his NFL career with 40 carries for 100 yards (2.5 avg.) with two touchdowns and 20 receptions for 141 yards (7.1 avg.) with two scores. He also had five kickoff returns for 83 yards (16.6 avg.). He originally entered the NFL as the second of Minnesota's two fifth-round selections (131st overall) in the 1990 NFL Draft. Smith appeared in 15 games for the Vikings as a rookie, opening holes for running back Herschel Walker.

Smith enjoyed his finest NFL campaign in 1994 with Washington. He played in 14 games (eight starts), rushing 10 times for 48 yards (4.8 avg.) and catching 15 passes for 118 yards (7.9 avg.).

Prior to entering the NFL, Smith was a three-year starter at fullback at the University of Florida, where he paved the way for running back Emmitt Smith, the NFL's all-time leading rusher. Cedric Smith finished his collegiate career with 20 starts, carrying the ball 102 times for 300 yards (2.9 avg.) with four touchdowns and catching 11 passes for 77 yards (7.0 avg.). He was a three-time Academic All-Southeastern Conference selection.

Before enrolling at Florida, Smith was named All-Alabama as a fullback at Enterprise High School in Enterprise, Ala. Smith graduated from the University of Florida with a degree in Health Sciences in 1990. He is married to his wife, Teresa, and has five children: Chandler, Canyon, Cole, Cameron and Cerraya.

JEFF ZGONINA

ASSISTANT DEFENSIVE LINE
FIRST SEASON WITH TEXANS/FIRST NFL SEASON

Jeff Zgonina is in his first season as an NFL coach and is Houston's assistant defensive line coach. Zgonina played 17 years in the NFL for seven teams, including the final 48 games of his career for the Texans from 2007 until his retirement following the 2009 season.

Zgonina works closely with assistant head coach/defensive line Bill Kollar, who was his position coach at Purdue in 1989, and with Atlanta (1996), St. Louis (2001-02) and Houston (2009).

A former Big Ten Defensive Player of the Year at Purdue, Zgonina was selected in the seventh round of the 1993 NFL Draft by the Pittsburgh Steelers. He recorded 26 career sacks and 13 fumble recoveries in 219 career games for Pittsburgh (1993-94), Carolina (1995), Atlanta (1996), St. Louis (1997, 1999-02), Indianapolis (1998), Miami (2003-06) and Houston. Zgonina also played in nine career postseason games and helped the Rams win Super Bowl XXXIV.

Zgonina and his wife, Cammie, have a daughter, Bailey, and a son, Carter. The family resides in Sugar Land.

FOOTBALL OPERATIONS

BRIAN GARDNER
DIRECTOR OF PRO PERSONNEL

Brian Gardner is in his seventh season with the Texans as the Director of Pro Personnel. His primary responsibilities include managing the pro personnel department, coordinating the recruiting and signing of NFL free agents, organizing player tryouts and monitoring NFL transactions. Gardner also manages the evaluation of talent in other professional football leagues, including the Canadian Football League, the United Football League, and the Arena Football League.

Gardner arrived in Houston after spending the previous two seasons with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers as a national scout. He began his NFL career with the Buccaneers as a scout in 1992 and spent three seasons in Tampa Bay before serving the next 10 seasons as an area and national scout with the San Francisco 49ers from 1995-05.

Gardner served as a defensive coordinator and director of player personnel with the New Orleans Night of the Arena Football League in 1991-92. He also served as director of player personnel and receivers coach for the Washington Marauders of the Professional Spring Football League in the fall of 1991.

Gardner played three seasons in the AFL with New England (1988), Pittsburgh (1989) and Albany (N.Y.) (1990). He also spent time in the CFL with the Saskatchewan Rough Riders (1989) and with the Barcelona Dragons (1991) in the World League of American Football. In college, he played at Nicholls State (1982) and Prairie View A&M (1983-86).

Gardner was a member of the NFL Stanford Program for Managers at Stanford University in June 2006. He is a native of New Orleans and is married to the former Alice Vanessa James. The pair are the proud parents of sons, Royal and Tyler.

BOBBY GRIER
SENIOR PERSONNEL ADVISOR

Bobby Grier is in his second season as senior personnel advisor after serving as Houston's associate director of pro personnel since May 2000. He is one of a handful of people to work for the Texans from the very start of the franchise. Grier previously held the title of vice president/player personnel for the New England Patriots.

Grier spent 18 years as a player personnel executive and coach with the Patriots, serving in his vice president role for more than four years. In that capacity, he was responsible for overseeing all aspects of New England's pro and college scouting departments, player evaluations, free agency, and the annual NFL Draft. From 1995 until he joined the Texans, Grier served as New England's director of player personnel.

From 1985-92, Grier was New England's running backs coach, working under three different head coaches (Raymond Berry, Rod Rust and Dick MacPherson). The 1985 squad captured the franchise's first AFC championship before losing to the Chicago Bears in Super Bowl XX. That season, Grier's backs gained 2,331 rushing yards, including 1,227 by Houston native Craig James. Grier was a college scout for New England from 1982-84. His first NFL position came in New England in 1981 when he was the running backs coach under Ron Erhardt.

Grier spent 1978-80 as running backs coach at Boston College under Ed Chlebek, helping the team improve from 0-11 to 7-4. Grier's initial college coaching post came at Eastern Michigan, where he coached the running backs for George Mans and then Chlebek from 1974-77. From 1970-73, Grier was the head coach at Detroit's Martin Luther King High School. Grier's first coaching assignment came as an assistant at Kettering (Mich.) High School from 1966-69.

Grier is a native of Detroit. He holds a bachelor's of science degree in physical education from Iowa, where he was a three-year starter at running back as well as a two-time honorable mention All-Big Ten selection. As a senior, Grier led the Hawkeyes in rushing. Grier has two sons, both of whom are involved in professional sports. His oldest son, Chris, is the director of college scouting for the Miami Dolphins and his son, Michael, played 15 seasons in the NHL for Edmonton, Washington, Buffalo and San Jose. Bobby Grier resides in Houston.

MIKE MACCAGNAN
DIRECTOR OF COLLEGE SCOUTING

Mike Maccagnan coordinates all of the Texans' college scouting efforts as the director of college scouting. In addition to evaluating college prospects, he also is involved with evaluating NFL teams and prospects in preparation for NFL free agency.

One of the Texans' first hires, Maccagnan initially joined the club as a pro scout in January 2000 before being promoted to coordinator of college scouting in April 2000. In June 2010, he was promoted to assistant director of college scouting before being elevated to his current position in July 2011.

Before arriving in Houston, Maccagnan spent the previous six years as a scout for the Washington Redskins. He served as a college scout (1994) for the Redskins before becoming a pro scout in 1995, although he continued to evaluate college prospects in preparation for the NFL draft.

Prior to joining Washington, Maccagnan worked for the Canadian Football League's Ottawa Rough Riders as the club's director of scouting and director of player personnel. In 1994, he was the director of scouting and player personnel for the CFL's Saskatchewan Roughriders. He also was the director of player personnel for the World League's London Monarchs when that franchise captured the league championship in 1991. In 1990, Maccagnan worked in the World League office in Dallas as a league scout. Maccagnan was a member of the NFL Stanford Program for managers in June, 2005.

A native of Hightstown, N.J., Maccagnan holds a bachelor's degree in economics from Trinity (Conn.) College. After graduating from Trinity, Maccagnan served as an intern in the scouting department for the Washington Redskins during training camp in 1990.

Mike and his wife, Betty, live in Houston.

KEVIN MURPHY
PRO SCOUT

Kevin Murphy is in his eighth season with the Texans and sixth as a pro scout. In addition to advance scouting of Texans opponents, Murphy is responsible for evaluating players from teams around the NFL and the Canadian Football League. He began his career with the Texans as a pro scouting intern during the 2006 season.

Murphy earned four letters as a long snapper at Fresno State from 1999-02 and earned a degree in recreation administration in May 2003.

Following his collegiate career, Murphy coached tight ends and special teams at Western New Mexico in 2003. He spent 2004-05 as a graduate assistant at Mississippi State and earned a master's degree in sports administration in May 2006.

Murphy, a San Diego native, is single and resides in Houston.

LARRY WRIGHT
PRO SCOUT

Larry Wright Jr. is in his third season with the Texans and is responsible for evaluating players on NFL rosters, street free agents, as well as players in the Arena Football League, Canadian Football League, and United Football League. He also works on advance scouting of Texans opponents.

From 2007-09, Larry was an assistant director of pro personnel with the Jacksonville Jaguars after serving as a pro scout with the team from 2004-07. He began his NFL career as a scouting assistant with Jacksonville in 2003. Wright spent 2009 coaching running backs at West Monroe High in West Monroe, La.

Wright was the head coach at Ringgold (La.) High School from 2001-02, and in 2000 was a graduate assistant at Grambling State University, where he coached running backs while earning his master's degree in sport administration. In the summer of 2000, he was a scouting intern with the Baltimore Ravens and a volunteer strength and conditioning coach for the Grambling basketball team.

Wright earned a degree in sociology at Louisiana Tech, where he was a three-year letterman and team captain in his senior season. He and his wife, Vincincia, have two daughters and one son, Victoria, Lauryn, and Larry III.

JON CARR
NATIONAL SCOUT

Carr is in his seventh season with the Texans as a college scout and second as a National Scout. Prior to joining the Texans, Carr coached wide receivers at the University of Toledo from 2005-06 and helped the Rockets win the 2005 GMAC Bowl.

Prior to joining Toledo's staff, Carr was offensive coordinator at Eastern Illinois from 2003-04. He began his collegiate coaching career at Tennessee State in 1997, working with tight ends, wide receivers and quarterbacks, and was promoted to offensive coordinator in 2000. In 2001, Carr's offense ranked third in I-AA (NCAA FCS) passing (302 yards per game), sixth in total offense (465 yards per game) and 14th in scoring (35.4 points per game). He also participated in the 2006 NCAA Expert Coach's Academy in Miami and the NFL-Stanford Program for Managers at the Stanford Graduate School of Business in 2012.

During the summer of 2002, Carr was a member of the Oakland Raiders' preseason coaching staff as part of the NFL's Minority Internship Program. He has also worked with the National Football League Properties as the Program Coordinator for Chicago and Detroit summer youth inner-city football camps.

Carr was a quarterback at Southeast Missouri State from 1987-89 before he transferred to Purdue, where he earned a degree in law and society in 1991.

Carr has one son, Corbyn, and he and his wife, Shenikwa, are parents of two girls, Kennedy and Kayla.

ED LAMBERT
NATIONAL SCOUT

Ed Lambert is in his seventh season with the Texans as a national scout. Lambert is a 29-year veteran of the college and professional coaching ranks who spent five years as a college scout with the Denver Broncos before joining the Texans in 2007.

Lambert coached 10 seasons at Vanderbilt, including the 1997 season as offensive coordinator. He coached quarterbacks and running backs at Baylor, helping lead the Bears to the 1991 Copper Bowl. In addition, Lambert coached at the University of New Mexico, Iowa State, California, Howard University and Boise State University. In his final season at Boise State, the Broncos won the NCAA Division I-AA national championship.

Lambert coached running backs for two seasons in the USFL with the Los Angeles Express and has had NFL coaching fellowships in training camp with the Philadelphia Eagles, Atlanta Falcons and Seattle Seahawks.

Lambert was born in Beaumont, Texas. He earned his bachelor's degree in physical education from San Jose State University in 1972.

He and his wife, Jeanette, have two sons, Michael and Lamar, as well as a daughter, Charisse. Lambert also has five grandchildren: Kalen, Ajayia, Turon, Mikayla and Saniya.

BOB BEERS
COLLEGE SCOUT

Bob Beers re-joined the Houston Texans scouting staff in June 2012 following a two-year stint as the offensive line coach at the University of Montana, his alma mater. From 2007-10, Beers served as the Texans' western regional scout and reassumed those duties when he re-joined the organization. He is in his fifth season with the Texans.

Prior to his first tenure with the Texans, Beers was a college scout for the Detroit Lions from 2003-06 and spent eight years as a college scout with the Denver Broncos from 1995-02, helping the franchise win two World Championships.

Beers has coached in the high school, college and professional ranks for the better part of the last four decades. In addition to coaching the offensive line at Montana from 2009-10, he served as head coach for the Colorado Crush of the Arena Football League in 2003. He was the offensive coordinator for the then-World League (NFL Europe) Amsterdam Admirals, helping them to a 9-1 regular season record and World Bowl appearance in 1995.

Beers was named conference coach of the year after claiming a pair of conference titles in his two seasons as head coach and athletic director at Western Montana College (1993-94). He got his first taste of the professional coaching ranks from 1991-93 as the offensive coordinator for the Frankfurt Galaxy of the World League under head coach Jack Elway.

Beers was Montana's assistant head coach working with the offensive line from 1986-90. He coached in the prep ranks from 1977-85 in Montana and Oregon and took his first collegiate coaching job at Montana in 1970. Beers then moved on to Montana Tech, where he served as the defensive coordinator from 1972-73.

As a linebacker at Montana, Beers earned All-American honors and graduated in 1970 with a degree in history and health, physical education. Beers was the inaugural recipient of UM's Golden Helmet Award (team's hardest hitter) in 1967. In October 2009, he and his teammates from UM's undefeated teams of 1968 and 1969 were inducted into the Grizzly Sports Hall of Fame.

Bob and his wife, Janelle, have three children, son Bobby, and two daughters, Cari, a principal in Eureka, Mont., and Joey, a student at UM. Bobby is the athletic director at Rocky Mountain College in Billings and a former Denver Broncos scout. They have three granddaughters: Milynn, Megan, and Emily.

RYAN CAVANAUGH
COLLEGE SCOUT

Ryan Cavanaugh was hired by the Texans in the spring of 2009 as an area scout and covers the Northeast and Midwest for Houston.

Cavanaugh spent eight seasons with the Indianapolis Colts' scouting department, including six as an area scout. He joined the Colts organization in January 2001 after spending the 2000 mini-camp and training camp in the club's operations department. He graduated from Appalachian State in December 2000 with a bachelor's degree in commercial recreation management.

Cavanaugh was born in Raleigh, N.C. He is married to the former Melissa Anne Searls of Greensboro, N.C., where they reside with their daughters, Mallory Anne (8) and Samantha Lee (6).

ROB KISIEL
COLLEGE SCOUT

Rob Kisiel re-joined the Texans staff in 2012 as a college scout after spending the last five years as the Director of Operations for BLESTO. He previously worked in the Texans personnel department for seven years as a scouting administrator (2000-01), college scout (2002-03) and pro scout (2004-07).

Kisiel was tabbed as BLESTO's director of operations in 2007, replacing legendary scout Jack Butler and helping lead the scouting service's move to Jacksonville, Fla. from Pittsburgh, Pa.

Kisiel first came to the Texans after serving as the draft room coordinator for the Washington Redskins from August 1999 through April 2000. He got his start in the NFL as a training camp intern from 1995-97 with the Redskins before serving as a scouting intern with the team from July 1998 until June 1999. In addition, Kisiel interned for the World League's London Monarchs during the 1997 season and was a labor relations intern at the NFL Management Council in 1999.

Kisiel grew up in Clearwater, Fla. He earned his bachelor's degree in business communications from Florida State, where he served as a student assistant for head coach Bobby Bowden in the football office for four years.

MIKE MARTIN
COLLEGE SCOUT

Mike Martin scouts the Southeast region for the Texans. He was hired by the Texans in the spring of 2007 as a college scout after spending the previous four seasons with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers personnel department.

Martin joined the Buccaneers as a pro personnel assistant in 2003 before moving to pro scouting in 2004. He spent his last two seasons in Tampa Bay as the national combine scout. Martin started his career in the NFL as an intern with the Tennessee Titans in 2002.

Martin was a four-year letterman at Vanderbilt University (1999-2002), playing defensive back and on special teams. He was also a finalist for the 2003 Male SEC Scholar-Athlete of the Year. Martin graduated cum laude from Vanderbilt in 2002 with a bachelor's of science in human and organizational developmental studies. He also earned his master's degree in organizational leadership in 2003.

He and wife, Cari, reside in Atlanta, Ga. with their son, Maddon, and daughter, Malone.

BOB MERRITT
COLLEGE SCOUT

Bob Merritt joined the Texans as a college scout in the spring of 2007 and is in his seventh season with the team and 11th season overall in the NFL. Merritt scouts the Midwest region for the Texans.

Prior to joining the Texans, Merritt spent four seasons with the Detroit Lions, beginning as an intern in 2003 and advancing to a scouting assistant in 2004 and the Lions' BLESTO scout in the 2005 season.

Merritt, from Temperance, Mich., played outside linebacker at Adrian College, where he graduated with a bachelor's degree in criminal justice in December 1993. He served in the Air Force from February 1994 until April 1996.

Merritt was a graduate assistant football coach at the University of Toledo in 1998 while earning a master's degree in liberal studies education. Between 1999 and 2003, Merritt coached at the University of Findlay, Bedford High School, New Jersey City University, and Tiffin University.

Bob and his wife, Kavita, reside in Kingwood, Texas.

NATHAN TROTT
COLLEGE SCOUT

Nathan Trott is in his seventh year with the Texans and fifth as a college scout, covering the Southwest region and cross-checking the West Coast. Trott previously served as the pro scouting intern for the Texans during the 2007 and 2008 seasons.

Trott grew up around the game with his father, Bob Trott, being a long-time coach in both the NFL and college. Nathan served as an intern with the Cleveland Browns during the summers of 2005 and 2006, assisting in youth development, the equipment room and coaching.

Trott played football for Elon University as a cornerback from 2003-07, where he earned his degree in sports management.

He is single and resides in Scottsdale, Ariz.

MOZIQUE McCURTIS
PLAYER PERSONNEL SCOUT

Mozique McCurtis joins the Houston Texans staff as a player personnel scout in 2012. McCurtis served as a pro scouting intern for the Texans from 2010-11. He is responsible for evaluating players on NFL rosters, free agents and collegiate prospects across the country.

Prior to joining the Texans in 2010, McCurtis was a pro scouting intern for the Seattle Seahawks.

McCurtis was a three-year letterman as a defensive back at the University of Southern California, where he helped the team win three conference titles and two Rose Bowl titles while playing for current Seattle Seahawks head coach Pete Carroll. He graduated from USC in 2008 with a degree in history.

McCurtis, a San Diego native, resides in Houston.

GEOFF KAPLAN

DIRECTOR OF SPORTS MEDICINE/HEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER

Geoff Kaplan is in his fifth season as the Houston Texans director of sports medicine/head athletic trainer after spending the previous 14 seasons with the Tennessee Titans/Houston Oilers as an assistant athletic trainer. The 2013 season marks Kaplan's 21st in the NFL.

Kaplan joined the Houston Oilers full-time in 1995 after serving as a season-long intern in 1994. Prior to joining the Oilers, Kaplan was a season-long intern with the Green Bay Packers in 1993.

A native of Parsippany, N.J., Kaplan earned his degree in physical therapy and a certificate in athletic training from the University of Wisconsin-Madison. He continued his education by becoming a certified strength and conditioning specialist in 1997, and completed his master's degree from Tennessee State University in the summer of 2003.

In 2005, Kaplan was certified as a clinical specialist in sports physical therapy by the American Board of Physical Therapy Specialists. Kaplan frequently lectures on a variety of sports medicine topics, including the rehabilitation of athletic injuries to local and national organizations, hospitals and universities.

Following the 2000 season, Kaplan was part of a Titans training staff that was named the NFL Training Staff of the Year by the Ed Block Foundation and the Professional Athletic Trainers Society.

Kaplan has continued to advance his education, becoming certified in Graston soft tissue mobilization (2009) and functionalized dry needling (2013).

Geoff and his wife, Shelly, have two sons; Everett and Sawyer. They reside in Missouri City, Texas.

ROLAND RAMIREZ

COORDINATOR OF REHABILITATION/ ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

Roland Ramirez is in his sixth season as the Coordinator of Rehabilitation/Assistant Athletic Trainer with the Texans. He held the same position with the Atlanta Falcons during the 2007 season, and served as a contract athletic trainer for the Tennessee Titans during the 2005 and 2006 seasons. Ramirez also served as an assistant athletic trainer for the Nashville Kats Arena Football team (AFL) during the 2006 season.

Prior to entering the ranks of the NFL, Ramirez worked as a physical therapist in an orthopedic and sports medicine clinic while completing his graduate work in athletic training. He earned a dual masters degree in physical therapy and athletic training from the Texas Tech University Health Sciences Center in 2004 and 2005, respectively. Ramirez completed his undergraduate work at Texas Tech University, where he played football from 1998-99.

As a graduate student, Ramirez served as an athletic trainer for the baseball teams at Wayland Baptist University and Lubbock Christian University. He also worked with the Texas Tech University football team during the 2004 season, and served as an intern strength and conditioning coach prior to the 2004 season.

He is board certified as a clinical specialist in sports physical therapy by the American Board of Physical Therapy Specialists. He also holds a certification as a strength and conditioning specialist and is a member of the NATA, APTA, NSCA, and PFATS.

Ramirez and his wife, Misty, live in Missouri City, Texas with their two children, Kade and Tessa.

A.J. VAN VALKENBURGH
ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

A.J. Van Valkenburgh was named assistant athletic trainer on May 1, 2012 and is in his fourth season with the Texans. Van Valkenburgh served the 2010 and 2011 seasons as an athletic training intern.

Prior to joining the Texans in May 2010, Van Valkenburgh built up a wealth of experience in a variety of roles, including eight years as a combat medic for the Texas Army National Guard from 1998-2006. Van Valkenburgh gained his first NFL experience in 2009 with the New England Patriots as training camp intern while he was a graduate student at Stephen F. Austin State University. From 2008-10, Van Valkenburgh was a graduate student athletic trainer at SFA and worked for the U.S. Regional Physical Therapy Clinic, where he served as a clinical outreach athletic trainer for Lufkin-area high school and junior college sporting events.

Van Valkenburgh was the head athletic trainer at Carthage High School and Panola College in Carthage, Texas from 2006-08. He worked as a student athletic trainer at Sam Houston State University in Huntsville, Texas from 2002-04 and spent the summer of 2004 and 2005 as an athletic training intern at the University of San Diego.

Van Valkenburgh earned a master's degree in athletic training from SFA in 2010 and earned a bachelor's degree in kinesiology from Sam Houston State in December 2004. He holds certifications from the National Athletic Trainers Board of Certification, the Texas Advisory Board of Athletic Trainers as a licensed athletic trainer and the National Academy of Sports Medicine as a Performance Enhancement Specialist. Van Valkenburgh holds several certifications: as a Level I functional movement specialist, Y-Balance certified, First-Aid/CPR/AED certified by the American Heart Association, Graston Level I certified and is also certified as a kinesiotape practitioner. He is a member of the National Athletic Trainers Association, the Southwest Athletic Trainers Association, the Texas State Athletic Trainers Association and the National Academy of Sports Medicine.

Van Valkenburgh and his wife, Coy, live in Pearland, Texas with their 6-year old son, Kannon, and newborn daughter, Reece Adysin.

JOE MALOTA
DIRECTOR OF VIDEO OPERATIONS

Joe Malota is in his sixth season as director of video operations and oversees all videotaping, editing and production for the Texans, breaking down practice and game tape for the coaching staff.

Malota is in his 12th overall season with the Texans, joining the club in February 2002 as the assistant video director. He was promoted to his current position in March 2008. Prior to his tenure with the Texans, Malota spent the previous five seasons as the video director for the New Orleans Saints.

Malota broke into the NFL as the assistant video director for the Houston Oilers in 1989. He spent eight seasons with the Oilers before the club moved to Nashville.

Malota attended Southwest Texas State University. He and his wife, Jen, have a daughter, Molly, and a son, Max. The family lives in Cypress.

TIM BROG
ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF VIDEO OPERATIONS

Tim Brog is in his sixth season with the Houston Texans and third as the team's assistant director of video operations. He began his tenure with the Texans in July 2008 and was hired as a video operations assistant in June 2009 before assuming his current position in August 2011.

Prior to joining the Texans, Brog was the video coordinator for the Grand Rapids Rampage of the Arena Football League in his home state of Michigan during the 2008 season.

Brog is a graduate of Grand Valley State University, where he earned his bachelor's degree in broadcasting in 2008. While a student, Brog worked at WOOD-TV 8 in Grand Rapids, Mich. in the sports department, filming high school and college athletic events.

Brog is from Middleville, Mich. and graduated from Thornapple-Kellogg High School. He is single and resides in Houston.

GRESHAM OLIVER
VIDEO OPERATIONS ASSISTANT

Gresham Oliver is in his second season as a video operations assistant with the Houston Texans. He joined the Texans staff as a video operations intern prior to the 2011 season.

Prior to joining the Texans, Oliver was the video director for the Sacramento Mountain Lions of the UFL for the 2010 season. Oliver broke into the NFL with the Oakland Raiders as a training camp intern with the video department in 2004 and 2005 before earning a season-long internship with the team in 2006. He was promoted to video operations assistant following the 2006 season and worked with the Raiders until March 2009. He then went on to work for the Minnesota Vikings during the 2009 season.

Oliver earned a bachelor's degree in sports and recreation management in 2005 from Northwest Nazarene University in Nampa, Idaho, where he played baseball and ran track.

The Kenai, Alaska native graduated from Kenai Central High School, is single and resides in Houston.

JAY BRUNETTI
DIRECTOR OF EQUIPMENT SERVICES

Jay Brunetti has served as the Houston Texans director of equipment services since 2001 and is in his 39th NFL season in 2013. Brunetti's responsibilities include purchasing, managing the upkeep and repair of all player and coaches equipment and overseeing the transportation of equipment to away games.

Brunetti came to Houston from Washington, where he spent the previous 26 years with the Redskins. He joined the Redskins' organization on a part-time basis in 1975, when he was in junior high school. He then became a full-time assistant in 1979 before becoming the youngest equipment manager in the NFL in 1981 at the age of 19. Coach Joe Gibbs' teams advanced to four Super Bowls and won three World Championships with Brunetti heading the equipment staff. His distinguished career includes working with 14 members of the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

Brunetti and his wife, Linda, have two sons, Jimmy and Drew, and a daughter, Tori. The family lives in Houston.

MIKE PARSON
EQUIPMENT SERVICES ASSISTANT

Mike Parson is in his sixth season as equipment assistant for the Texans. Parson joined the Texans equipment staff in 2008 after several internships with the New Orleans Saints and five years of experience at the collegiate level.

Parson worked minicamps and training camps for the Saints in 2001-02 and worked the full season with the team in 2005. That year, the staff overcame extraordinary challenges in the forced evacuation from New Orleans due to Hurricane Katrina. After departing New Orleans, the club's base of operation moved three times, including a last stop at a high school baseball stadium in San Antonio. The staff was awarded the Whitey Zimmerman Memorial Award, given annually to the NFL equipment staff that exceeds the usual demands of the position with excellent service.

Parson was the equipment manager for four years at the University of New Orleans, where he oversaw the equipment operations for the entire athletic department. He was also equipment manager for Benedict College during the 2003 season.

Parson, a 2003 graduate of Mississippi State University with a bachelor's degree in physical education, was born in Vicksburg, Miss. and now resides in Houston.

CHRISTIAN SNELL

Christian Snell is in his ninth season in the Texans equipment department after spending two years as the equipment intern for the New York Jets.

In addition to his work with the Jets, Snell served as the assistant equipment manager for the Hamburg Sea Devils of NFL Europe in the spring of 2005.

Snell was the head football student manager for the Iowa Hawkeyes during his undergraduate days in Iowa City. He earned a bachelor's degree in journalism and mass communications from Iowa with a minor in sports studies.

Originally from Nora Springs, Iowa, Snell is single and lives in Houston.

DOUG WEST
DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL OPERATIONS

Doug West is in his 18th season in the NFL and his seventh with the Texans. West, who was named director of football operations in September 2010, oversees team travel, training camp and game day operations, which include all aspects dealing directly on the field with the game, Texans and the visiting team.

On game day, West is responsible for overseeing the sideline communication equipment as well as instant replay equipment. He serves as the team liaison with the NFL, the officials and the visiting team; he also handles catering in all Texan areas.

West oversees the team practice facility and Texans areas in Reliant Stadium, including scheduling, cleaning and maintenance. He is responsible for maintaining the day-to-day football operations budget as well as planning for future large expenditures and projects.

West joined the Texans as football operations manager in August 2007, overseeing team travel planning and lodging throughout the year. Prior to joining the Texans, West worked with Reebok as an NFL glove and footwear specialist, beginning in 2004. From 1993-03, West was the head equipment manager for the Denver Broncos, where he worked with several current Texans staff members, including head coach Gary Kubiak and general manager Rick Smith.

West was the head equipment manager from 1988-90 at the University of Northern Colorado before taking on the same role for the Birmingham Fire of the World League of American Football from 1991-92 under head coach Chan Gailey.

West earned a bachelor's degree in social sciences from Colorado State in 1988, where he was a student worker for the football team for four years. He has three sons, Gunnar, Griffin and Graham, and a stepdaughter, Grace. He and his wife, Stacy, reside in Houston.

SEAN WASHINGTON
DIRECTOR OF PLAYER ENGAGEMENT

Sean Washington is in his seventh season with the Texans as director of player engagement. Washington is responsible for assisting players and their families with transition in and out of the organization, continuing education, life skills seminars, gaining exposure to business opportunities and career internships. He serves as a key resource for players to minimize their off-the-field distractions and is the central figure in providing support service for players and their families.

Prior to joining the Texans, Washington worked for a decade with high school students, mentoring, teaching and coaching around the Houston area. Washington previously coached at Alief Elsik High School, Angleton High School and was the Texas Sports Development Academy youth camp director.

Washington played defensive back for the New Orleans Saints in 1994 as an undrafted free agent and then played in the World Bowl with the Amsterdam Admirals in 1995.

Washington, a Houston native, attended Waltrip High School and earned his degree in sport management from Rice University in 1994. He was an All-Southwest Conference cornerback from 1991-93 and a member of the Sporting News All-American team in 1993 with the Owls.

He resides in Richmond, Texas with his wife, Eanisha, and his two sons, Lake and Cruz.

GAME 1: Houston 30, Miami 10

71,566 • Reliant Stadium • Houston, Texas • Sept. 9, 2012

GAME SUMMARY

With their defense going on a turnover spree, the Texans scored three touchdowns in the final two minutes of the second quarter to take a 24-3 halftime lead. The game was never in doubt after that as they won 30-10 in front of 71,566 Liberty White-clad fans at Reliant Stadium.

Texans DE J.J. Watt had three pass deflections, two of which led to interceptions, and 1.5 sacks. WR Andre Johnson led the way on offense with eight catches for 119 yards and a touchdown.

QB Matt Schaub was 21-of-30 for 266 yards and a touchdown with a passer rating of 102.4. RB Arian Foster scored two rushing touchdowns.

The Texans trailed 3-0 after the first quarter before their defense forced a turnover on four consecutive possessions in the second. Pro Bowl CB Johnathan Joseph got things started by picking off Dolphins rookie QB Ryan Tannehill near midfield, then returning the ball 36 yards to set up a short field goal by Shayne Graham.

On the Dolphins' next series, ILB Brian Cushing picked off Tannehill after a deflection by Watt. The Texans turned that into a 14-yard touchdown run by Foster, which put them up 10-3 with 1:53 remaining in the second quarter.

Watt tipped another pass on Miami's very next play, this time leading to an interception by CB Kareem Jackson deep in Dolphins territory. Foster scored two plays later on a 2-yard run.

One play later, the Dolphins lost a fumble at their own 31-yard line. Texans FS Glover Quin jarred the ball loose from RB Daniel Thomas, and SS Danieal Manning recovered. Schaub connected with Johnson for a 14-yard touchdown pass three plays later to make the score 24-3 with seven seconds remaining in the first half.

The Dolphins' only touchdown came on a 72-yard punt return by RB Marcus Thigpen two minutes into the third quarter. Graham made two field goals in the second half to provide the final margin.

Texans DE Tim Jamison batted down a pass at the line of scrimmage on fourth-and-goal from the 5-yard line with 4:05 remaining. He also ended the Dolphins next -- and final -- possession by sacking Tannehill on fourth down at the Miami 39-yard line.

Texans TE Owen Daniels had four catches for 87 yards. He was one of seven different receivers to catch a pass from Schaub. Cushing led the Texans' defense with seven tackles. Graham was 3-of-4 on field goals, with his lone miss coming on a 52-yard attempt in the first quarter.

GAME 2: Houston 27, Jacksonville 7

62,907 • EverBank Field • Jacksonville, Fla. • Sept. 16, 2012

GAME SUMMARY

The Texans moved to 2-0 after using a familiar formula to beat the Jacksonville Jaguars at EverBank Field.

Relying on a smothering defense and dominant running game, the trademarks of their 2011 playoff season, the Texans pounded their division rivals 27-7 in their first road game of 2012.

The Texans allowed just 117 yards, a new team record, as they took advantage of a depleted Jaguars offensive line and made life miserable for QB Blaine Gabbert. Jacksonville was 0-of-9 on third down and had just 43 yards, including -4 passing, in the first half. The Texans ran 83 plays overall and set a team record with 43:17 in time of possession.

DE J.J. Watt had a monster game for the second consecutive week with 1.5 sacks, two passes defensed, a fumble recovery and a team-high nine tackles. Texans running backs Arian Foster and Ben Tate combined for 184 rushing yards and three touchdowns. The Texans ran for 216 total yards and averaged 4.5 yards per carry.

Texans QB Matt Schaub directed an up-tempo, quick-huddle offense for much of the game. It started on the first drive, when Schaub completed five short passes for 42 yards. The Texans gained 66 yards in 13 plays for a 31-yard field goal by Shayne Graham.

The Texans halted Jacksonville's first two drives. WR Trindon Holliday returned a punt 36 yards to the Jaguars' 41-yard line to start Houston's third drive. Four plays later, Tate stiff-armed a would-be tackler and burst up the right sideline for 24 yards to set up Foster's 1-yard touchdown plunge two plays later for a 10-0 lead late in the first quarter.

Watt deflected his second pass of the game on the Jaguars' next drive, then combined with DE Antonio Smith for a drive-ending sack. The Texans took a 17-0 lead midway through the second quarter after Tate plowed up the middle for an 8-yard touchdown run.

With heavy rain coming down near the end of the first half, Brooks Reed sacked Gabbert at the Jacksonville 1-yard line with 2:28 remaining. The Texans went into halftime with a 242-43 advantage in yards.

The weather improved in the second half, but the Texans got worse. They forced a three-and-out on the Jags' first drive but were flagged for an illegal block on their punt return. The Texans' first drive began with a false start, leading to a three-and-out of their own.

An 18-yard punt return gave the Jaguars possession at Houston's 37-yard line. Gabbert completed a 32-yard pass to Laurent Robinson and a 5-yard touchdown pass to Maurice Jones-Drew to close within 17-7.

The Texans responded with a 17-play, 80-yard drive, chewing 9:14 off the clock. Tate kept the drive alive with a cutback run after the catch for a 3-yard gain on third-and-one from the Jacksonville 36. Six plays later, Tate scored on a 2-yard run to push the lead back to 24-7.

Graham made a 37-yard field goal with 7:20 remaining to provide the final margin. Watt recovered a fumble near midfield with 5:09 remaining, and the Texans ran out the remainder of the clock with several runs by Justin Forsett and a couple of kneel-downs by Schaub.

Foster finished the game with 28 carries for 110 yards (3.9 average). Tate had 74 yards on 12 carries (6.2 average). Schaub was 26-of-35 for 195 yards and an 87.2 rating. TE Owen Daniels led the Texans with 47 receiving yards on six catches.

Gabbert was 7-of-19 (37 percent) for 53 yards and a touchdown before leaving in the fourth quarter with a leg injury. He had a passer rating of 62.8.

GAME 3: Houston 31, Denver 25

76,566 • Sports Authority Field at Mile High • Denver, Colo. • Sept. 23, 2012

GAME SUMMARY

QB Matt Schaub threw four touchdown passes in a gritty performance, and the Texans held off a late comeback attempt to escape Sports Authority Field at Mile High with a 31-25 victory against the Denver Broncos.

Schaub got the game ball from Head Coach Gary Kubiak after completing 17-of-30 passes for 290 yards. WR Andre Johnson, WR Kevin Walter, RB Arian Foster and TE Owen Daniels all caught touchdown passes. DE J.J. Watt had 2.5 sacks, 10 tackles and four tackles for loss.

Schaub brushed off two consecutive illegal hits in the third quarter and sat out only one play before returning to the game.

The Texans led 31-11 early in the fourth quarter. They were seemingly cruising to an easy victory until a fumble by Ben Tate gave the Broncos the ball at midfield. DE Kevin Vickerson came in untouched to hit Tate in the backfield and jar the ball loose.

The fumble sparked a late rally by Denver QB Peyton Manning, who was 16-2 against the Texans with the Indianapolis Colts from 2002-10. The four-time NFL MVP threw two touchdown passes in the next seven minutes to make it a one-score game with three minutes remaining.

The Texans ran out all but the final 20 seconds of the remaining game clock thanks to a crucial catch by Johnson on third-and-five with 2:49 remaining. Johnson beat Pro Bowl CB Champ Bailey with an out route for a 12-yard catch near the left sideline, which all but wrapped up the victory.

The Broncos took a 2-0 lead two minutes into the game when DE Elvis Dumervil sacked Schaub for a safety on the Texans' first play. The Texans found themselves in a 5-0 hole with 8:41 left in the first quarter after a 32-yard field goal by Broncos K Matt Prater.

The Texans took the lead on their next possession with a 60-yard touchdown bomb from Schaub to Johnson. On a play-action fake, Johnson beat CB Tracy Porter with a double move and got behind the defense for the score.

Watt and OLB Brooks Reed sacked Manning to end the next drive. The Texans then drove 97 yards in 14 plays to take a 14-5 lead. Rookie WR Keshawn Martin had an 18-yard catch on the drive, and TE Garrett Graham had a 27-yarder. Foster scored on a 3-yard catch on third-and-goal.

Less than two minutes later, Schaub hit Walter over the middle for a 52-yard touchdown pass. It was another play-action fake and another double move, with Porter once again in coverage.

The Broncos put two more field goals on the board before halftime to make the score 21-11. Schaub was picked off in Broncos territory by LB Wesley Woodyard in the final minute of the half to set up Prater's 53-yarder.

Texans K Shayne Graham made a 41-yard field goal early in the third quarter. Later in the quarter, WR Lestar Jean had a career-long 46-yard reception down the left sideline. Daniels caught a 14-yard touchdown pass two plays later to make it 31-11.

The Texans appeared to have the game well in hand until Tate's fumble with 10:28 remaining. Two plays after the turnover, Manning hit WR Brandon Stokley for a 38-yard touchdown pass. The Texans went three-and-out, and the Broncos drove for another touchdown – a 6-yard catch off a deflection by former Texans TE Joel Dreessen – to make the score 31-25.

GAME 4: Houston 38, Tennessee 14

71,581 • Reliant Stadium • Houston, Texas • Sept. 30, 2012

GAME SUMMARY

SS Danieal Manning and CB Kareem Jackson returned interceptions for touchdowns in the second half as the Texans defeated the Tennessee Titans 38-14 at Reliant Stadium to improve to 4-0.

The Texans sacked Titans QBs Jake Locker and Matt Hasselbeck four times. FS Glover Quin knocked Locker out of the game with a sack midway through the first quarter.

Texans QB Matt Schaub was 20-of-28 for 202 yards (71 percent) with a 115.5 passer rating. He threw touchdown passes to FB James Casey and TE Owen Daniels and completed passes to seven different receivers.

The Texans imposed their will on the game's opening possession, driving 77 yards in seven plays and 3:19. Schaub started the drive with passes of 33 and 20 yards to Andre Johnson and finished it with an 11-yard touchdown to Casey over the middle.

On the Titans' second possession, Quin came off the right edge untouched on a safety blitz on third down and leveled Locker for an 8-yard loss. It was a clean hit, but Locker suffered a left shoulder injury and did not return. That forced the 37-year-old Hasselbeck into action.

The Texans went up 14-0 on a 4-yard touchdown run by Arian Foster with 0:17 remaining in the first quarter. Hasselbeck made it 14-7 with a 19-yard touchdown pass to TE Craig Stevens with 7:52 left in the first half.

Momentum was tilting the Titans' way until Manning turned the game with a pick-six early in the third quarter. Hasselbeck threw a pass deep to the left for TE Taylor Thompson, who batted the ball into the air with his left hand.

Manning intercepted it at the Houston 45-yard line. CB Johnathan Joseph flat-backed WR Nate Washington as Manning reversed the field to his left, springing Manning a clear path to the end zone.

The Texans went ahead 28-7 on their next drive with a 28-yard touchdown catch by Daniels. On third-and-five, Daniels caught a pass at the 22-yard line and shook a tackle attempt from LB Akeem Ayers. He brushed off S Jordan Babineaux at the 10 and CB Alterraun Verner, who was being blocked downfield by rookie WR Keshawn Martin, at the goal line.

The Texans used their "muddle huddle" on the drive to move 75 yards in seven plays and 2:37. They used it on both of their first two drives of second half to kick-start their offense.

Eight minutes into the fourth quarter, DE Antonio Smith sacked Hasselbeck and forced a fumble at the Titans' 24-yard line. DE J.J. Watt recovered the fumble and returned it to the 17. K Shayne Graham made a 33-yard field goal to put the Texans up 31-17.

Five plays later, Jackson jumped a slant route on a short pass to the left intended for Damian Williams. He raced 63 yards the other way for a touchdown for a 38-7 lead with 4:08 remaining.

Hasselbeck threw an 11-yard touchdown pass to WR Kendall Wright with 1:01 remaining against the Texans' second-string defense.

The Texans allowed 158 rushing yards, but 101 of them were in the second half. RB Chris Johnson had 141 rushing yards on 25 carries (5.6 average). Foster was limited to 86 yards on 24 carries (3.6 average) and Ben Tate to 11 yards on five carries (2.2 average).

The Texans were penalized only one time for three yards, the fewest penalty yards in a game in team history.

GAME 5: Houston 23, New York Jets 17

79,088 • MetLife Stadium • East Rutherford, N.J. • Oct. 8, 2012

GAME SUMMARY

RB Arian Foster had 29 carries for 152 yards and a touchdown as the Texans defeated the New York Jets 23-17 at MetLife Stadium on Monday Night Football. DE J.J. Watt had nine tackles, one sack and three passes defensed to help the Texans overcome the loss of ILB Brian Cushing to a season-ending knee injury early in the second quarter.

The Texans outrushed the Jets 169-69 and controlled the ball for 35:16. They were 6-of-13 (40 percent) on third down but just 1-of-3 in the red zone, twice settling for short field goals by K Shayne Graham.

On defense, the Texans had two sacks and two interceptions on Jets QB Mark Sanchez. Backup Tim Tebow played sparingly, throwing one pass and running five times for 19 yards.

After losing 38-0 to the San Francisco 49ers in Week 4, the Jets pulled out all the stops as they looked to avoid falling to 2-3. Tebow ran for a first down on a fake punt on the first play of the second quarter on fourth-and-one from New York's 24-yard line. The Jets unsuccessfully tried a surprise onside kick midway through the third quarter.

The Texans led 17-7 at halftime. QB Matt Schaub threw a 34-yard touchdown pass in the first quarter to TE Owen Daniels, who was wide open off a play-action fake. Foster ran for a 13-yard touchdown early in the second quarter, one series after he broke loose for a season-long 46-yard run.

Schaub was picked off by CB Antonio Cromartie with 5:54 remaining in the first quarter, trying to throw to WR Andre Johnson over the middle in double coverage. That gave the Jets a short field and led to a 27-yard touchdown catch by TE Jeff Cumberland.

The Jets threatened to tie the game at 14 late in the second quarter, driving to the Texans' 12-yard line with 29 seconds remaining. Watt tipped a Sanchez pass at the line of scrimmage, and CB Brice McCain intercepted it and returned the ball 86 yards to the Jets' 9-yard line. That set up Graham for a 27-yard field goal on the final play of the half.

Graham added a 42-yard field goal in the third quarter to give the Texans a 20-7 lead. The Jets responded with a 100-yard kickoff return for a touchdown by RB Joe McKnight. The Texans and Jets then traded short field goals to make the score 23-17 with 11:55 remaining in the fourth quarter.

Watt made another key play with 7:04 remaining, sacking Sanchez for a 5-yard loss on third-and-10 from the Houston 35. That knocked the Jets out of field goal range and forced them to punt. The Texans ran three minutes off the clock before punting back to the Jets with 3:28 left to play.

CB Kareem Jackson helped preserve the Texans' victory with a late interception of Sanchez near midfield at the two-minute warning. The Jets had one more chance from their 9-yard line with 0:04 remaining, but Watt tipped Sanchez's pass at the line of scrimmage to end the game.

GAME 6: Green Bay 42, Houston 24

71,702 • Reliant Stadium • Houston, Texas • Oct. 14, 2012

GAME SUMMARY

The Texans had the national spotlight with Sunday Night Football at Reliant Stadium in Week 6. Unfortunately, it turned into a highlight reel for Green Bay Packers QB Aaron Rodgers.

Rodgers threw six touchdown passes, as many as Houston had allowed all season in its first five games. The Packers won 42-24, handing the Texans their first loss in lopsided fashion in front of an announced crowd of 71,702 at Reliant Stadium, the largest regular-season crowd in team history.

Rodgers, the reigning NFL MVP, went 24-of-37 for 338 yards, six touchdowns and no interceptions with a 133.8 passer rating. He threw two touchdowns in the first quarter, one in the second, one in the third and two in the fourth. Three of them were caught by WR Jordy Nelson, who had a game-high 121 receiving yards on nine catches.

The Texans allowed 40 points in a game for the first time since Week 3 of last season at New Orleans. It was the most points they have allowed since a 43-24 loss to the Indianapolis Colts in Week 2 of the 2006 season. They allowed season highs in yards (426) and passing yards (328) to Green Bay.

Texans QB Matt Schaub threw two interceptions and was sacked three times, matching his season totals in both categories. He lost for the first time in his last 10 starts dating back to last season.

The Texans' struggles in the running game continued. RB Arian Foster scored two rushing touchdowns but had only 29 rushing yards on 17 carries (1.7 average).

The Texans trailed 14-0 after the first quarter, 21-10 at halftime and 28-17 after the third quarter. It was the first time they trailed after any of the first three quarters all season.

Twice, the Texans committed special teams penalties that extended Packers drives and led to touchdowns. Rookie WR DeVier Posey lined up offsides on a punt in the first quarter, giving the Packers a first down. On the next play, Rodgers threw a 41-yard touchdown pass to Nelson past CB Johnathan Joseph to make the score 7-0.

On the first series of the third quarter, OLB Connor Barwin was penalized for unsportsmanlike conduct for leaping as he tried to block a 39-yard field goal by Mason Crosby. That gave the Packers a first down at the Texans' 11-yard line. Then, after an 11-yard pass on third-and-14, FS Danieal Manning was flagged for unnecessary roughness to set up the Packers in first-and-goal. Rodgers threw a 1-yard touchdown pass to Nelson two plays later, making the score 28-10.

The Packers led 14-0 after a diving 6-yard touchdown catch by James Jones in the final minute of the first quarter. Foster scored on a 1-yard run in the second quarter to cap a nine-play, 80-yard scoring drive.

It was 21-7 after Nelson caught a 21-yard touchdown past CB Alan Ball midway through the second quarter. Texans K Shayne Graham made a 51-yard field goal with 2:15 left in the first half.

Foster scored on another 1-yard touchdown run in the third quarter to make the score 28-17. Packers WR Randall Cobb returned the ensuing kickoff 46 yards, and Green Bay scored three plays later on a 48-yard touchdown catch by TE Tom Crabtree, who was wide open after Rodgers rolled out to his right.

Schaub was picked off at the Houston 27-yard line two plays later. Jones made a juggling, one-handed 18-yard touchdown catch past CB Kareem Jackson with 12:22 remaining.

The Texans scored with 5:35 left to play on a blocked punt by OLB Bryan Braman that Posey recovered in the end zone. The Packers and Texans put in their backup quarterbacks after that for the game's final five minutes.

GAME 7: Houston 43, Baltimore 13

71,708 • Reliant Stadium • Houston, Texas • Oct. 21, 2012

GAME SUMMARY

Houston and Baltimore were tied atop the conference at 5-1 heading into the game, but a banner day by the Texans' defense sparked a 43-13 blowout victory at Reliant Stadium. The Texans set a franchise record for points in a game and had their second-biggest margin of victory ever.

Defensive Coordinator Wade Phillips' defense scored a touchdown and a safety and had four sacks, two interceptions and 11 passes defensed, including five by defensive linemen and linebackers. The Texans allowed 176 yards to a Ravens offense that was averaging 385 a game.

The Texans gained 420 yards and had the ball for 38:16, including 20:53 in a 29-3 first half. They did not turn the ball over for the fourth time this season.

The Texans fell behind 3-0 early on a 51-yard field goal by Ravens K Justin Tucker. They got off to a sluggish start offensively with only one first down and 25 yards on their first three series.

OLB Connor Barwin got Houston on the scoreboard by sacking Joe Flacco for a safety with 4:49 remaining in the first quarter. It was Barwin's first sack of the season and came one play after rookie OLB Whitney Mercilus dropped Flacco for the first sack of his career.

Barwin's big play ignited a 29-0 Texans run to close out the first half. WR Kevin Walter caught a 25-yard touchdown pass from QB Matt Schaub on the ensuing series to make it 9-3 at the end of the first quarter. CB Johnathan Joseph returned an interception 52 yards for a touchdown on the first play of the second quarter on a pass tipped by DE J.J. Watt.

With the score 16-3, Texans TE Garrett Graham made a sensational one-handed catch for a 20-yard gain, leaping in the air to tip the ball to himself with his right hand. Had Graham not made the play, Ravens S Ed Reed looked primed for an interception that could have drastically changed the course of the game.

Instead, Graham's catch led to a 1-yard touchdown reception by TE Owen Daniels with 5:58 left in the second quarter. Shayne Graham made field goals of 33 and 29 yards to put the Texans ahead 29-3 at halftime.

Flacco's passer rating at halftime was 4.2. The Ravens had just 84 yards and four first downs in the half. After their first drive, they went three-and-out on four of their next six possessions. The other two ended in Barwin's safety and Joseph's interception. Flacco also was picked off by SS Glover Quin, who made a one-handed catch on a pass tipped by Mercilus in the second quarter.

Texans RB Arian Foster had two rushing touchdowns in the second half. The Ravens scored their only touchdown on a 15-yard touchdown catch by WR Tandon Doss early in the third quarter but never got closer than 19 points.

DE Antonio Smith had sacks on back-to-back plays in the fourth quarter, pushing the Ravens back from the 19-yard line to the 36. They settled for a 54-yard field goal.

OLB Bryan Braman recovered a surprise onside kick, and the Texans drove 44 yards on six plays – all handoffs to Foster and Ben Tate – for Foster's second touchdown, the final score of the game.

GAME 8: Houston 21, Buffalo 9

71,698 • Reliant Stadium • Houston, Texas • Nov. 4, 2012

GAME SUMMARY

A turnover-free offense and swarming defense helped the Texans overcome seven penalties and a blocked field goal to beat the Buffalo Bills 21-9 at Reliant Stadium. Houston moved to 7-1, the best start in franchise history, and remained atop the AFC standings.

The Texans never trailed the Bills, but the game was close throughout. Houston led 7-0 after the first quarter, 7-6 at halftime and 14-9 after three quarters.

Texans RB Arian Foster notched his 20th career 100-yard game, rushing for 111 yards and a touchdown on 24 carries. WR Andre Johnson had his 40th career 100-yard game, with 118 yards on eight catches. TEs Owen Daniels and Garrett Graham both caught touchdown passes from QB Matt Schaub, who went 19-of-27 for 268 yards and two touchdowns (126.8 rating).

The Texans' defense did not allow a touchdown for the second time this season. DE J.J. Watt and OLBs Connor Barwin and Whitney Mercilus all sacked Bills QB Ryan Fitzpatrick, who was sacked only eight times all season coming into the game. Watt also had five quarterback hits, while Barwin had four. The Texans forced the Bills into three-and-outs on four of 11 possessions.

The Bills came into the game ranking third in the league with 150 rushing yards per game. The Texans limited them to 78 rushing yards, including 39 for C.J. Spiller and 21 for Fred Jackson. The Bills got into the red zone three times but came away with field goal attempts on each one.

The Texans got on the scoreboard with a 39-yard touchdown pass from Schaub to Daniels in the final minute of the first quarter. Daniels was wide open on the right side, and Schaub hit him in stride deep down the field for the score.

K Rian Lindell missed a 37-yard field goal attempt wide right on the Bills' first possession. Texans K Shayne Graham had a 46-yard attempt blocked by Bills DT Alex Carrington midway through the second quarter. Former Texan Mario Williams sacked Schaub to set the Texans up for the field goal attempt.

The Bills made two short field goals in the final two minutes of the first half. The second came after Watt sacked Fitzpatrick for a 6-yard loss to force the second field goal just before halftime, making it 7-6 at the break.

The Texans' defense forced a three-and-out to start the third quarter. Rookie WR Keshawn Martin had a 26-yard punt return, his longest of the season. Three plays later, Schaub hit Johnson for a 34-yard pass down the right sideline. Foster scored two plays later on a 3-yard touchdown run, his 10th of the season.

The Bills drove 56 yards in eight plays on the ensuing possession, ending up with a 39-yard field goal. The score was 14-9 until Schaub threw a five-yard touchdown pass to TE Garrett Graham on third and goal four minutes into the fourth quarter. That capped an 11-play, 68-yard drive.

The Texans then forced another three-and-out. Schaub led them on an 11-play, 60-yard drive that used up 5:48 of game clock. The drive ended in a turnover on downs after Kubiak decided to go for it on fourth-and-six from the Buffalo 30-yard line. Schaub went deep for Johnson to the end zone, but the pass was incomplete.

Buffalo got the ball back with 4:31 remaining and drove into Texans territory, but their progress was thwarted by Mercilus, who forced a fumble after Fitzpatrick scrambled for four yards. FS Quintin Demps recovered at the Texans' 32-yard line with 3:12 remaining.

The Bills got the ball one last time with 1:06 remaining. Four plays later, the game ended with Fitzpatrick getting sacked by Mercilus near midfield.

GAME 9: Houston 13, Chicago 6

62,410 • Soldier Field • Chicago, Ill. • Nov. 11, 2012

GAME SUMMARY

In a matchup of 7-1 teams, the Texans forced four turnovers and committed two of their own – all in the first half – against the Chicago Bears. Both teams had less than 250 yards of offense on a rainy, windy night at Soldier Field, but the Texans did just enough to emerge with a 13-6 victory.

Texans SS Danieal Manning had an interception and forced fumble in his return to Chicago, where he spent the first five seasons of his career. FS Glover Quin forced another fumble and CB Kareem Jackson had an interception. The Bears' defense had forced an NFL-best 28 turnovers heading into the game.

The Texans had a season-low 215 yards of offense. QB Matt Schaub threw for a season-low 95 yards and season-high two interceptions. RB Arian Foster scored the game's only touchdown on a 2-yard catch in the second quarter. Foster ran for 102 yards on 29 carries and had five catches for 15 yards, accounting for more than half of the Texans' offensive yardage.

The Texans knocked Bears QB Jay Cutler out of the game with a concussion in the second quarter. He went 7-of-14 for 40 yards, two interceptions and a 16.7 passer rating in the first half. Jason Campbell played the second half and was 11-of-19 for 94 yards.

Manning forced a fumble on the Bears' first play from scrimmage. Bears TE Kellen Davis gained 6 yards on a catch over the middle before Manning hit him with a jarring tackle, popping the ball loose. It was recovered by LB Tim Dobbins and returned 28 yards to the Chicago 28-yard line. The Texans wound up with a 20-yard field goal by K Shayne Graham.

The next four possessions ended with turnovers. First, Quin fored a fumble at the Houston 32-yard line after Bears RB Michael Bush ran for 11 yards up the middle on fourth-and-one. ILB Bradie James recovered at the 27-yard line.

Schaub was picked off by Bears CB Tim Jennings six plays later on a pass intended for rookie WR Keshawn Martin, who appeared to slip on the play. The Bears drove to the Houston 30-yard line, but Manning got the ball back for the Texans with an interception at the 6-yard line on a deep pass intended for Brandon Marshall.

Four plays later, Schaub was picked off by Jennings again, this time on a pass that sailed over Andre Johnson. The Bears converted the turnover into three points with a 51-yard field goal by Robbie Gould with 12:57 remaining in the second quarter.

Midway through the second quarter, the Texans put together a seven-play, 66-yard scoring drive, capped by Foster's touchdown catch. The score was set up by a 21-yard run by Foster and a 25-yard run by Justin Forsett that got the Texans into the red zone.

Cutler was picked off by Jackson at the Texans' 27-yard line with 1:23 remaining in the first half, securing a 10-3 halftime lead for the Texans.

The Texans had only 54 yards of offense in the second half. They didn't pick up a first down until the final minute of the third quarter on a 23-yard pass from Schaub to Kevin Walter. That came two plays after the Bears made it 10-6 with a 24-yard field goal.

The Bears almost made it a one-point game early in the fourth quarter, but Gould missed a 48-yard field goal off the left upright. The Texans then handed off to Foster five times for 17 yards, and Schaub hit TE Garrett Graham for an 11-yard catch to set up Shayne Graham for a 42-yard field goal that put the Texans up 13-6.

GAME 10: Houston 43, Jacksonville 37 (OT)

71,676 • Reliant Stadium • Houston, Texas • Nov. 18, 2012

GAME SUMMARY

The Texans beat the Jacksonville Jaguars 43-37 in overtime at Reliant Stadium in a back-and-forth shootout with their AFC South rival.

Trailing 34-20 in the fourth quarter, the Texans scored two touchdowns in the final 5:39 of regulation to tie the game 34-34. Both teams scored field goals on their first possession of overtime. The Texans scored the final points on a 48-yard touchdown catch by WR Andre Johnson with 2:01 remaining in overtime. Johnson set franchise records with 14 catches for 273 yards on the day. He had the ninth-most receiving yards in a game in NFL history and the most since Terrell Owens' 283 for the San Francisco 49ers in 2000.

Texans QB Matt Schaub threw for 527 yards, tying Hall of Famer Warren Moon for the second-most in a game in NFL history. Schaub had five touchdown passes and was 43-of-55 with two interceptions and a 121.7 passer rating.

Schaub topped his own team record of 497 passing yards set in 2010 at Washington, also an overtime game. He also set the franchise single-game record for completions and had 17 consecutive completions from the fourth quarter to the beginning of overtime.

Jaguars QB Blaine Gabbert was knocked out of the game on the Jaguars' first possession on a sack from FS Danieal Manning that forced a fumble recovered by ILB Tim Dobbins. Jaguars backup QB Chad Henne came in and threw for 354 yards and four touchdowns (126.8 rating) on 16-of-33 passing. Jaguars rookie WR Justin Blackmon had 236 yards and a touchdown on seven catches, marking the first time in NFL history two receivers had 200 yards in a single game.

Texans TE Garrett Graham caught two touchdown passes, both in the fourth quarter. Rookie WR Keshawn Martin and FB James Casey also had touchdown catches in the first half.

The game was tied 7-7 at the end of the first quarter and 17-17 at halftime. The Texans trailed 27-20 entering the fourth quarter.

GAME 11: Houston 34, Detroit 31 (OT)

64,827 • Ford Field • Detroit, Mich. • Nov. 22, 2012

GAME SUMMARY

Less than 96 hours after beating the Jacksonville Jaguars in overtime at Reliant Stadium, the Texans outlasted the Detroit Lions in a Thanksgiving Day thriller at Ford Field. K Shayne Graham made a 32-yard field goal with 2:25 remaining in overtime to win the game 34-31. The Texans became the first team in NFL history to win two overtime games in five days.

Both teams turned the ball over once and missed field goals in overtime after the game had gone to sudden death. Graham missed wide left from 51 yards with 9:43 remaining in the extra period. Lions K Jason Hanson was no good off the right upright from 47 yards with 4:35 remaining. Two minutes later, Graham rebounded with the fifth game-winner of his career.

Texans WR Andre Johnson had nine catches for 188 yards, outdueling Detroit's Calvin Johnson, who had eight catches for 140. DE J.J. Watt had three sacks and two passes defensed. Two of his sacks came on third down on back-to-back drives in the fourth quarter, both times knocking the Lions out of field goal range.

The Texans sent the game to overtime with a 15-play, 97-yard scoring drive in the closing minutes. Matt Schaub connected with Johnson four times for 64 yards on the drive before Arian Foster finished it off with a 1-yard touchdown run, tying the game at 31 with 1:55 remaining.

It was the second consecutive game in which the Texans scored a touchdown in the final two minutes to force overtime.

RB Justin Forsett scored on a controversial 81-yard touchdown in the third quarter that brought the Texans within 24-21. Forsett's knee and elbow hit the ground after an 8-yard gain, but the whistle never blew and he kept running all the way to the end zone. Because Lions head coach Jim Schwartz illegally challenged the play, it was not reviewable and the points remained on the board.

Playing without Pro Bowl CB Johnathan Joseph who was inactive with a hamstring injury, the Texans trailed 21-14 at halftime. Calvin Johnson had 103 receiving yards and Detroit QB Matthew Stafford had 246 passing yards in the first half, with touchdown passes to Johnson and WR Mike Thomas. Foster and TE Owen Daniels scored in the first half for the Texans. The Lions scored two rushing touchdowns in the game, the first two allowed by the Texans all season.

For the second-straight game, the Texans' defense struggled early but stepped up in crunch time. They allowed just 10 points on nine possessions after halftime. The Lions crossed midfield on each of their final six drives and came away with zero points.

On the first play of overtime, Stafford completed a 40-yard pass to Ryan Broyles to the Houston 40-yard line. The Lions then gained eight yards on a catch by TE Brandon Pettigrew, which would have put Hanson comfortably in field goal range, but SS Danieal Manning pried the ball loose for a fumble that was recovered by ILB Darryl Sharpton.

Graham missed his 51-yard attempt on the next drive, giving the Lions the ball at their own 41-yard line. Stafford completed a 14-yard pass to TE Tony Scheffler two plays later to the Houston 45, but the Texans did not allow another yard from there before forcing a punt.

Five plays later, Schaub was picked off at the Houston 43 by CB Chris Houston, who returned the ball to the 41. Scheffler caught a 14-yard pass to the 28. From there, NT Earl Mitchell tackled RB Joique Bell after a gain of two. Rookie OLB Whitney Mercilus tackled Bell for a 3-yard loss, pushing Hanson's field goal to a 47-yard attempt.

Hanson's miss kept the Texans alive, and they won the game six plays later. Schaub completed passes of 15 yards to FB James Casey, 23 yards to Johnson and 11 yards to Casey, to set up Graham for his game-winning field goal.

GAME 12: Houston 24, Tennessee 10

69,143 • LP Field • Nashville, Tenn. • Dec. 2, 2012

GAME SUMMARY

The Texans beat the Tennessee Titans 24-10 at LP Field in Nashville, improving to 11-1 and clinching a playoff berth for the second consecutive season.

The Texans' defense was battered by injuries but led the way with a franchise-record six turnovers and a season-high six sacks. They did so without three injured cornerbacks and two starting linebackers.

DE J.J. Watt had one sack, one forced fumble and two passes defensed, one of which was intercepted. FS Glover Quin and ILBs Tim Dobbins and Darryl Sharpton all had interceptions. Dobbins, DE Antonio Smith and rookie OLB Whitney Mercilus all recovered fumbles. Mercilus also had two sacks in his first-career start.

Texans WR Lestar Jean opened up the scoring with a 54-yard touchdown catch in the first quarter on the Texans' first drive. The Titans answered with a 37-yard field goal by Rob Bironas to make the score 7-3.

The Texans went up 14-3 late in the first quarter on a 5-yard touchdown catch by FB James Casey. One play earlier, they converted on fourth-and-one from the 11-yard line with a 6-yard run by Arian Foster. They led 21-3 at halftime after an interception by Dobbins deep in Titans territory set up Foster for a 2-yard touchdown run.

K Shayne Graham nailed a 50-yard field goal in the third quarter to make it 24-3. The Titans made it 24-10 late in the third quarter on a 34-yard touchdown catch by Kenny Britt from QB Jake Locker, but they would get no closer than that. The Texans forced a turnover on downs on back-to-back series in the fourth quarter before Sharpton picked off Locker with about two minutes remaining to ice the game.

Locker finished the game with a 49.2 passer rating. He was 21-of-45 for 309 yards with three interceptions and one touchdown. Texans QB Matt Schaub, who won for the 15th time in his last 16 starts, was 21-of-35 for 207 yards and two touchdowns. He was not sacked or intercepted. RB Justin Forsett led the Texans with 64 rushing yards on 14 carries (4.6 average).

The Texans lost CB Brice McCain to a foot injury in the first half. Because Johnathan Joseph was already out with a hamstring injury, that left the Texans with three healthy cornerbacks in Kareem Jackson and second-year players Brandon Harris and Roc Carmichael. The Texans also used a rotation of Sharpton, Dobbins and Barrett Ruud at inside linebacker with starter Bradie James out with an injury.

LT Duane Brown left the game with an apparent knee injury in the first half but returned after three plays. TE Garrett Graham left the game in the first half with a concussion.

GAME 13: New England 42, Houston 14

68,756 • Gillette Stadium • Foxborough, Mass. • Dec. 10, 2012

GAME SUMMARY

The Texans lost 42-14 to the New England Patriots on Monday Night Football at Gillette Stadium.

It was a lopsided affair from the get-go, with the Patriots scoring on each of their first three possessions on touchdown passes by Tom Brady to take a 21-0 lead. The Texans trailed 14-0 after the first quarter, 21-0 at halftime and 28-7 after the third quarter.

Brady went 21-of-35 for 296 yards and four touchdowns with no interceptions (125.4 rating). The Texans sacked him one time. Texans QB Matt Schaub was 19-of-32 for 232 yards with no touchdowns and an interception (68.8 rating). He was sacked twice. Both quarterbacks were replaced by their backups midway through the fourth quarter with the game well in hand.

The Texans were penalized seven times for 70 yards. Two of their defensive penalties came on third down in the first half, extending Patriots drives and leading to touchdowns. On offense, the Texans got into Patriots territory five times and into the red zone only twice on 13 possessions.

WR Lestar Jean dropped an over-the-shoulder pass on third down on the Texans' first drive. Brady drove the Patriots drove into Texans territory and threw an incomplete pass on third-and-six from the 34-yard line, but CB Brandon Harris was flagged for holding to extend the drive. Two plays later, RB Stevan Ridley fumbled at the 4-yard-line. CB Kareem Jackson was first to the ball but couldn't obtain possession, and the Patriots recovered at their own 7. Brady hit TE Aaron Hernandez for a touchdown pass on the very next play.

On the Texans' next drive, Schaub was picked off in the end zone by Devin McCourty on second-and-eight from the New England 21. The Patriots then drove 82 yards in six plays for a 37-yard touchdown catch by Brandon Lloyd.

After a three-and-out by the Texans, SS Danieal Manning was flagged for pass interference on third down on the Patriots' next drive. Instead of having to punt, the Patriots scored three plays later on a 4-yard touchdown catch by Hernandez.

Down 21-0, the Texans drove into Patriots territory twice in the second quarter but turned the ball over on downs both times.

Five minutes into the third quarter, the Patriots went up 28-0 with a 63-yard touchdown pass from Brady to WR Donte Stallworth. Stallworth beat Harris on the play on third-and-10.

The Texans got on the scoreboard with a 1-yard touchdown run by Arian Foster with 6:12 remaining in the third quarter, making the score 28-7. That capped a seven-play, 88-yard scoring drive that was keyed by a 23-yard run by Ben Tate and 30-yard catch by James Casey.

The Patriots went up 35-7 with 14:15 remaining on a play that summed up the Texans' night. RB Danny Woodhead picked up 16 yards on a short pass to the right. DE J.J. Watt chased him down at the 10-yard line and forced a fumble. The ball popped forward and bounced into the end zone, and Lloyd recovered it for a touchdown to essentially ice the game.

Ridley scored on a 14-yard touchdown run on third down with 7:28 remaining. Texans S Shiloh Keo picked off Ryan Mallett at the New England 31-yard line with 3:01 remaining to set up a 1-yard touchdown run by Texans QB T.J. Yates.

GAME 14: Houston 29, Indianapolis 17

71,702 • Reliant Stadium • Houston, Texas • Dec. 15, 2012

GAME SUMMARY

The Texans clinched their second consecutive AFC South title with a 29-17 victory against the Indianapolis Colts at Reliant Stadium.

DE J.J. Watt had three sacks, six tackles for loss, 13 tackles and one forced fumble. WR Andre Johnson had 11 catches for 151 yards and a touchdown, RB Arian Foster had 27 carries for 165 yards and OLB Bryan Braman blocked a punt and recovered it for a touchdown in the win.

Colts rookie QB Andrew Luck threw two touchdown passes but was sacked five times. He threw for 186 yards and completed just 48 percent of his passes (13-of-28). Texans QB Matt Schaub was 23-of-31 (74 percent) for 261 yards and a touchdown with a passer rating of 109.7.

The Texans were 1-of-5 in the red zone (20 percent) and setted for five field goals by Shayne Graham. They were penalized nine times for 69 yards. They allowed the Colts to gain 5.0 yards per carry, including 18 carries for 105 yards (5.8 average) by rookie RB Vick Ballard.

The Texans' defense limited the Colts to 1-of-8 (13 percent) on third down and 1-of-3 (33 percent) in the red zone.

Schaub started the game with passes of nine and 52 yards to Johnson on the Texans' first two plays. The Texans stalled in the red zone and settled for a 29-yard field goal by Graham.

The Texans forced the Colts into a three-and-out on the next drive and then drove 57 yards in 13 plays to take a 10-0 lead on a 3-yard touchdown catch by Johnson on third-and-goal.

The Colts got two first downs on their next drive on defensive penalties by the Texans, but DE Antonio Smith and Watt sacked Luck to help force a punt. The Texans outgained the Colts 126-11 in the first quarter.

The Texans' defense came up big early in the second quarter. The Colts got the ball in Texans territory on back-to-back drives, first at the 38-yard line and then at the 34, but came away with only three points. Watt forced a fumble at the 1-yard line that was recovered by Tim Dobbins on the first drive. Watt had a 3-yard tackle for loss inside the 10-yard line on the next drive as the Colts settled for a 26-yard field goal.

The Texans responded with a 35-yard field goal to make the score 13-3 with 3:54 remaining in the second quarter. The kick was set up by a 36-yard catch by rookie WR DeVier Posey, who also absorbed a 13-yard personal foul penalty on S Joe Lefeged on the play.

With 1:54 remaining in the second quarter, Braman blocked a punt at the 8-yard line and recovered it for a touchdown. It was his second blocked punt of the season.

Just when it looked like a rout might be on, the Colts struck back two plays later with a 61-yard touchdown pass from Luck to a wide-open T.Y. Hilton over the middle. Graham hooked a 50-yard field goal attempt wide left on the final play of the second quarter to make the halftime margin 20-10.

The Texans added a 27-yard field goal early in the third quarter to cap an 11-play, 78-yard scoring drive on which Foster had six carries for 59 yards. The Colts cut the deficit to 23-17 with 2:37 remaining in the third quarter on an 8-yard touchdown pass from Luck to TE Dwayne Allen. Graham made a 46-yard field goal with 8:35 remaining to put the Texans up 26-17. Foster picked up 75 rushing yards on the Texans' next drive, helping to take 3:40 off the clock. That led to another short field goal by Graham, which made it a two-score game with 1:05 remaining.

OLB Connor Barwin sacked Luck on the Colts' next play, and the game ended without much drama three plays later. Texans coach Gary Kubiak was doused with a bucket of Gatorade by offensive linemen Duane Brown and Chris Myers as the final seconds ticked down on the Texans' division-clinching victory.

GAME 15: Minnesota 23, Houston 6

71,688 • Reliant Stadium • Houston, Texas • Dec. 23, 2012

GAME SUMMARY

The Texans were held without a touchdown for the first time since 2006 in a 23-6 loss to Minnesota at Reliant Stadium. Houston had just 187 yards, their lowest total since opening day in 2009. They were 1-of-11 (nine percent) on third down and 0-of-1 in the red zone.

Houston held league-leading rusher Adrian Peterson in check, limiting him to 86 yards on 25 carries (3.4 average). But Vikings QB Christian Ponder was 16-of-30 for 174 yards and a touchdown. He also had 48 rushing yards, 14 more than the Texans as a team. The Vikings were 9-of-18 (50 percent) on third down.

The Texans went up 3-0 on the game's first drive with a 51-yard field goal by Shayne Graham. They picked up just one first down on their next five possessions, totaling 22 yards. They didn't score again until a 33-yard field goal by Graham in the final minute of the third quarter after the Vikings had reeled off 16 unanswered points.

Ponder put the Vikings up for good on their first drive with a 3-yard touchdown pass to TE Kyle Rudolph. He was 3-of-3 for 62 yards on the drive, which started with a false start penalty followed by a 20-yard run by Peterson.

The Texans drove into Vikings territory early in the second quarter, but Foster lost a fumble at the 23-yard line to quash a potential scoring drive. Twelve plays and 41 yards later, the Vikings took a 10-3 lead on a 56-yard field goal by rookie K Blair Walsh.

After two more three-and-outs by the Texans, the Vikings took a 13-3 halftime lead with 0:41 left in the second quarter on a 41-yard field goal by Walsh.

The third quarter started with a nine-play, 52-yard drive by the Vikings that ended with a 39-yard Walsh field goal. Ponder completed a 15-yard pass to WR Jarius Wright on third-and-10 near midfield on the drive, a play that was compounded by a 15-yard penalty on OLB Whitney Mercilus for roughing the passer.

The Texans went three-and-out again on their next drive. DE J.J. Watt sacked Ponder on the Vikings' next play, giving him 20.5 sacks on the season, and forced a fumble that Bradie James recovered at the Minnesota 45. But the Texans were unable to capitalize on the turnover and had to punt after a three-and-out.

On their next series, the Texans had first-and-goal at the 1-yard line after a 12-yard pass over the middle from Schaub to WR Kevin Walter.

Their next three plays were an incomplete pass, a run for no gain by Ben Tate and a sack for a loss of 14 yards. They settled for a 33-yard field goal with 30 seconds left in the third quarter and would not get past midfield after that.

The Vikings put the game out of reach with a 3-yard touchdown run by backup RB Toby Gerhart with 4:49 remaining, capping a 10-play, 64-yard drive. The Texans put in backup QB T.J. Yates on their next drive, and Yates was sacked from the blindside and lost a fumble on his second play.

Schaub finished the game 18-of-32 (56.3 percent) for 178 yards with a 72.1 passer rating. He was sacked three times. The Texans got into Vikings territory just four times and ran just 18 of their 53 plays on Minnesota's side of the field.

GAME 16: Indianapolis 28, Houston 16

66,957 • Lucal Oil Stadium • Indianapolis, Ind. • Dec. 30, 2012

GAME SUMMARY

The Texans lost 28-16 to the Indianapolis Colts at Lucas Oil Stadium to finish the regular season 12-4 and squandered a chance to clinch home-field advantage throughout the AFC playoffs.

The Texans fell from the first to third seed in the AFC following victories by the Denver Broncos and New England Patriots on later in the afternoon.

Houston scored just one touchdown and three field goals on six trips inside the Colts' 30-yard line. QB Matt Schaub was sacked a season-high four times and threw two interceptions. Houston was penalized nine times for 64 yards.

The Colts, who were locked into the No. 5 seed in the AFC, did not rest any starters in coach Chuck Pagano's emotional return from leukemia. They led 14-6 at halftime. The Texans scored next on a 13-yard touchdown run by Arian Foster and took their first lead, 16-14, on a 37-yard field goal by Shayne Graham with 5:22 remaining in the third.

That lead lasted all of 12 seconds. Indy's Deji Karim returned the ensuing kickoff 101 yards for a touchdown, darting untouched through the middle of the Texans' coverage unit. The Colts then went ahead 28-16 with 11:22 remaining in the fourth quarter on a 70-yard touchdown pass from Andrew Luck to WR T.Y. Hilton on third-and-23.

The Texans looked poised to answer on their next drive after a 38-yard kickoff return by Keshawn Martin. Schaub completed three consecutive passes for 41 yards to the Indy 30-yard line. Two plays later, Schaub overthrew Andre Johnson down the left sideline and was picked off by CB Vontae Davis in the end zone with 9:46 remaining. The Colts ran out the remainder of the clock with a 15-play, 63-yard drive.

Johnson had 12 catches for 141 yards in the loss. Foster had 16 carries for 96 yards and a touchdown. DE J.J. Watt had four tackles for loss but did not have a sack, leaving him two shy of the NFL single-season sack record.

The Texans were 5-of-11 on third down (45 percent) but allowed the Colts to convert 9-of-15 (60 percent). They did not force any turnovers. Early in the second quarter, Watt and OLB Connor Barwin sacked Luck and forced a fumble that Whitney Mercilus recovered at the Indianapolis 14, but the play was overturned after officials determined that Luck's hand was going forward as the ball came loose.

The Colts took a 7-0 lead on the game's first possession with a 1-yard touchdown pass from Luck to TE Coby Fleener, capping a 13-play, 75-yard drive. The Texans cut the deficit to 7-6 early in the second quarter with field goals of 51 and 37 yards by Graham.

Colts RB Vick Ballard scored a 1-yard rushing touchdown with two minutes left in the first half, six plays after Schaub was picked off by Davis for the first time. The Texans scored on their first two possessions of the second half before their next three drives ended in a three-and-out, missed 52-yard field goal and interception.

AFC WILD CARD: Houston 19, Cincinnati 13

GAME SUMMARY

The Texans overcame a stagnant red-zone offense with a dominant defense and running game to beat the Cincinnati Bengals 19-13 in a Wild Card playoff game at Reliant Stadium.

In a rematch of last year's Wild Game at Reliant Stadium, which the Texans won 31-10, Houston dominated Cincinnati just about everywhere but the scoreboard. They outgained the Bengals 420-198 and controlled the ball for 38:49. The game stayed close to the end because the Texans were 1-of-4 in the red zone and settled for four field goals.

After finishing the season on a 1-3 skid, the Texans (13-4) went back to a familiar formula to pound the Bengals (10-7). RB Arian Foster carried 32 times for 140 yards and a touchdown. The defense allowed just two field goals, pressured QB Andy Dalton constantly and held the Bengals to 0-of-9 on third down.

Dalton finished the game with 127 passing yards, one interception and a passer rating of 44.7. The Bengals' lone touchdown came on a Matt Schaub pick-six in the second quarter. Schaub played an otherwise efficient game, going 29-of-38 for 262 yards with an 83.4 passer rating in his first-career playoff start. Schaub missed the Texans' inaugural playoff run last season with a broken foot.

A raucous sellout crowd of 71,738, a franchise record for attendance, helped the Texans set the tone from the start of the game. They went ahead 3-0 on the game-opening drive and trailed only for a seven-minute period in the second quarter.

The Texans outgained the Bengals 250-53 in the first half but led just 9-7 after stalling twice in the red zone in the second quarter, leading to two Shayne Graham field goals from within 30 yards.

Schaub was picked off on third-and-three from the Houston 19-yard line in the second quarter. CB Leon Hall stepped in front of a pass in the left flat intended for FB James Casey and returned it 21 yards for a touchdown with 9:30 remaining in the second quarter. That put the Bengals up 7-6 despite having only 29 yards of offense.

The second half started with the Texans' defense forcing a three-and-out and the Texans' offense scoring its only touchdown. Foster ran it in from 1 yard out on second-and-goal to cap a six-play, 46-yard scoring drive.

Joseph picked off Dalton late in the third quarter, giving the Texans the ball back at the Cincinnati 26. The Texans could not convert the turnover into a touchdown but came away with another short field goal, this one from 24 yards, to go up 19-10.

The Bengals cut the deficit to 19-13 with a 47-yard field goal by Josh Brown on their next drive. They got the ball back with 6:15 remaining and a chance to take the lead, but the Texans forced a turnover on downs on fourth-and-11 from the Houston 36 when Joseph and S Shiloh Keo tackled WR Marvin Jones after an 8-yard gain.

The Texans ran out the remaining 2:44. Head Coach Gary Kubiak called for a play-action pass on third-and-two from the Houston 36 with 2:33 remaining, and TE Garrett Graham made a 7-yard catch in traffic to move the chains. Foster ran 10 yards for another first down two plays later to ice the game and send the Texans on to the Divisional Round.

Texans TE Owen Daniels had a game-high nine catches for 91 yards. DE J.J. Watt and OLB Brooks Reed both sacked Dalton. CB Johnathan Joseph, who played for the Bengals from 2006-10, had an interception against his former team in the playoffs for the second consecutive year. Texans WR Andre Johnson had four catches for 62 yards.

AFC DIVISIONAL: New England 41, Houston 28

68,756 • Reliant Stadium • Houston, Texas • Jan. 13, 2013

GAME SUMMARY

For the second consecutive year, the Texans' season ended with a road loss in the Divisional Round of the playoffs.

The Texans lost 41-28 to the New England Patriots at Gillette Stadium, coming up one victory short of hosting the AFC Championship Game in Houston.

The Texans scored 10 points in the final 1:15 of the second quarter, including a 55-yard field goal by Shayne Graham on the final play of the first half, to cut the deficit to 17-13 at halftime. The Patriots then went on a 21-0 run to start the second half and build a 38-13 lead with 13:07 remaining.

Texans RB Arian Foster had 153 yards from scrimmage and two touchdowns. QB Matt Schaub was 34-of-51 for 363 yards with two touchdowns and one interception. Both of his touchdowns came in the game's final 12 minutes.

Patriots QB Tom Brady was 25-of-40 for 344 yards and three touchdowns and was sacked just once. RB Shane Vereen had 165 total yards and three touchdowns, including two receiving. The Patriots were 6-of-13 (46 percent) on third down, while the Texans were 4-of-15 (27 percent).

The game started with a 94-yard kickoff return by Texans S Danieal Manning to the New England 12-yard line. But the Texans had to settle for a 27-yard field goal by Graham after FB James Casey dropped a touchdown pass on second down and Schaub overthrew Andre Johnson, who was open in the middle of the end zone, on third down.

The Patriots then stormed out to a 17-3 lead with a 1-yard touchdown run by Vereen, a 37-yard field goal by Stephen Gostkowski and an 8-yard touchdown catch by Vereen with 3:38 left in the first half.

Foster ran for a 1-yard touchdown with 1:15 remaining in the second quarter to cap a five-play, 47-yard scoring drive. The Texans' defense forced a three-and-out, and Graham made a career-long 55-yard field goal as time expired in the second quarter.

That was the closest the Texans would get. Patriots RB Stevan Ridley ran 8 yards for a touchdown on the first series of the third quarter. Schaub was picked off by DE Rob Ninkovich at the New England 31-yard line with 4:14 left in the period. The Patriots converted the turnover into seven points with a 5-yard touchdown catch by WR Brandon Lloyd.

Down 31-13 early in the fourth quarter, the Texans went for it twice on fourth-and-one from deep in their own territory. They converted the first one with a 1-yard run by Foster from the Houston 23-yard line. Four plays later, Schaub threw an incomplete pass on fourth-and-one. Brady capitalized with a 33-yard scoring pass to Vereen on the next play.

The Texans made it 38-20 less than two minutes later with a 25-yard touchdown catch by rookie WR DeVier Posey. The pass initially was ruled incomplete, but officials overturned the call after a challenge by Gary Kubiak. Posey tipped the ball to himself before catching it on his back in the end zone.

After a three-and-out by the Patriots, the Texans drove 79 yards in 11 plays for a touchdown. Foster caught a 1-yard scoring pass from Schaub on fourth-and-goal, and Johnson made a leaping catch on the two-point conversion to make it 38-28 with 5:11 remaining. The Patriots recovered the ensuing onside kick and ran 3:57 off the clock, ending up with a 38-yard field goal with 1:14 remaining for the game's final score.

TE Owen Daniels had nine catches for 81 yards. Johnson totaled eight for 95. DE J.J. Watt had four tackles and half a sack, which he split with OLB Brooks Reed.

RELIANT STADIUM

The Texans have played to 112 consecutive sellouts at Reliant Stadium. In 2013, the world's largest indoor HD video boards were installed at Reliant Stadium and it was announced that it will play host to Super Bowl LI in 2017. The stadium has played host to the Texas Bowl since 2006, the 2007 East-West Shrine Game, the 2011 NCAA Men's Final Four, Super Bowl XXXVIII, Wrestlemania XXV, Rodeo Houston and among other large-scale events. The NCAA Men's Final Four will return to the building in 2016.

The city of Houston always has been on the cutting edge of stadium development. Houston first introduced the Astrodome, which opened in 1965 as the world's first domed stadium. The trend continued in 2002 with the debut of Reliant Stadium.

The first NFL stadium with a retractable roof, Reliant Stadium opened for business on Aug. 24, 2002, as the Texans hosted the Miami Dolphins in the preseason. Houston's regular-season debut against Dallas on Sept. 8 was televised nationally on ESPN. The Texans stunned the Cowboys 19-10 before a raucous crowd, unveiling a gameday atmosphere that would become a staple throughout the Texans' inaugural campaign.

In 2013, the world's largest indoor high-definition video boards were installed at the north and south ends of the stadium. The Mitsubishi Electric Diamond Vistion System boards are 14,549 square feet apiece and have a display resolution of 1,000 x 5,280 pixels in HD 1080i format.

Counting preseason games, the Texans have played to 112 consecutive sellouts. They set a team record in 2012 with 573,321 fans during the regular season, an average of 71,665 per game. The Texans' largest crowd through 10 seasons was 71,738 for their Wild Card playoff victory over the Cincinnati Bengals on Jan. 5, 2013, the largest non-Super Bowl football crowd in the city's history.

Speaking of the Super Bowl, the world's biggest sports spectacle will take place in Reliant Stadium for a second time in February 2017. The city of Houston was awarded Super Bowl LI following a vote by NFL owners in May 2013. The Super Bowl returned to Houston for the first time in 30 years in 2004 as Reliant Stadium hosted a memorable Super Bowl XXXVIII between the New England Patriots and Carolina Panthers. The Patriots won 32-29 on Adam Vinatieri's 41-yard field goal with four seconds remaining before a crowd of 71,525. The event also featured elaborate pregame and halftime shows featuring the likes of Aerosmith, Beyoncé, Kid Rock, P. Diddy, Nelly, Toby Keith and Willie Nelson.

Reliant Stadium has hosted numerous college football games, including the Texas Bowl since 2006, three Houston Bowls, the 2002 and 2005 Big 12 Championship Games, the 2007 East-West Shrine Game, the Bayou Bucket (Rice vs. Houston) and will is the home of the 2013 AdvoCare Texas Kickoff between Mississippi State and Oklahoma State. Reliant Stadium housed the NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament Sweet 16 in 2008 and 2010 and hosted the Final Four in 2011. The Final Four will return in 2016.

Reliant Stadium also has become one of the nation's leading soccer venues. The U.S. Men's National Soccer Team hosted Mexico in May 2003 in the two teams' first match since their 2002 World Cup meeting. In 2005, Reliant Stadium hosted the championship matches of the Mexican League's InterLiga qualification competition. The stadium hosted another U.S.-Mexico match and a Mexico-Belize World Cup qualifier in 2008 and hosted matches in the CONCACAF Gold Cup in 2005, 2007 and 2009, as well as the Gold Cup semifinals in 2011 and 2010 MLS All-Star Game featuring Manchester United.

The Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo continued to play to a packed house in 2013, boasting such acts as Julion Alvarez, Luke Bryan, Blake Shelton, Pitbull and Bruno Mars. Reliant Stadium also has played host to concerts by U2, The Rolling Stones, Metallica, George Strait and Kenny Chesney, and premier events including WrestleMania XXV, Disney on Ice and the Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey Circus.

Ground broke on Reliant Stadium on March 9, 2000. The stadium, covering 1.9 million square feet, features 44,000 seats on the sideline. There are 8,400 club seats and 195 suites, along with 10 party suites on the 300 level.

With the innovation of the retractable roof, Houston returned to outdoor NFL action in 2002 for the first time since Super Bowl VIII at Rice Stadium in 1974. The roof is made of translucent, Teflon-coated fiberglass fabric and takes 10 minutes to open and close. When it opens, the roof splits at the 50-yard line and docks in the end zones.

RELIANT STADIUM

The climate-controlled stadium also features a natural grass playing surface. The grass is grown on eight-foot square trays, then transported to the stadium.

Reliant Stadium features an open view of the playing field from the main concourse and on the club level. The main concourse is 40 feet wide, which makes it one of the largest in the NFL. Each concession stand has multiple televisions that enable Texans fans to stay on top of the action.

The Texans' front office is located on the south end of the stadium, enabling the club's day-to-day operations to be under one roof. Players report to the stadium to take part in film sessions, practice, treatment and training. The 10,000-square-foot weight room is among the largest in the league. The players also can take advantage of a three-lane lap pool.

Houston's working media has its own offices and library on the ground level of Reliant Stadium. Texans head coach Gary Kubiak conducts his weekly press conference and postgame press conferences in the team's media auditorium on the ground level. The stadium's press box is located on the eighth level of the stadium's west side, flanking Kirby Drive.

Across the street, the Methodist Training Center features three outdoor grass practice fields. One field is lit for night sessions during training camp. The Methodist Training Center also features an indoor practice field outfitted with FieldTurf. The air-supported structure offers the team a seamless transition from outdoor to indoor practice in case of inclement weather. The state-of-the-art facility also doubles as the team's training camp headquarters.

RELIANT'S NEW HD VIDEO BOARDS

The above image is a rendering of one Reliant Stadium's new video boards. Both boards will be the two largest indoor HD video boards in the world and will be installed and fully operational by August 2013.

VIDEO BOARD QUICK FACTS

- The largest in-stadium HD video displays in the world
- Image area is 52.49' (H) x 277.17' (W), totaling 14,549 square feet of display surface compared to 2,592 square feet of display surface on the old, standard definition boards that were used from 2002-12. That is a 561 percent increase in area
- Display resolution of 1,000 x 5,280 pixels in HD 1080i format with 4.4 trillion colors and 960 Hz refresh rate for jitter-free HD images
- Manufactured by Mitsubishi Electric's Diamond Vision Systems Division (Cowboy Stadium; Yankee Stadium; Lambeau Field; Fenway Park; Century Link Field)
- The widest display in professional sports (roughly 40 percent wider than current title holder/Safeco Field in Seattle, Wash.)
- Largest end zone video display in the NFL (more than 70 percent larger than current title holder/LP Field in Nashville, Tenn.)
- Wider than the wing span of a 747 and equal to roughly 3,050 40" LCD displays.

VIDEO BOARD FEATURES

- Texans fans will experience High Definition video images for the first time in Reliant Stadium thanks to the new video displays. The old video boards displayed standard definition images.
- Replays will be further enhanced thanks to an additional slow-motion instant replay machine from EVS that will capture four more camera angles and the capability of network television replay footage to be shown.
- The 277-foot wide displays will be the largest in the NFL or MLB. The portion of the displays that show game action are larger than all but three video boards in the NFL at 115 feet wide and 52.5 feet tall.
- A digital clock and down and distance will replace the matrix displays that served the same purpose.
- In-game statistics will be presented on the videoboard displays, as will out-of-town scores and fantasy football updates.
- All of the space on the displays is digital and can be changed out with graphics to enhance fan experience.

MARC VANDERMEER @TexansVoice

DIRECTOR OF BROADCASTING
PLAY-BY-PLAY VOICE

Marc Vandermeer (@TexansVoice) joined the Texans staff as director of radio broadcasting in June 2012 and was promoted to senior director of broadcasting in June 2013. Vandermeer has been a team fixture since it began play in 2002, calling every snap the Houston Texans have ever taken as the team's play-by-play announcer and serving as a co-host of the morning drive show for flagship station KILT SportsRadio 610 AM until May 2012.

In his current role, Vandermeer continues to serve as the "Voice of the Texans" and oversees the programs and content on HoustonTexans.com, Texans Radio on SportsRadio 610 and Texans television programming on Fox Sports Southwest. Since the Texans began play, Vandermeer is one of only four current team employees to attend every single game, joining special teams coordinator Joe Marciano, running backs coach Chick Harris and director of equipment services Jay Brunetti.

Vandermeer came to the Texans following a successful three-year run as the play-by-play voice for the Miami Hurricanes on 560 WQAM. He called the action for the Hurricanes' football and baseball national championship teams in 2001, hosted the athletic program's weekly show, Hurricane Hotline, and filled in on the WQAM Morning Show.

From 1995-99, Vandermeer was the play-by-play voice for the UMass Minutemen and served as the UMass Radio Network Director for WHMP AM/FM. He was promoted to station manager his final year with WHMP.

Vandermeer has also called NCAA Basketball Tournament games for Westwood One Radio and was the play-by-play voice for Central Michigan University from 1992-95. He also serves on the Junior Achievement Board of Directors.

The Boston University alumnus is married to his wife, Corinne. The couple and has two sons, 7-year old Luke, and Liam, who was born in January of 2013. He enjoys playing basketball, golfing and sailing in his spare time and is an avid guitar player.

DREW DOUGHERTY @DoughertyDrew

MULTIMEDIA SPECIALIST
HOST, TEXANS TV

Drew Dougherty (@DoughertyDrew) is the host of Texans TV and the team's integrated media manager. Dougherty is the on-air talent for the video on the team's website and can be heard and seen on all team-related shows. He is in his fifth season with the team.

On Tuesdays from noon to 2 p.m. CST, you can hear Dougherty contributing to "Texans All Access" on Texans Radio on SportsRadio 610. Dougherty can be seen on Fox Sports Southwest Texans Huddle show and interviewing players and coaches on Texans TV on the team's website. In addition to his duties in front of the camera in English, Dougherty also hosts a weekly segment in Spanish called "Puntos Extra" with "La voz de los Texans" Enrique Vasquez.

From 2005 to 2009, Dougherty was the sports director at FOX34 and Telemundo46 in Lubbock. He was one of just a handful of journalists nationwide who broadcasted in both English and Spanish on a daily basis. He also hosted a few weekly coaches shows for the Texas Tech football, baseball and women's basketball teams, including Red Raider Sports with Mike Leach. Dougherty handled the TV play-by-play duties when the Lady Raiders and the baseball team were on the air, and he also was the play-by-play voice for the Tech Red vs. Black spring football games, as well as the ASCO West Texas High School Football All Star games each June.

Dougherty's start in television began at Texas Cable News in Dallas. During his four years at TXCN, he produced Ford Sports Talk and Cadillac's Texas Legends in Sports. The latter show featured in-depth profiles of Bum Phillips, Darrell Royal, Ty Murray, Mary Lou Retton, Nolan Ryan and Don Meredith, to name a few. He also filled in as an anchor for the nightly, half-hour long Chevy SportsDay as well as the weekend sportscasts.

He triple-majored in Spanish, Latin American Studies and Print Journalism at Southern Methodist University and also wrote for The Daily Campus and the Park Cities People during his time in college.

Dougherty grew up in Houston rooting for the Oilers, Astros and Rockets, and graduated from Strake Jesuit College Preparatory.

Drew and his wife Vita, are the proud parents of twins, who were born in May 2013: daughter, Marie, and son, Robert. The family is guarded by their ferocious wiener dogs, Lucy and Randy, and lives in Spring Branch.

TEXANS TELEVISION NETWORK

ABC-13/KTRK-TV is the official television home of the Houston Texans and the flagship station of the Houston Texans Television Network.

The announcers for three of the Texans' 2013 preseason games will be veteran broadcasters Joel Meyers and Spencer Tillman. Meyers spent 10 years as a play-by-play voice for NBC's NFL coverage, the NBA, Major League Baseball, the Olympics and golf. He also has extensive play-by-play experience with FOX Sports and ESPN. Tillman, a former San Francisco 49er and Houston Oiler, is a college football analyst for CBS Sports' "College Football Today" and a former host of "NFL Sunday Ticket." On the sidelines will be former Texans defensive lineman, Seth Payne.

ABC-13's Eyewitness Sports Team members Greg Bailey (Sports Director), Bob Slovak (Sports reporter/anchor) and David Nuño (reporter) help keep fans up-to-date throughout the season with exclusive coverage.

"EXTRA Points – Houston Texans Edition" airs Saturdays at 6:30 p.m. "Houston Texans: Inside the Game" airs Sundays at 10:35 p.m. and is hosted by Bailey and Tillman. The show features interviews with Texans players, one-on-one interviews with Texans head coach Gary Kubiak and a recap of each Texans game.

TEXANS RADIO

The Houston Texans and CBS RADIO Houston reached a multi-year agreement in October 2011 to ensure SportsRadio 610 and 100.3 KILT-FM remained the radio home of the Houston Texans through the 2021 NFL season and the home of Texans Radio ancillary programming. SportsRadio 610 AM and 100.3 KILT-FM have been the flagship stations of the Houston Texans since the team entered play in 2002.

Texans Radio broadcasts three-hour pregame and postgame shows on SportsRadio 610 before and after every Texans game. The Texans Radio Network broadcast team of Marc Vandermeer and Andre Ware will continue to provide play-by-play and game analysis as they have done for the past 11 years, along with Rich Lord on the sidelines.

Texans fans are guaranteed more than 15 hours of dedicated Houston Texans programming every week during football season, including in excess of five hours on Mondays as part of "Texans Monday" and a two-hour "Texans Live" show every weeknight from 6-8 p.m. CST on SportsRadio 610, and streaming online at www.HoustonTexans.com and via the Texans app for a variety of mobile devices.

Texans Radio on Sports Radio 610 is the best place to find team information on the airwaves. Exclusive shows with quarterback Matt Schaub (Mondays during the season from 8-8:30 a.m. CST) and Gary Kubiak (Mondays at 5 p.m. CST) have drawn record ratings. Texans Radio also broadcasts a 60-minute condensed version of every game on Tuesdays from 8-9 p.m. CST on SportsRadio 610 called "Texans Replay," "Texans Game Plan" from noon-2 p.m. CST on Fridays throughout the season, "Texans All Access" on Tuesdays from noon-2 p.m. CST throughout the offseason, "Texans Live" on Thursdays at 6 p.m. CST in the offseason.

Texans Radio is also exclusively airs Houston Texans NFL Draft coverage, with 16 hours of live on-site coverage from Reliant Stadium throughout the draft, and of Houston Texans Training Camp, with daily live broadcasts from the Methodist Training Center throughout training camp.

TEXANS SPANISH-LANGUAGE RADIO

Univision America 1010 AM is the flagship Spanish-language radio broadcaster of the Houston Texans for the 12th consecutive season and is the home of "The Texans Show" on Tuesdays at 5 p.m. CT during the season. Representing 44 percent of Houston's population, the Hispanic community offers a huge fan base for the Texans.

Univision America 1010 AM is owned and operated by Univision Communications Inc., the premier Spanish-language media company in the United States. Univision Radio's portfolio includes 70 owned and operated stations in 17 markets including all 10 top markets that reach 16 million listeners a week.

Enrique Vasquez is in his 12th season on the Texans Spanish radio broadcast and will serve as the play-by-play for the 2013 season. Vasquez had served on the broadcast as color commentator since the team's inaugural season in 2002.

Vasquez began his career in sports radio and television, in 1992 as a color analyst on the Houston Oilers Spanish Radio broadcast where he remained through the 1995 season. He has handled play-by-play duties for Fox Sports Americas on the network's international coverage of the NFL game of the week as well as Super Bowl XXXI and XXXII.

From 1998-01 Vasquez served as play-by-play announcer on the Dallas Cowboys Spanish radio broadcast, on select preseason game broadcasts as well as color commentator during the 2000 and 2001 seasons. He is also a regular contributor on houstontexans.com in both the English and Spanish.

JoJo Padron enters his second season with the Texans Spanish radio broadcast and will serve as color commentator in 2012. He is currently the afternoon host of Univision Radio's KAMA Tu Música 104.9 FM.

Padron broke into the broadcasting industry at the age of six, becoming the youngest television star on Univision's top-rated show "Sábado Gigante." He also made numerous appearances on other television shows, including "Party of Five", "ER", "General Hospital" and "Moesha."

In 2002, Padron turned his efforts to the radio business and has since been a part of several stations, including Hot 92 Jamz, Clear Channel in Los Angeles, KWIE Wild 96.1 FM in Riverside, Calif. and KVIB 95.1 Latino Vibe and KKFR Power 98.3 FM in Phoenix. He returned to Univision Radio in 2010 and can now be heard on Houton's KAMA Tu Musica 104.9 FM, San Antonio's KGSX La Kalle 95.1 FM and Albuquerque's KKRG La Kalle 101.3 FM.

FOX SPORTS SOUTHWEST

Patti Smith, along with Marc Vandermeer and Drew Dougherty, is the host of Texans shows on Fox Sports Southwest. Texans Huddle airs Thursdays at 6 p.m. CST and Talking Texans airs Fridays at 6 p.m. CST. The cable network is also home to Texans pre-game shows from 10-11 a.m. CST, and post-game shows on Sundays.

Fox Sports Southwest is a regional cable sports network that operates in all or parts of Texas, Louisiana, Oklahoma, New Mexico, and Arkansas. The network operates out of the Dallas-Fort Worth suburb of Irving and also in Houston, the operations center for all Fox Sports Net channels in the central part of the United States.

It is also the cable home for the Houston Texans, Dallas Mavericks (NBA), Dallas Stars (NHL), Texas Rangers (MLB), FC Dallas (MLS), San Antonio Spurs (NBA), San Antonio Silver Stars (WNBA), plus local coverage of the Southland, Big 12, and Conference USA athletic conferences. In addition, Fox Sports Southwest houses the UIL 5A State championship games for Football, Boys Basketball, and Baseball.

Fox Sports Southwest originally began as Home Sports Entertainment in 1983, serving as the cable television home of professional and collegiate sports team throughout Texas and surrounding states. In the mid-1990s, HSE became a part of the Prime Sports Networks, thus becoming Prime Sports Southwest. In 1996, the network became Fox Sports (Net) Southwest, upon News Corporation's purchase of the Prime Networks and its merger with the SportsChannel networks.
